

Atisha Kadampa Meditation Centre
Trustees Annual Report for the Year ended 31 December 2022

Objectives and Activities

The object of the Centre is to promote the Buddhist faith under the spiritual guidance of the elected General Spiritual Director of the New Kadampa Tradition – International Kadampa Buddhist Union (Geshe Kelsang Gyatso). The promotion of the Buddhist faith is principally done through the activities of teaching, study, practice and observance of moral discipline all within the New Kadampa Tradition.

The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and liaises closely with the council and other organisations in this regard.

Achievements and Performance

During the year to 31 December 2022 the Centre continued to provide an extensive range of teachings and courses across County Durham, the Tees Valley and North Yorkshire. The Centre relies very much upon the kind efforts of volunteers.

Financial Review

The accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022 do comply with current statutory requirements and the requirements of the company's governing documents and were approved by the Trustees on 10 July 2023.

A deficit of £56 was made during the year ended 31 December 2022 compared to a deficit of £4,237 in the previous accounting year. Total reserves at the end of the year were £158,487 compared to £158,543 at the end of the previous year. These are unrestricted funds which the Trustees regard as necessary for the continuing maintenance and development of Centre activities. The wide range of classes was maintained during the year and continuing work was undertaken to further enhance the quality of the Centre's building for the benefit of all using the Centre.

Structure, Governance and Management

The Centre is a charitable company with a minimum of three Directors/Trustees who are drawn from the pool of regular participants in the Centre's study programmes. They come from diverse backgrounds and are therefore able to bring a range of relevant knowledge and skills to their roles for the benefit of the Centre and its activities.

The trustees at the end of the year were Ken Standley, Joe Crees and Jennifer Andrews.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Convention

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention.

Depreciation

No provision is made for depreciation on Freehold Buildings as required by the Companies Act 2006 and FRSSE (effective April 2008). The nature of the company's business and the regulatory framework within which it operates means that the company has to carry out a regular programme of maintenance to ensure its premises continue to meet the required high standards throughout its estimated useful life. In the opinion of the directors the effect of this maintenance is that the estimated residual value of the freehold buildings is not materially different from cost and so the total amount that would be subject to depreciation is not material. For this reason it is not necessary to account for depreciation on freehold buildings.

Depreciation is provided on all other tangible fixed assets on a reducing balance method. The rates used are:

Fixtures and Fittings	- 15% on cost
Plant and Equipment	- 25% on cost
Motor Vehicles	- 25% on cost

Stocks

Stock has been valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Atisha Kadampa Meditation Centre for the Year Ended 31 December 2022

I report on the accounts of Atisha Centre for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Respective Responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act
- follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes the review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
