THE CRAWLEY FESTIVAL

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2022

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 September 2022.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 2 to the accounts and comply with the Trust's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Structure, governance and management

The Crawley Festival ('the Organisation') is a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales, number 02513706. It is also a registered Charity number 1023010. The organisation was incorporated on 20 June 1990 and registered as a charity on 23 June 1993. The company is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The Trustees, who are also the Directors for the purpose of company law, who served during the year, were:

Angela Finn (secretary)
Anthony Witton (chairman)
Josephine Anne McQuade (Community links)

Other committee members are Shannon Mackey Witton (Acting treasurer) and Josh Smith (Events Manager).

Objectives and activities

We believe that the arts are a part of everyday life and are fundamental to community engagement and ownership. They generate economic growth and enable skills development. They provide a positive means to get people involved and accessible tools to encourage people to generate their own ideas to explore and address local interests and issues.

These aims are realised specifically through the organisation and delivery of a programme of events which showcases local talent and encourages engagement to deliver cultural learning and economic growth.

The company is a charity and is limited by guarantee with no share capital. Each member agrees to contribute £1 towards the liabilities of the company on winding up.

Achievements and performance

Crawley Festival had successfully worked with Crawley Borough Council in the summer of 2021 to programme a series of afternoon covid-secure live events at The Bandstand. As covid restrictions eased further, with support from Crawley Borough Council, Crawley Town Centre BID and Diverse Crawley, in September 2021 we held our first 'Post-Covid' medium scale event. Entitled 'BACKstage', the Saturday afternoon event in the Memorial Gardens was a great success, and that gave us the confidence to plan a similar series of events for 2022.

From May through to July 2022 we gave practical support to local artist Rachel Cowell (of Ginger Moo Ltd.) by monitoring and administering the funding she received from Sussex Community Foundation for a Platinum Jubilee art installation project. Rachel ran several workshops in Crawley, helping participants to produce lots of original art works in the form of wire sculpture figures. The figures were assembled by Rachel to create an impressive large installation which was displayed in County Mall.

Funding was still limited, and we were thankful that Crawley Borough Council were able to provide a further £10,000 for our 2022 events programme. We worked with Crawley Borough Council and local performers to programme a series of events in July and August 2022 at The Bandstand, on several Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The Saturday afternoon events in particular gave school age children a chance to take part and enabled families to come into the town centre and enjoy the free, live entertainment. One Saturday event on August 13th, coincided with the arrival of 'Aura' in The Memorial Gardens as part of a larger project by Creative Crawley.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2022

Crawley Festival chose to support Moonstones as our local charitable organisation for 2022. Moonstones supports victims of domestic abuse (on a referral basis), by providing care packages to individuals and families that have had to re-locate to Crawley to escape domestic abuse. Our first fundraising event for Moonstones was a free lunchtime concert in early July at St John's Church, in Crawley town centre, by The Silver Birch Singers. The event was well attended and was enjoyed by many, who showed their appreciation by donating to a bucket collection for Moonstones. Crawley Festival provided stewards, online publicity, printed flyers and funded the church hire cost. With other small donations which came in later, we collected a total of £280 for Moonstones.

Our big event was planned for Saturday 10th September 2022, and our event manager, Josh, worked hard putting together an exciting programme, with another opportunity to fund raise for Moonstones. BACKstage 2022 was going to be bigger and better than the 2021 event – but unfortunately it didn't happen! After the sad news of the death of Her Majesty the Queen on 8th September, we were informed at lunchtime the following day by Crawley Borough Council that all events had to be postponed. This confirmed our own feelings that it would not be appropriate to go ahead with BACKstage at that time.

We would like to thank all the performers, workshop providers, stall holders, Diverse Crawley (providers of the Cultural Kitchen), the food and drink vendors who were so understanding, and anyone else whose plans had to change because BACKstage was postponed. We incurred some unavoidable loss of revenue, but most people were very supportive. We were not able to reschedule the event before the shorter days of autumn were upon us, so the event has been carried forward to Saturday 27th May 2023, and we look forward to seeing everyone there.

