FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 01/09/21 Period start date To 31/08/22 Period end date

Charity name: 2nd Heald Green Scout Group

Charity registration number: 1031738

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The Purpose of Scouting Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society. The Values of Scouting As Scouts we are guided by these values: Integrity - We act with integrity; we are honest, trustworthy and loyal. Respect - We have self-respect and respect for others. Care - We support others and take care of the world in which we live. Belief - We explore our faiths, beliefs and attitudes. Co-operation - We make a positive difference; we cooperate with others and make friends. The Scout Method Scouting takes place when young people, in partnership with adults, work together based on the values of Scouting and: - enjoy what they are doing and have fun - take part in activities indoors and outdoors - learn by doing - share in spiritual reflection - take responsibility and make choices - undertake new and challenging activities - make and live by their Promise.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Provision of scouting on a weekly basis for young people aged 4 – 18 during term time.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Group meets the Charity Commission's public benefit criteria under both the advancement of education and the advancement of citizenship or community development headings.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The group offers skills for life to over 90 young people aged 4 – 18. The group supports the local community through helping in the local park with maintenance, maintaining the flower beds and conducting litter picks. In addition the group supports community events such as the heald green festival and Christmas markets.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The group is in a healthy financial position and covered all of it's cost in the last financial year and was able to purchase new equipment to cover the expansion in the group and the opening of a new section.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The Group's policy on reserves is to hold sufficient resources to continue the charitable activities of the group should income and fundraising activities fall short. The Group Executive Committee considers that the group should hold a sum equivalent to a full years running costs given our main fund raising event is held annually. We also are aware in the next 5 to 10 years that the roof will require significant repair or replacement which is estimated to be no more than £20,000 and we are putting away £1000 per annum to hold 50% of the estimated cost at the time of replacement with loans/ grants covering the difference.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	10,000
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	n/a
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	n/a
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	n/a
