Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	The charity is governed by a Trust Deed dated 14 September 1991
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The charity is constituted as an unincorporated charity
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	New Trustees are appointed by a resolution at a meeting of the Trustees at which there is a majority of the Trustees present and are provided with a copy of the Trust Deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity is a Christian church which has met at various venues in the Borough of Reigate and Banstead and may meet and function as one or several bodies in other places for the worship of God, the instruction and edification of Christians, the care and Christian instruction of young people and children and the evangelisation of non-Christians, the relief of sickness and poverty and the advancement of the Christian faith generally.

The Fellowship is led by a church leader, who makes decisions with input from church members, as to how the Fellowship can best attain its objectives so that God is honoured in all things. The church leader represents and serves the members and has the responsibility of the day to day running and development of the Fellowship within the objectives of the trust.

The Trustees work alongside the church leader, liaising in the financing of activities and causes to best attain the objectives of the Fellowship. However, the Trustees have a duty as to the application of the charitable funds of the Fellowship in a manner that is transparent and accountable to donors, beneficiaries and the public by keeping their information on the public register up to date.

Redhill Christian Fellowship is an independent fellowship which is a member of the Evangelical Alliance and is part of Churches Together in Redhill and District. The Fellowship operates a Safeguarding policy for children and vulnerable adults.

Paul Puzey was elected Fellowship leader on 4th November 2007, together with his wife Hermione.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

- a) The worship of God
- b) The instruction and edification of Christians
- c) The care and Christian instruction of young people and children, and the evangelisation of non-Christians
- d) The relief of sickness and poverty
- e) The advancement of the Christian faith generally

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees see participation within the community and representation of the Christian perspective to the wider community as a central part of the Fellowship's role, to which end the trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Redhill Christian Fellowship has been active throughout the year. The Fellowship offers open and public meetings every Sunday from 10.30 am – 1.00 pm. The Sunday meetings were held at the Harlequin theatre within the Warwick Quadrant area of Redhill town centre until the building was closed in September 2023. Since then the Sunday meetings and various other meetings throughout the week have been held in various venues in Redhill and Reigate.

The Fellowship offers public services of worship, biblical instruction and teaching, children's facilities and the encouragement of one another and any visitors.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Fellowship has taken part in a number of public activities representing the Christian community including the ongoing Redhill Street Pastors project, which is part of a well-known Christian project co-ordinated by Ascension Trust. Redhill Christian Fellowship played a major role in initiating the Street Pastors project coming to Redhill in September 2009, with Paul Puzey chairing the management committee of this cross denominational community project, in cooperation with Surrey Police and Reigate and Banstead Borough Council. Nicky Woolley, a trustee of the Fellowship has taken over the role of Street Pastors Coordinator.

The Fellowship continues to cooperate with local Christian bodies for outreach in the town including continuing support toward the costs of schools workers for the Sparkfish project. Sparkfish provides Christian children and youth support to a number of local schools. Hermione Puzey is a Trustee for Sparkfish.

The Fellowship also supported a food-bank in St Matthews during the period. The Fellowship is involved with the activities of Churches Together in Redhill and District, which Paul Puzey Chairs.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Fellowship has continued to support overseas work in France and the Philippines.

The project in France is called Isaiah 55. It prints low cost bibles and gospel materials for distribution around France and the French speaking world. They also run other evangelistic events.

In the Philippines the fellowship supports a Church and an orphanage on the island of Leyte. They are involved in various local social programmes.

RCF continues to be an Open Doors partnership church. Open Doors is an organisation with the purpose of supporting the persecuted church around the world.

RCF began supporting Christian Friends of Israel (CFI) in 2023 and has continued to do so.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In accordance with the policy of the trust, the Unrestricted and Restricted funds have not been allowed to accumulate, the funds have been utilised for the purposes for which they were set up.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There were no funds materially in deficit at any time during the year.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

During the financial year Redhill Christian Fellowship trust has sustained a stable operational income and expenditure. The level of restricted funds has fluctuated over the year but unrestricted funds have been maintained at a reasonable level.

