- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

This is a very small trust run from within the Rotary Club of Chipping Campden. All Charity trustees are also Rotary Members.

Charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity, taking decision about what is done, how money is raised and spent.

The trustees are supported by all the current members of the Rotary Club of Chipping Campden running charity events and raising monies for the charity account. In addition, the local schools also support the many young initiatives the club organise on an annual basis.

Each event is run as a separate entity and the consideration of risks and issues are governed under the overall banner of Rotary and the guidelines; they provide for fund raising.

Members and Trustees are not paid, nor claim any expenses and time is provide free. All money raised is used to cover event costs and support local good causes.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document
