Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objective of the charity is to advance the Christian religion in the UK and in any part of the world by the propagation of the Biblical Gospel, by faithfully expounding the Word of God in a clear and relevant way through (a) preaching, (b) literature and (c) personal witness. People, thus, might be saved, Christians might be nurtured and falsehood and error might be exposed.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sunday Christian services which were advertised locally open to anyone.• Regular Bible studies which were open to anyone.• Bible Scriptures and tracts are made freely available.• Subsidised Family holidays for those needing relief.• A free Christmas carol service where the gospel message is presented.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees recognise their duty to report on the public benefit of this charity and have had regard to the guidance from the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We praise God for sustaining us through what has been a very difficult year, due to the Covid restrictions. The Sunday services continued to allow us to share the Biblical gospel when the Covid restrictions allowed. It was encouraging to be able support some local visitors at our service as their churches were still closed. We managed to get the Christmas greetings and calendars distributed to our neighbours in the village and we were grateful for the responses in the form of Christmas cards and phone calls. We were unable to hold our Carol service because we had contracted Covid, although we were clear to be able to host a Christmas Morning service and support several guests before the New Year.

The charity holds no reserves.	Para 1.32		Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held
Trustees of charities are under a general legal duty not to hold funds but to use them for the purposes of the charity; this is part of the basis under which charities receive preferential tax treatment, notably that they are not subject to Corporation Tax and that they can recover tax on certain donations under Gift Aid arrangements. As the charity has very low Admin costs we have no need to hold reserves and with the funds to be used for the Charities aims.	Para 1.32		Amount of reserves held Reasons for holding zero reserves
None	Para 1.34		Details of fund materially in deficit
The Director/Trustees are satisfied that there is no need to hold reserves at the Balance Sheet date together with anticipated ongoing income to enable BIAT to continue during 2022 and for the foreseeable future. The financial viability of BIAT will continue to be assessed by the trustees at regular intervals.	Para 1.33		Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern
	Para 1.47		The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

Independent examiner's statement

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