Plans

Crawley Festival has been working towards conversion to a CIO (Charitable Incorporated Organisation), which will simplify our reporting requirements and bring our governance arrangements up to date. This has proved rather more complicated than we first thought, but we are making progress and hope to complete the process during the next few months.

The Management Committee intends recruit more committee members, including a new treasurer, and to encourage and promote events in future years.

Financial review

The Statement of Financial Activities is attached. The charity reports a gain of income over expenditure of £6,274 for the year ending 30 September 2022 (2020-21: deficit of £9,529).

The management committee have established a policy whereby the free reserves held by the charity should be between 25% and 50% of the annual resources expended. At this level, the management committee feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding.

Risk review

The management committee considers risk issues on a regular basis and acts to mitigate risk on an ongoing basis to which the charity is exposed.

Key Risks:

1. Financial – The Festival has low levels of reserves and depends upon annual grants to deliver an events programme. The impact of Covid 19 on Gatwick Airport has had ongoing effects. We continue to work with Crawley Borough Council and Crawley Town Centre BID.

Relationships are maintained with key stakeholders and applications for grants are made in good time to give early indication of the level of expenditure events which can be achieved. No commitments are made if funds are not in place to meet them. Events are also scalable.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2022

2. Personnel – The Festival has a small committee and depends on the skills and time commitment of individual volunteers to deliver an annual events programme. Succession planning is considered on an ongoing basis and new volunteers are introduced to Festival activities to build up local support. Recruitment of new committee members is a priority.

3. Reputational – The Festival is known for delivering good quality and well organised events. Regular event planning meetings are held throughout the year to provide opportunities for discussion and checks on quality and a robust health and safety process is in place.

Public Benefit

The Charity's trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Commission in exercising their powers or duties.

Recruitment and appointment of Directors

Directors are recruited based on skill gaps identified by existing directors. They are formally appointed at the Annual General Meeting.

Responsibilities of the Directors

Company law requires the management committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP.
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The Directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Approved by the Directors on 7th March 2023.

Signed on their behalf by:
Mr A Witton (Chairman)

THE CRAWLEY FESTIVAL
INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE CRAWLEY FESTIVAL

I report on the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charitable Company for the year ended 30 September 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the Charitable Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2022

1 Statutory information

The Crawley Festival is a charitable company, limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales. The charitable company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Legal and Administrative information page.

2 Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015) – (Charities SORP 2015), Charities Act 2011 and the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

The Crawley Festival meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note(s). There are no material uncertainties about The Crawley Festival ability to continue as a going concern.

The functional currency of the charity is pounds sterling and items are rounded to the nearest pound.

2.2 Income

Voluntary income is received by way of donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.

Grants are recognised in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when the grant can be reliably measured, the charity become entitled to the income and it is probable that the charity will receive the funds.

Charitable activity income are stall holder fees at events. These are recognised in full when receivable.

2.3 Expenditure

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis with the irrecoverable element of VAT included with the item of expense to which it relates.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries.

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include independent examination fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity. These are included as support costs.

2.4 Taxation

The charity is registered as a charity and all of its income falls within the exemptions under Part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010.

2.5 Creditors and provisions

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably.

2.6 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised.

The trustees do not consider that there are any critical estimates or areas of judgement that need to be brought to the attention of the readers of the financial statements.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 September 2021.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 2 to the accounts and comply with the Trust's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Structure, governance and management

The Crawley Festival ('the Organisation') is a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales, number 02513706. It is also a registered Charity number 1023010. The organisation was incorporated on 20 June 1990 and registered as a charity on 23 June 1993. The company is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The Trustees, who are also the Directors for the purpose of company law, who served during the year, were:

Angela Finn

Anthony Witton

Josephine Anne McQuade (appointed by committee 17 November 2020, ratified at AGM 20 April 2021).

Objectives and activities

We believe that the arts are a part of everyday life and are fundamental to community engagement and ownership. They generate economic growth and enable skills development. They provide a positive means to get people involved and accessible tools to encourage people to generate their own ideas to explore and address local interests and issues.