Section F Other optional information

Outlook

We look to continue our close cooperation with other churches in the town and area, and build our links with overseas Christian ministries. The Trust continues to manage our resources to best respond to the social and economic challenges of our time, and meet the needs presented to us with a Christian ethos of grace, generosity and prayer. We do not envisage any major changes to the Trust's circumstances in the coming year.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	The charity is governed by a Trust Deed dated 14 September 1991
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The charity is constituted as an unincorporated charity
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	New Trustees are appointed by a resolution at a meeting of the Trustees at which there is a majority of the Trustees present and are provided with a copy of the Trust Deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity is a Christian church which has met at various venues in the Borough of Reigate and Banstead and may meet and function as one or several bodies in other places for the worship of God, the instruction and edification of Christians, the care and Christian instruction of young people and children and the evangelisation of non-Christians, the relief of sickness and poverty and the advancement of the Christian faith generally.

The Fellowship is led by a church leader, who makes decisions with input from church members, as to how the Fellowship can best attain its objectives so that God is honoured in all things. The church leader represents and serves the members and has the responsibility of the day to day running and development of the Fellowship within the objectives of the trust.

The Trustees work alongside the church leader, liaising in the financing of activities and causes to best attain the objectives of the Fellowship. However, the Trustees have a duty as to the application of the charitable funds of the Fellowship in a manner that is transparent and accountable to donors, beneficiaries and the public by keeping their information on the public register up to date.

Redhill Christian Fellowship is an independent fellowship which is a member of the Evangelical Alliance and is part of Churches Together in Redhill and District. The Fellowship operates a Safeguarding policy for children and vulnerable adults.

Paul Puzey was elected Fellowship leader on 4th November 2007, together with his wife Hermione.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

- a) The worship of God
- b) The instruction and edification of Christians
- c) The care and Christian instruction of young people and children, and the evangelisation of non Christians
- d) The relief of sickness and poverty
- e) The advancement of the Christian faith generally

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees see participation within the community and representation of the Christian perspective to the wider community as a central part of the Fellowship's role, to which end the trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Redhill Christian Fellowship has been active throughout the year. The Fellowship offers open and public meetings every Sunday from 10.30 am – 1.00 pm at the Harlequin theatre within the Warwick Quadrant area of Redhill town centre and various other meetings throughout the week.

It offers public services of worship, biblical instruction and teaching, children's facilities and the encouragement of one another and any visitors. The Fellowship's presence at the Harlequin has provided financial income and wider social relevance for the Theatre at a time of change and regeneration.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Fellowship has taken part in a number of public activities representing the Christian community including the ongoing Redhill Street Pastors project, which is part of a well-known Christian project co-ordinated by Ascension Trust. Redhill Christian Fellowship played a major role in initiating the Street Pastors project coming to Redhill in September 2009, with Paul Puzey chairing the management committee of this cross denominational community project, in cooperation with Surrey Police and Reigate and Banstead Borough Council. Nicky Woolley, a trustee of the Fellowship has taken over the role of Street Pastors Coordinator.

The Fellowship continues to cooperate with local Christian bodies for outreach in the town including continuing support toward the costs of schools workers for the Sparkfish project. Sparkfish provides Christian children and youth support to a number of local schools. Hermione Puzey is a Trustee for Sparkfish.

The Fellowship also supports a food-bank in St Matthews. The Fellowship is involved with the activities of Churches Together in Redhill and District, which Paul Puzey Chairs.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Following the pandemic, the Fellowship's usual activities were resumed.

The Fellowship has continued to support overseas work in France and the Philippines.

The project in France is called Isaiah 55. It prints low cost bibles and gospel materials for distribution around France and the French speaking world. They also run other evangelistic events.

In the Philippines the fellowship supports a Church and an orphanage on the island of Leyte. They are involved in various local social programmes.

RCF continues to be an Open Doors partnership church. Open Doors is an organisation with the purpose of supporting the persecuted church around the world.

RCF began supporting Christian Friends of Israel (CFI) during the current year.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In accordance with the policy of the trust, the Unrestricted and Restricted funds have not been allowed to accumulate, the funds have been utilised for the purposes for which they were set up.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There were no funds materially in deficit at any time during the year.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

During the financial year Redhill Christian Fellowship trust has sustained a stable operational income and expenditure. The level of restricted funds has fluctuated over the year but unrestricted funds have been maintained at a reasonable level.

