Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Aim of the Scout Association is to promote the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potential, as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities. The Method of achieving the Aim of the Association is by providing an enjoyable and attractive scheme of progressive training based on the Scout Promise and Law and guided by adult leadership.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The 1st Chipping Sodbury Scout Group was formed in 1914 and has developed to become one of the largest and most successful in the district. With the assistance of parents and helpers we aim to provide Scouting for

- two Beaver colonies,
- two Cub packs,
- two Scout troops

All sections are run by adult warranted leaders who voluntarily give up a great deal of their spare time and often their own finances. No leader or helper ever receives any form of payment other than the satisfaction of seeing the results of their endeavours.

All trustees referenced in Section A are aware of their legal responsibilities/duty to ensure:

- They act in the best interest of the charity
 - Dealing with conflict of interest
- Manage the resources responsibly
 - Ensuring appropriate control over resources
- Act with reasonable care and skill
 - Getting advice and guidance on matter where appropriate eg when outside skill set

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Group is strong with a waiting list for membership.

The 2021/2022 year was not quite the year we expected to be but we still, thanks to the endeavours of the leaders, to deliver a form of engaging scouting via teams/zoom calls with some imaginative inventive practical interactive initiatives.

The land we purchased in 2017 came into its own during the milder weather enabling us to maintain, with suitable risk assessments, scouting face to face meaning our numbers held up.

The further development of “stables” on the land, with solar power has meant we offered toileting and cleaning facilities.

Events and charity initiatives were curtailed, and subs were stopped/reduced for periods as the full scouting experience was not possible to deliver.

Nevertheless we still remain a strong group and are confident a more engaging events programme can resume in 2022/2023.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We have sufficient funds to meet our everyday ongoing costs.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- ☐ examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- ☐ to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- ☐ to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- ☐ to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- ☐ to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