These aims are usually realised specifically through the organisation and delivery of an annual festival which showcases local talent and encourages engagement to deliver cultural learning and economic growth. Events during 2020-21 were modified to take account of the Coronavirus mitigation rules.

The company is a charity and is limited by guarantee with no share capital. Each member agrees to contribute £1 towards the liabilities of the company on winding up.

Achievements and performance

At the beginning of the 2020 financial year, Crawley Festival had funds available because Coronavirus had forced the cancellation of any live events during Summer 2020. During 2020 we had begun to work with Creative Crawley, a consortium of local people representing organisations with an interest in supporting, producing, and presenting high quality arts and cultural activity in Crawley. Crawley Festival Chairman, Tony Witton, is on the Creative Crawley board.

During Autumn 2020 Crawley Festival worked alongside Creative Crawley in preparing for 'Right Here', a micro-festival on 29/30 January 2021. With the agreement of funding providers Crawley Borough Council, Crawley Festival contributed £8,000 to the project. Tony was involved in recruiting and appointing lead artists and was able to contribute Crawley Festival's experience and expertise of putting on workshops and other arts events to engage the community in Crawley. This involvement gave Crawley Festival an opportunity to participate in regeneration planning for the town's future. Due to increased coronavirus restrictions in early 2021 the Right Here micro-festival was adapted to be mainly online events, alongside art installations on several local shopping parades. As a registered charity, Crawley Festival was able to support Creative Crawley by administering the funding provided by Crawley Festival and an additional £5000 funding from Sussex Community Fund. Crawley Festival's secretary Angela Finn, and acting treasurer Shannon Witton, worked closely with Louise Blackwell of Creative Crawley to keep accurate financial records.

The Crawley Festival Annual General Meeting was held online, using Zoom, on 20 April 2021. Joe Exler joined the committee, and Josephine Anne McQuade was confirmed as a trustee.

During the summer of 2021 Crawley Festival worked closely with Crawley Borough Council (CBC) to programme entertainment on The Bandstand for several Thursday afternoons, making several new performing contacts.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

As Covid restrictions were reduced, the committee planned a new medium scale covid-safe event for September 2021 in the Memorial Gardens, choosing the name BACKstage to show that we were back in business. With generous support from Crawley Business Improvement District and Diverse Crawley, both of whom provided infrastructure and event delivery services in kind, and with Crawley Borough Council funding, we were able to maximise access to the event by providing all activities free of charge. Activities included live music on the bandstand from a variety of local performers, cooking demonstrations and food tasting at the Cultural Kitchen run by Diverse Crawley, rides and games for children, an art workshop and a limited street food offer of wood fired pizza, beer, sparkling wine and ice cream. A wide variety of community information stalls set up in individual gazebos gave local organisations the opportunity to raise awareness of their services. The weather was excellent and this, together with the variety of activities, attracted an estimated 4,000 people across the course of the afternoon between the opening hours of midday to 5pm.

The Festival Committee rose to the challenge of putting together a redesigned programme for 2021 in a time of considerable uncertainty, firmly believing in the value of cultural activity in reconnecting the community. The enthusiastic engagement of the public and positive comments received on the day were a clear endorsement of our approach and the value attributed to high quality and high-profile cultural activity by the local community.

Plans

With changes to committee membership in 2020, and only two trustees after the 2020 AGM, we put on hold plans to move to a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). In November 2020 committee member Anne McQuade was appointed as a Trustee. An uncertain future due to the pandemic and reduced funding opportunities gave us further cause for caution. As the future now looks more stable, we hope to proceed with conversion to a CIO, which will simplify our reporting requirements and bring our governance arrangements up to date. We will continue to work with Crawley Community Action (previously Crawley CVS) to prepare updated governance documents.

The Management Committee's intention is to continue to recruit more committee members, including a new treasurer, and to encourage and promote events in future years.

Financial review

The Statement of Financial Activities is attached. The charity reports a deficit of £9,529 for the year to 30 September 2021 (2020: surplus of £11,232).

Reserves policy

The management committee have established a policy whereby the free reserves held by the charity should be between 25% and 50% of the annual resources expended. At this level, the management committee feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. The free reserves totalled £3,500 at the 30 September 2021 are in line with this policy (2020: £13,029).