Section F Other optional information

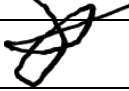

Outlook

We look to continue our close cooperation with other churches in the town and area, and build our links with overseas Christian ministries. The Trust continues to manage our resources to best respond to the social and economic challenges of our time, and meet the needs presented to us with a Christian ethos of grace, generosity and prayer. We do not envisage any major changes to the Trust's circumstances in the coming year.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	The charity is governed by a Trust Deed dated 14 September 1991
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The charity is constituted as an unincorporated charity
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	New Trustees are appointed by a resolution at a meeting of the Trustees at which there is a majority of the Trustees present and are provided with a copy of the Trust Deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity is a Christian church which has met at various venues in the Borough of Reigate and Banstead and may meet and function as one or several bodies in other places for the worship of God, the instruction and edification of Christians, the care and Christian instruction of young people and children and the evangelisation of non-Christians, the relief of sickness and poverty and the advancement of the Christian faith generally.

The Fellowship is led by a church leader, who makes decisions with input from church members, as to how the Fellowship can best attain its objectives so that God is honoured in all things. The church leader represents and serves the members and has the responsibility of the day to day running and development of the Fellowship within the objectives of the trust.

The Trustees work alongside the church leader, liaising in the financing of activities and causes to best attain the objectives of the Fellowship. However, the Trustees have a duty as to the application of the charitable funds of the Fellowship in a manner that is transparent and accountable to donors, beneficiaries and the public by keeping their information on the public register up to date.

Redhill Christian Fellowship is an independent fellowship which is a member of the Evangelical Alliance and is part of Churches Together in Redhill and District. The Fellowship operates a Safeguarding policy for children and vulnerable adults.

Paul Puzey was elected Fellowship leader on 4th November 2007, together with his wife Hermione.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

- a) The worship of God
- b) The instruction and edification of Christians
- c) The care and Christian instruction of young people and children, and the evangelisation of non Christians
- d) The relief of sickness and poverty
- e) The advancement of the Christian faith generally

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees see participation within the community and representation of the Christian perspective to the wider community as a central part of the Fellowship's role, to which end the trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Redhill Christian Fellowship has been active throughout the year. The Fellowship offers open and public meetings every Sunday from 10.30 am – 1.00 pm at the Harlequin theatre within the Warwick Quadrant area of Redhill town centre and various other meetings throughout the week.

It offers public services of worship, biblical instruction and teaching, children's facilities and the encouragement of one another and any visitors. The Fellowship's presence at the Harlequin has provided financial income and wider social relevance for the Theatre at a time of change and regeneration.

From 20th June 2021 RCF re-opened public meetings at the Harlequin with COVID-19 distancing and safety controls in place but has also offered access to meetings via Zoom for those who are isolating or unable to attend.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Fellowship has taken part in a number of public activities representing the Christian community including the ongoing Redhill Street Pastors project, which is part of a well-known Christian project co-ordinated by Ascension Trust. Redhill Christian Fellowship played a major role in initiating the Street Pastors project coming to Redhill in September 2009, with Paul Puzey chairing the management committee of this cross denominational community project, in cooperation with Surrey Police and Reigate and Banstead Borough Council.

The Fellowship continues to cooperate with local Christian bodies for outreach in the town including continuing support toward the costs of schools workers for the Sparkfish project. Sparkfish provides Christian children and youth support to a number of local schools. Hermione Puzey is a Trustee for Sparkfish.

The Fellowship also supports a food-bank in St Matthews. The Fellowship is involved with the activities of Churches Together in Redhill and District, which Paul Puzey Chairs.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the pandemic many of the Fellowships usual activities have not been possible. Instead, regular small gatherings have been run on-line with access via Zoom to support members and share fellowship.

The Fellowship has continued to support overseas work in France and the Philippines.

The project in France is called Isaiah-55. It prints low cost bibles and gospel materials for distribution around France and the French speaking world. They also run other evangelistic events.

In the Philippines the fellowship supports a Church and an orphanage on the island of Leyte. They are involved in various local social programmes. RCF is also an Open Doors partnership church, Open Doors is an organisation with the purpose of supporting the persecuted church around the world.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2021

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document <small>(eg. trust deed, constitution)</small>	The charity is governed by a Trust Deed dated 14 September 1991
How the charity is constituted <small>(eg. trust, association, company)</small>	The charity is constituted as an unincorporated charity
Trustee selection methods <small>(eg. appointed by, elected by)</small>	New Trustees are appointed by a resolution at a meeting of the Trustees at which there is a majority of the Trustees present and are provided with a copy of the Trust Deed.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity is a Christian church which has met at various venues in the Borough of Reigate and Banstead and may meet and function as one or several bodies in other places for the worship of God, the instruction and edification of Christians, the care and Christian instruction of young people and children and the evangelisation of non-Christians, the relief of sickness and poverty and the advancement of the Christian faith generally.

