REPORT FOR THE TRUSTEES

RE: Slip End Preschool aka Slip End Playgroup - Charity No 102959 1st September 2023 to 31st August 2024

Thank you for asking me to undertake an Independent Examination of the accounts for the above period.

As you are aware, I have previously examined the accounting periods 1st April 2022 to 31st January 2023 & February 2023 to August 2023. In reviewing the most recent set of accounts, I am pleased to find that they are being well managed and the issues discovered in the earlier period of concern have been addressed fully.

Charity Commission's Directions:

1. I can confirm that the Charity exceeds the threshold (£25,000) for requiring an independent examination. Gross income for the period under review exceeds £118,000.

2. Conflict of interests. I confirm that there is no current conflict of interest regarding my appointment.

3 & 4. A timetable for this review was agreed between Paul Cooper and myself and he has provided all the information which I requested, both in advance of the review and by answering any questions I raised during the review.

5. "Check the Accounting Records are kept to the required standard". I have checked incoming and outgoing transactions on the Accountancy Software spreadsheet against the hard copy bank statements. I have also cross-checked all available receipts and invoices against those transactions. The transactions tally accurately with the Profit & Loss and Balance Sheet summaries.

I had a small number of queries, mainly relating to the allocation of minor items of expenditure to the correct cost centres and these have all been satisfactorily resolved.

It is evident that staff wages are being properly managed. Expenditure is correctly allocated and is in line with expectations for a pre-school playgroup of this size.

6. "Check that the accounts are consistent with the accounting records". I am fully satisfied that the records are consistent with the accounts.

7. Not applicable

8. "Check the reasonableness of the significant estimates and judgments and accounting policies used in accounting for the types of fund held and in the preparation of the accounts"

The Playgroup is managing expenditure well. Staff remuneration, hall hire, staff training, insurance etc are all covered by incoming fees and government payments. The remaining income is thoughtfully spent to provide a wide range of educational toys and visiting specialist educators to provide a stimulating learning environment both within the hall and in the exterior garden area.

The main change since I last reviewed the accounts is the reservation of some income for contingency. This was one of my recommendations from the previous year and it is good to know that funds are now available should the group need to rent alternative premises or invest in additional space. It is evident that any "profit" is being sensibly split between providing good educational resources for the current cohort of children and a sensible contingency fund.

9. "The examiner must check whether the trustees have considered the financial circumstances of the charity at the end of the reporting period and, if the accounts are prepared on an accruals basis, check whether the trustees have made an assessment of the charity's position as a going concern when approving the accounts"

I believe this is evident from the minutes of the meetings I have read. The previous accounting period was one of transition and this period demonstrates that new procedures are working well.

10. "Check the form and content of the accounts" I am satisfied that all is in order.

11. "Identify items from the analytical review of the accounts that need to be followed up for further explanation or evidence" - Following prompt feedback from Paul Cooper, I am happy to confirm that I have no unanswered queries for the period under review.

12. "Compare the trustees' annual report with the accounts" Whilst there is nothing I would challenge, I would suggest that the Trustees could increase the amount of information that they include in their annual report.

13. Signed by .....Date.....

Nicola E West – Independent Officer.

Suggestions for improvements going forward:

1. There has been a huge improvement in the quality of the minutes from the meetings. As previously, I would recommend quarterly meetings for all Trustees, Paul Cooper and any senior members of staff that are not Trustees, where they could make a contribution.

As Charity Trustees you are responsible for all aspects of the Playgroup (Pre-school) and it is vital that all Trustees understand the financial management of the enterprise and feel confident to ask about income and expenditure.

Below are agenda items I suggested last time and I can see that many of these points are being addressed now but I think there is still scope for Trustees to be more involved with the financial aspects of the group.

Standing agenda items could include (but are by no means limited to) the following:

Finances

- Setting a budget for the year commencing 1st September, including a review of wages and salaries.
- Reviewing current income and expenditure against that budget on a quarterly or half yearly basis – the Profit & Loss figures should be compared to the budget and discussed.
- The physical bank statements confirming the current financial position to be presented to all Trustees, so that they have evidence that the finances are being well managed. Indeed the Trustees should agree a bank balance figure, and that Paul Cooper should notify them if the account falls below that figure at any point.
- Review of any more expensive items of equipment that may need to be replaced*
- Discussion of any new items of equipment, or other resources, that would enhance the playgroup*.
- Treasurer/Paul Cooper to confirm expected income for the next quarter, based on child ages and numbers. Are numbers increasing or decreasing and what challenges does that present for the group*.
- Opportunity for all Trustees to ask questions of the Treasurer and Paul Cooper regarding income and expenditure.
- Suggestions around best suppliers of resources (quality and price).
- Contingency funds – agreeing a sensible amount to have available in the bank (in a savings account) to enable the Playgroup to continue to operate in challenging / unexpected circumstances*.

