Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Annually, new trustees are supported and inducted by the outgoing trustees via a handover process concerning the affairs of the charity.

There is a committee of supporters that assist the Trustees and provide advice support and continuity for the charity.

Trustees are encouraged to participate in development opportunities provided by the Yorkshire Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs. The templates and resources for this are provided by the National Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs and additional information is provided by the county federation of YFCs.

The charity is affiliated to the Yorkshire Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs and the National Federation of Young Farmers Clubs. Together these form a network of clubs throughout England and Wales for young people aged 10 to 28 years.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are:

1. To advance the education of young members of the public at large in their knowledge of agriculture, crafts, life skills, rural affairs and country life,
2. In the interests of the social welfare of such members to provide and promote the provision of facilities for recreation and other leisure time occupations, being facilities which will improve their conditions of life and will assist in the development of their spiritual and mental capacities, self-reliance and individual responsibility so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of the community.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trustees confirm that they have paid due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

The charity recruits its members from a significant section of the community at large. Everyone aged 10 to 28 year can be a member of the Penistone Young Farmers Club in order to participate in activities and discussions that increase their knowledge of agriculture, crafts rural affairs and country life. The charity actively recruits its members, aged 10 to 28 years, from a catchment area of 20 miles of Penistone.

The club activities also contribute to and create leisure activities for members and on occasion for the rural community in which the charity operates. The community around the charity benefits from our members being active citizens that contribute to the rural community.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The main objectives of the charity are to provide young people with opportunities and this year we have done just that. Members from all over the area have competed and enjoyed activities provided by the club.

From Tug O' War to flower arranging and cookery, the club provides young people with opportunity to flourish in the community. The most recent activity the club has competed in is public speaking and the Annual Rally, where members have honed their speaking, singing and communication skills and along with sports fitness and cookery. It has provided the members with a fantastic sense of community and friends for life.

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's policy on reserves is to generate and maintain a reserve which will allow sufficient funds to:

- maintain the financial viability of the Charity in the event of unforeseen and/or unavoidable circumstance that brings a short-term fall in its income;
- to permit the Charity, in the interests of meeting its charitable objectives, to from time to time establish a new and innovative project on a project basis to demonstrate the feasibility of such activities as a test to maintaining such projects on an on-going basis.

For these purposes the Charity will endeavour to maintain reserves which are at least 35% of its annual turnover.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The charity has no funds which are materially in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any

The Charity were holding funds of £43137 at the end of the year to 31st August 2025.

Members of the charity had once again had a successful year. They hosted an Annual Dinner and Dance, Summer Do and Harvest Auction and these successful events boosted club funds. Moving into the next financial year there are plans for some expenditure for training courses for members such as Emergency First Aid and Quad Bike Handling which will all benefit the members and support some of the classes on Rally Day.