The Fellowship is led by a church leader, who makes decisions with input from church members, as to how the Fellowship can best attain its objectives so that God is honoured in all things. The church leader represents and serves the members and has the responsibility of the day to day running and development of the Fellowship within the objectives of the trust.

The Trustees work alongside the church leader, liaising in the financing of activities and causes to best attain the objectives of the Fellowship. However, the Trustees have a duty as to the application of the charitable funds of the Fellowship in a manner that is transparent and accountable to donors, beneficiaries and the public by keeping their information on the public register up to date.

Redhill Christian Fellowship is an independent fellowship which is a member of the Evangelical Alliance and is part of Churches Together in Redhill and District. The Fellowship operates a Safeguarding policy for children and vulnerable adults.

Paul Puzey was elected Fellowship leader on 4th November 2007, together with his wife Hermione.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

- a) The worship of God
- b) The instruction and edification of Christians
- c) The care and Christian instruction of young people and children, and the evangelisation of non Christians
- d) The relief of sickness and poverty
- e) The advancement of the Christian faith generally

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees see participation within the community and representation of the Christian perspective to the wider community as a central part of the Fellowship's role, to which end the trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Redhill Christian Fellowship has been active throughout the year. The Fellowship offers open and public meetings every Sunday from 10.30 am – 1.00 pm at the Harlequin theatre within the Warwick Quadrant area of Redhill town centre, one of three churches in the town centre, and various other public meetings throughout the week.

It offers public services of worship, biblical instruction and teaching, children's facilities and the encouragement of one another and any visitors. The Fellowship's presence at the Harlequin has provided financial income and wider social relevance for the Theatre at a time of change and regeneration.

In March 2020 the Harlequin closed to public meetings due to the COVID-19 pandemic and RCF moved to holding on-line meetings via Zoom several times a week and on Sundays to support RCF members during the lockdown. Since 20 June 2021 RCF re-opened public meetings at the Harlequin with COVID-19 distancing and safety controls in place but has also continued to offer access to meetings via Zoom for those who are isolating or unable to attend.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The Fellowship has taken part in a number of public activities representing the Christian community including the ongoing Redhill Street Pastors project, which is part of a well-known Christian project co-ordinated by Ascension Trust. Redhill Christian Fellowship played a major role in initiating the Street Pastors project coming to Redhill in September 2009, with Paul Puzey chairing the management committee of this cross denominational community project, in cooperation with Surrey Police and Reigate and Banstead Borough Council.

The Fellowship continues to cooperate with local Christian bodies for outreach in the town including continuing support toward the costs of schools workers for the Sparkfish project. Sparkfish provides Christian children and youth support to a number of local schools. Hermione Puzey is a Trustee for Sparkfish.

Other co-operations with local churches include supporting a food-bank which has opened in St Matthews, Redhill.

The Fellowship has traditionally organised and lead a Churches Together Pentecost Sunday public service in Redhill Memorial Park, on behalf of the local Christian community, but this has not been possible during the pandemic.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During the pandemic many of the Fellowships usual activities have not been possible. Instead, regular small gatherings have been run on-line with access via Zoom to support members and share fellowship.

The Fellowship has continued to support overseas work in France and the Philippines.

The project in France is called Isaiah-55. It prints low cost bibles and gospel materials for distribution around France and the French speaking world. Isaiah 55 also facilitates training for Christian youth from a number of European nations, promoting cross cultural communication and co-operation. They also run other evangelistic events.

In the Philippines the fellowship supports a Church and an orphanage on the island of Leyte. They are involved in various local social programmes.

RCF is also an Open Doors partnership church, Open Doors is an organisation with the purpose of supporting the persecuted church around the world.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

In accordance with the policy of the trust, the Unrestricted and Restricted funds have not been allowed to accumulate, the funds have been utilised for the purposes for which they were set up.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There were no funds materially in deficit at any time during the year.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

During the financial year Redhill Christian Fellowship trust has sustained a stable operational income and expenditure, the level of restricted funds has fluctuated over the year but unrestricted funds have been maintained at a reasonable level.

Section F Other optional information

Outlook

We look to continue our close cooperation with other churches in the town and area, and build our links with overseas Christian ministries. The Trust continues to manage our resources to best respond to the social and economic challenges of our time, and meet the needs presented to us with a Christian ethos of grace, generosity and prayer. We do not envisage any major changes to the Trust's circumstances in the coming year.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