Risk review

The management committee considers risk issues on a regular basis and acts to mitigate risk on an ongoing basis to which the charity is exposed.

Key Risks:

1. Financial – The Festival has low levels of reserves and depends upon annual grants to deliver an events programme. The impact of Covid 19 on Gatwick Airport will have ongoing effects. Crawley Borough Council have reviewed their Community Grant Funding for 2022. Crawley Festival has applied for 3 years of funding from CBC for 2022 to 2024 and will continue to seek additional sources of funding.

Relationships are maintained with key stakeholders and applications for grants are made in good time to give early indication of the level of expenditure events which can be achieved. No commitments are made if funds are not in place to meet them. Events are also scalable.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

2. Personnel – The Festival has a small committee and depends on the skills and time commitment of individual volunteers to deliver an annual events programme. Succession planning is considered on an ongoing basis and new volunteers are introduced to Festival activities to build up local support. Recruitment of new committee members is a priority.
3. Reputational – The Festival is known for delivering good quality and well organised events. Regular event planning meetings are held throughout the year to provide opportunities for discussion and checks on quality and a robust health and safety process is in place. Ongoing government recommendations on Covid safety may continue to have an impact on future event plans.

Public Benefit

The Charity's trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Commission in exercising their powers or duties.

Recruitment and appointment of Directors

Directors are recruited based on skill gaps identified by existing directors. They are formally appointed at the Annual General Meeting.

Responsibilities of the Directors

Company law requires the management committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The Directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

I report on the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charitable Company for the year ended 30 September 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the Charitable Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

1 Statutory information

The Crawley Festival is a charitable company, limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales. The charitable company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Legal and Administrative information page.

2 Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015) – (Charities SORP 2015), Charities Act 2011 and the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

The Crawley Festival meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note(s). There are no material uncertainties about The Crawley Festival ability to continue as a going concern.

The functional currency of the charity is pounds sterling and items are rounded to the nearest pound.

2.2 Income

Voluntary income is received by way of donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.

Grants are recognised in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when the grant can be reliably measured, the charity become entitled to the income and it is probable that the charity will receive the funds.

Charitable activity income are stall holder fees at events. These are recognised in full when receivable.

2.3 Expenditure

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis with the irrecoverable element of VAT included with the item of expense to which it relates.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries.

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include independent examination fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity. These are included as support costs.

2.4 Taxation

The charity is registered as a charity and all of its income falls within the exemptions under Part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010.

2.5 Creditors and provisions

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably.

2.6 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised.

The trustees do not consider that there are any critical estimates or areas of judgement that need to be brought to the attention of the readers of the financial statements.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2020

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 September 2020.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the Trust's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Structure, governance and management

The Crawley Festival ('the Organisation') is a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales, number 02513706. It is also a registered Charity number 1023010. The organisation was incorporated on 20 June 1990 and registered as a charity on 23 June 1993. The company is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The Trustees, who are also the Directors for the purpose of company law, who served during the year, were:

Angela Finn

Pamela Saturnus – retired at AGM on 10 Feb 2020

Anthony Witton

Objectives and activities

We believe that the arts are a part of everyday life and are fundamental to community engagement and ownership. They generate economic growth and enable skills development. They provide a positive means to get people involved and accessible tools to encourage people to generate their own ideas to explore and address local interests and issues.

These aims are realised specifically through the organisation and delivery of an annual festival which showcases local talent and encourages engagement to deliver cultural learning and economic growth.

The company is a charity and is limited by guarantee with no share capital. Each member agrees to contribute £1 towards the liabilities of the company on winding up.

Achievements and performance

At the beginning of 2020 we were starting to plan Crawley Festival events for the summer, with an expectation of £10,000 from Gatwick Airport and an application submitted to Crawley Borough Council for Community Grant Funding.

In March we were successful in securing £12,750 from Crawley Borough Council. Gatwick Airport Ltd confirmed that, due to lost revenue resulting from the increasingly serious effects of Covid 19, they were unable to offer funding for 2020.

