The Trustees actively review the major risks which the charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at the levels stated will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of The Thriplow Charitable Trust is the advancement of higher and further education (whether in or in connection with universities, university colleges, colleges and other places of learning or otherwise) and the promotion of research and the dissemination of the results of such research.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Trustees meet regularly to consider and approve grants payable and to ensure that the management is effective.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Trustees have continued in their objectives of the advancement of higher and further education and the promotion of research by making a number of grants to suitable applicants during the year. Applications for funds are received by the Secretary and those which qualify for grants are submitted to the twice yearly Trustee meetings. The income generated by the capital of the Trust is used to fund these grants.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees aim to maintain free reserves (non-interest bearing cash reserves which are not held as investments) at a level which equates to approximately three months expenditure. The trustees consider that this level will provide sufficient funds to cover current activities in the short term should income from the investments drop significantly for any reason. At the year end there were more than sufficient unrestricted non-interest bearing cash reserves to cover this amount.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

- In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention
1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