*These points in particular, have been really well managed over the 2023-4 year

I am leaving the remaining list of suggested agenda items below just as a prompt, because it is evident that excellent improvement has been made in addressing these areas of Staffing, Policies, Activities, Risks & Opportunities.

Staff

- Recruitment & retention
- Training & career development
- Safeguarding / DBS / First Aid
- Those visiting adults who provide other services (such as Tiffany Reed)
- Any concerns / feedback raised by staff members

Policies

Maintaining your good work on reviewing and updating your existing policies.

Forthcoming events – planning for trips, celebrations, Christmas, transitions to school etc
- setting a budget for an event and reviewing costs & feedback afterwards to help with future planning.

Risks & Opportunities

Discussions regarding staff cover, premises and other potential challenges and how they might be managed.

How would you like to see the Playgroup (Pre-school) develop over the coming months and years.

Minutes

- The person taking the minutes (usually the Secretary) should present them in a way that reads clearly to someone who knows nothing of the Playgroup and include as much detail as possible.
- It is particularly important that if a Trustee raises a concern about an issue, that this is recorded along with any decisions made, and the reasons for the decision.
- If someone is allocated a task – make sure that is clear in the minutes (who has agreed to do what and with a time limit where possible).

REPORT FOR THE TRUSTEES

RE: Slip End Preschool aka Slip End Playgroup - Charity No 102959
1st February 2023 to 31st August 2023

Thank you for asking me to undertake an Independent Examination of the accounts for the above period.

As you are aware, I have recently examined the previous accounting period (1st April 2022 to 31st January 2023) and have raised my concerns with Mr Cooper, the Trustees and the Charity Commission, who are all now in receipt of my report.

It is my understanding that this period under review saw a change of management and a range of new financial procedures put in place. It is my view that these changes have brought about a very significant improvement.

I am very pleased to report that, in my view, the finances of this Charity are now well managed.

Charity Commission's Directions:

1. I can confirm that the Charity exceeds the threshold (£25,000) for requiring an independent examination. Gross income for the period under review (7 months) exceeds £46,000.
2. Conflict of interests. I confirm that there is no current conflict of interest regarding my appointment.
- 3 & 4. A timetable for this review was agreed between Paul Cooper and myself and he has provided all the information which I requested, both in advance of the review and by answering any questions I raised during the review.
5. "Check the Accounting Records are kept to the required standard". I have checked all incoming and outgoing transactions on the Pandle Accountancy Software spreadsheet against the hard copy bank statement. I have also cross-checked all available receipts and invoices against those transactions. The transactions tally accurately with the Profit & Loss and Balance Sheet summaries.

I had a small number of queries, mainly relating to the allocation of minor items of expenditure to the correct cost centres and these have all been satisfactorily resolved.

It is evident that staff wages are being properly managed. Expenditure is correctly allocated and is in line with expectations for a playgroup of this size.

6. "Check that the accounts are consistent with the accounting records". I am fully satisfied that the records are consistent with the accounts.

8. "Check the reasonableness of the significant estimates and judgments and accounting policies used in accounting for the types of fund held and in the preparation of the accounts"

The Playgroup is managing expenditure well. Staff remuneration, hall hire, staff training, insurance etc are all covered by incoming fees and government payments. The remaining income is thoughtfully spent to provide a wide range of educational toys and visiting specialist educators to provide a stimulating learning environment.

Now that the accounts for this group are being properly managed, the next step will be to put in place budgets for the coming period and to consider a contingency fund. It is also important for all Trustees to feel confident to ask about income and expenditure. Please see my list of suggestions at the end of this report.

9. "The examiner must check whether the trustees have considered the financial circumstances of the charity at the end of the reporting period and, if the accounts are prepared on an accruals basis, check whether the trustees have made an assessment of the charity's position as a going concern when approving the accounts"

I understand that the charity is looking at various options for the future. I would stress that this 7 month period under review has been a time of transition, adjusting to new systems and procedures.

10. "Check the form and content of the accounts" I am satisfied that all is in order.

11. "Identify items from the analytical review of the accounts that need to be followed up for further explanation or evidence" - Following prompt feedback from Paul Cooper, I am happy to confirm that I have no unanswered queries for the period under review.

12. "Compare the trustees' annual report with the accounts" – I would suggest that the Trustees could increase the amount of information that they include in their annual report.

Policies

Reviewing and updating policies is vital. You may wish to focus on updating and improving one policy each quarter on a rolling basis, making sure everyone is familiar with the contents and it is up to date for current legislation.

Forthcoming events – planning for trips, celebrations, Christmas, transitions to school etc - setting a budget for an event and reviewing costs & feedback afterwards to help with future planning.

Risks & Opportunities

Discussions may cover topics like what to do if you couldn't use the Village Hall, or if a number of key members of staff were ill at the same time. Thinking about potential challenges and how they might be managed.

How would you like to see the Playgroup change/improve 12 months from now, for example.

Minutes