Due to reduced income, restrictions on mass gatherings and requirements to socially distance, we took the decision to postpone our large scale, outdoor events. We began to think about other activities to engage the community and felt, as a creative community organisation, we were well placed to help Crawley respond to the worldwide emergency at a local level.

The directors engaged in discussion with Creative Crawley, a consortium of creative professionals leading on a major bid to place creativity at the heart of everyday life throughout the town. We adopted a collaborative approach to broaden our contacts, networks, influences and visibility by working with them. The group includes artists, producers, youth and education services, CBC and business professionals and will bring additional knowledge into the work of the Festival committee as we work together on the shared aims of putting on high quality arts projects for the benefit of Crawley people.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2020

Crawley Festival Chairman, Tony Witton, joined Creative Crawley as a member of the Advisory Board, and has contributed to the planning of Right Here, a Covid safe Micro-Festival to be held in Crawley at the end of January 2021. A revised business case outlining the role of Crawley Festival in the Right Here Festival and requesting approval for change of use of the Community Grant Funding received approval from Crawley Borough Council in May 2020.

At the end of September 2020 planning is well underway the Right Here Festival. Crawley Festival worked on selection of the lead artist for the event and are contributing to the community programming, marketing and delivery.

It is hoped that Crawley Festival will be able to put on at least one large scale live music event in 2021, along the lines of previous Mainstage events. Additional funding will be sought for this event.

Plans

With changes to committee membership in 2020, and only two trustees after the 2020 AGM, we put on hold plans to move to a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO).

Following the retirement of Pamela Saturnus as treasurer Shannon Mackey-Witton has taken on the role of Treasurer on an interim basis. In November 2020 committee member Anne McQuaid was appointed as a Trustee,

We plan to proceed with conversion to a CIO, which will simplify our reporting requirements and bring our governance arrangements up to date. We will continue to work with Crawley Community Action (previously Crawley CVS) to prepare updated governance documents.

The Management Committee's intention is to continue to recruit more committee members, including a new treasurer, and to encourage and promote events in future years.

Financial review

The Statement of Financial Activities is attached. The charity reports a surplus of £11,232 for the year to 30 September 2020 (2019: deficit of £544). The Right Here Festival will take place at the end of January 2021 and production costs and artist fees totalling £8,000 will be paid by Crawley Festival.

Reserves policy

The management committee have established a policy whereby the free reserves held by the charity should be between 25% and 50% of the annual resources expended. At this level, the management committee feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. The reserves at the 30 September 2020 are in line with this policy.

Risk review

The management committee considers risk issues on a regular basis and acts to mitigate risk on an ongoing basis to which the charity is exposed.

Key Risks:

1. Financial – The Festival has low levels of reserves and depends upon annual grants to deliver an events programme. The impact of Covid 19 on Gatwick Airport will have ongoing effects. Crawley Borough Council have also indicated they are reviewing their Community Grant Funding for 2021. Crawley Festival will need to review its activities and find other sources of funding.

Relationships are maintained with key stakeholders and applications for grants are made in the preceding year to give early indication of the level of expenditure events which can be achieved. No commitments are made if funds are not in place to meet them. Events are also scalable.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2020

2. Personnel – The Festival has a small committee and depends on the skills and time commitment of individual volunteers to deliver an annual events programme. Succession planning is considered on an ongoing basis and new volunteers are introduced to Festival activities to build up local support. Recruitment of new committee members is a priority.
3. Reputational – The Festival is known for delivering good quality and well organised events. Regular event planning meetings are held throughout the year to provide opportunities for discussion and checks on quality and a robust health and safety process is in place. Government recommendations on Covid safety will have an ongoing impact on future event plans.

Public Benefit

The Charity's trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Commission in exercising their powers or duties.

Recruitment and appointment of Directors

Directors are recruited based on skill gaps identified by existing directors. They are formally appointed at the Annual General Meeting.

Responsibilities of the Directors

Company law requires the management committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The Directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Approved by the Directors on 24 March 2021

THE CRAWLEY FESTIVAL

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE CRAWLEY FESTIVAL

I report on the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30 September 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
