THE INDEPENDENT GROUP OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGISTS

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 August 2021. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Public benefit

The charity is a not for profit entity, that offers a programme of preparation to become a Jungian Analyst and a series of seminars open to the public, referrals for Jungian Analysis and low cost analysis, as explained further in this report under the Objectives and Activities heading.

The trustees have had regard to Charity Commission guidance on public benefit and consider that the objectives, aims and achievements of the charity described in the report enable it to meet its duty to the Charity Commission as per section 17 of the Charities Act 2011, and to the benefit of the public.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial review

Total incoming resources for the year amounted to £128,834 (2020: £80,324). The increase can mainly be attributed to a legacy received in the year. This is offset by slightly lower investment income of £17,958 (2020: £24,810). Membership fee revenue has increased to £23,070 (2020: £21,809) in line with an increase in membership to 46 full paying members, 10 overseas members and 1 associate member. Two members were granted a fee amnesty due to financial difficulties, and two others allowed a reduction. (2020: 51 members)

Charitable expenditure during the year totalled £77,200 (2020: £79,486). The reduction in expenditure was largely due to the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic, and resulted in the cancellation of the residential weekend, and studies seminars being moved online. Studies seminars will continue to be held online for the foreseeable future, and although not the preferred option has allowed students to continue their studies. The long-term impact of online studies and the feasibility of returning to face to face learning will be assessed together with government pandemic guidance.

Overall the charity reported a surplus of £105,120 (2020: deficit of £10,644) this is after unrealised gains of £15,778 (2020: £8,111 unrealised losses) on investments. The surplus for the year before unrealised gains on investments was £89,342. (2020: deficit £2,533).

Principal funding sources

There are three main sources of funding:

- An annual membership fee paid by all active members of the organisation.
- The Studies Programme, for which Candidates pay a discounted Studies fee, with members of the public paying the advertised rate.
- A set annual fee from Candidates.

Investment policy

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the charity has the power to make any investment which the trustees see fit. The trustees take professional advice from qualified investment advisors when making investment decisions. All investments are held in a charitable trust fund, with advisors implementing a risk adverse investment strategy.

Reserves policy

The present level of funding is adequate to support the continuation of the objectives of the charitable company.

FUTURE PLANS

The Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists is a democratic organisation, which responds to problems or opportunities as they arise. The aims and aspirations of the Association remain as defined above. Future development will be mainly concentrated on maintaining the Studies Programme and ensuring that all Candidates are offered a rigorous and professional Programme of Preparation.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The organisation is a charitable company limited by guarantee, incorporated on 28 May 1993 and registered as a charity on 28 May 1993. The company was established under a Memorandum of Association which established the objects and powers of the charitable company and is governed under its Articles of Association. In the event of the company being wound up members are required to contribute an amount not exceeding £1.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The directors of the company are also charity trustees for the purposes of charity law and under the company's Articles are known as members of the Management Committee. Under the requirements of the Memorandum and Articles of Association the members of the Management Committee are elected to serve for a period of three years after which they must be re-elected at the next Annual General Meeting.

Organisational structure

The Management Committee or Council consists of three to eight people, some with specific areas of responsibility. Regular meetings are held, at which decisions are made on the operational running of the Company. These decisions must however be ratified by the rest of the organisation at a general meeting, called a Business Meeting. Day to day administration is handled by an employed secretary, employed on a contractual basis.

Objectives and activities

The Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists' Memorandum of Association states that the objects of the Association are:

- to advance public knowledge of the work of C. G. Jung and its development in the field of Analytical Psychology and to provide vocational preparation for suitable persons wishing to become Jungian analysts
- to foster relationships with other local groups at work in the same and related endeavours
- to relieve persons suffering from mental disorders by the provision for such persons of appropriate therapy in accordance with the principles of Jungian therapy.

In furtherance of these aims The Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists organises a Study Programme for those preparing to become Jungian Analysts and for members of the public who are interested in or professionally involved with Jungian psychology.

The Independent Group of Analytical Psychologists also runs a Programme of Preparation for those selected to train as analysts. Those on the Programme continue in personal analysis, attend the study programme, meet regularly with their Review Committee, take examinations and present written work. In the final stages of the Programme they are required to work for a specified minimum number of hours with several clients under supervision.

Induction and training of new trustees

Whenever a new member is voted to become a member of the Management Committee, and if that post has a specific responsibility, he/she works closely with the outgoing member to ensure a smooth handover of responsibilities. Each member of the Management Committee is asked to study the Charity Commission website, in particular the section on Charity Governance.

Achievements and performance

One Associate Member was welcomed to the organisation. We also welcomed three new Preliminary Candidates to the training programme, and one Candidate progressed to Advanced Candidacy. Two overseas members chose not to renew their membership, and one UK based member emigrated to become a new overseas member.

Counselling, Advice and Information

Candidates are required to be in their own personal psychotherapy (analysis) throughout the course of their training. Enquiries about psychotherapy from the public to the office are referred to a member who will contact the enquirer personally to ascertain their needs and their suitability for working analytically. This being so, one or two names of members will be suggested to them, or, they will be referred to another organisation depending on the particular kind of psychotherapy which they are seeking, or which is considered best in each individual case. An enquirer may, according to their circumstances, be offered low cost psychotherapy, as a training patient, with an Advanced Candidate. All Advanced Candidates with training cases work under supervision with a senior analyst.

Related parties

There are no related parties to this organisation.

Risk management

The Trustees actively review the major risks which the charity faces on a regular basis and believe that maintaining reserves at current levels, combined with an annual review of the controls over key financial systems, will provide sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions. The trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the charitable company and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE INDEPENDENT GROUP OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGISTS

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Independent Group Of Analytical Psychologists ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 August 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The charitable company is entitled to exemption from audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 for the year ended 31 August 2021.

The members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the year ended 31 August 2021 in accordance with Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for

- (a) ensuring that the charitable company keeps accounting records that comply with Sections 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006 and
- (b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company as at the end of each financial year and of its surplus or deficit for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the charitable company.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
for the year ended 31 August 2021

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value, as modified by the revaluation of certain assets.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources. Expenditure assigned to charitable activities includes support costs.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charitable company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charitable company's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.

Fixed asset investments

Unlisted equity investments are initially recorded at cost, and subsequently measured at fair value. If fair value cannot be reliably measured, assets are measured at cost less impairment.

Listed investments are measured at fair value with changes in fair value being recognised in the statement of financial activities.
