Trustee's Annual Report – Fylingdales Preschool

Fylingdales Preschool continues to be a fully staffed and integral educational setting within our local community. Over the past year, the preschool has enjoyed continued success and stability. Through professional training, local fundraising, the ongoing support of our committee, local businesses, and of course our families, the preschool is thriving.

Staff have undertaken training in a wide range of skills throughout the year. An exciting new opportunity for Beach School activities will encourage our young people to celebrate our unique coastal location while developing valuable outdoor skills and confidence.

Following a successful OFSTED inspection, in which the preschool achieved a rating of 'Good' across all categories, feedback highlighted opportunities to further strengthen our literacy provision. As a setting that continually strives for excellence, staff undertook high-quality phonics training and the decision was made to convert an outdoor building into a new "Literacy Den". These developments have created a calm and dedicated space where children can expand their knowledge and develop a lifelong love of reading.

A huge celebration is deserved for the continued growth, care and confidence demonstrated daily by our staff team. They are thoughtful professionals who nurture the children with warmth and empathy. The preschool is managed by Becca Oliver, who volunteers an enormous amount of her time to fundraising and building relationships with local businesses, ensuring the setting is well equipped and that children are given the very best opportunities to learn and thrive. The staff are dedicated, dependable and fill the preschool with joy. We are incredibly grateful to every one of them.

The committee meets regularly and through effective fundraising initiatives and careful planning we hope to continue developing and enhancing the preschool offer. By maintaining clear and effective financial systems, we aim to ensure long-term financial stability so that local families can continue to access high-quality, affordable and personal childcare.

This year, two committee members are stepping down, while another member moves into the role of Treasurer. We say goodbye to our Chair, Dena Bagi, who has put her heart, energy and fundraising expertise to support the preschool during a turbulent time. Dena will continue to support the committee through these changes and has been instrumental in ensuring a smooth transition.

To everyone who has given their time, energy, funding, skills and warmth to help secure the future and stability of our cherished preschool — thank you.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

TO ENHANCE THE DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION OF CHILDREN UNDER STATUTORY SCHOOL AGE

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We are a small early years setting, ran by its community. We support families with a daily provision for 0 to 5 year-olds in a rural setting. We currently have 22 children on register.

Fylingdales Preschool is embedded into our community. Local charities and businesses in our bustling seaside village provide key opportunities for our setting to programme learning opportunities - providing a unique provision. Our parent-committee, alongside a long standing and highly qualified set of early years practitioners, run our setting.

We are proudly free-at-the-point-of-access for our economically diverse families, offering places with no hidden fees. Our charity status means that all our profit goes back into our setting, keeping the focus on providing high quality and enriching learning for our small collection of local children.

We have a generous and diverse outdoor play space and provide outdoor learning opportunities on the beach and local trails. Making the most of our beautiful rural setting, to access its learning and wellbeing potential is a key goal

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Chairs comments on the year 2024

2024 was the most challenging year in our settings history. A cost of living crisis hit the setting hard, as a time when finances were still tight after Covid 19. The pressures this brought proved too much for our long standing Manager, who left to secure a post in a private childcare setting. The cost implications of this, on top of a very challenging 6 months that processed it - left the setting financially unstable.

Our committee rallied like never before, to stop the setting from closing. The impact of losing our setting for our rural community was too much to bear - and we all worked tirelessly to save it.

The committee voted to spend our remaining reserves - to hire in a new manager and full time practitioner, to cover a staff member on Maternity and the exiting manager. Keeping our staff team consistent is a key strength of our setting, so this was prioritised.

After the new staff were settled, a full financial review was completed - and fundraising done - to start the slow process of building back our reserves.

The energy of the new staff in place, alongside the committee's commitment proved invaluable for the setting, as its not only survived the year - but things are looking very bright indeed!

The setting has been transformed, with fundraising and staff/committee 'clean up' days - providing much needed physical improvements to the space. These include a full renovation of the outdoor space, and the addition of new sensory areas in both areas of the setting, for example.

New financial systems have been put in place - to closely monitor the settings finances. For example, a new budget tracer has been created for staff, to manage day to day spending - ensuring the setting continues to thrive.

The committee has also developed new relationships with community organisations, which can help us access more charitable funds - to help us grow in the future. The setting currently has more money in reserves than it has for 2 years as a result of these efforts!

The staff team is happy and thriving, and the committee is still energetic. What a year its been!

New government funding for children has seen a further upturn in our settings numbers of children on role, which is shaping up stay stable/grow s we are.

Our committee regularly discusses other challenges that we face and solutions we need to put in place to overcome these. We have continued to develop our branding and social media presence, with our new practitioner Korin Hutton taking the lead and completing training.

I would like to say a huge thank you to all committee members and staff for their commitment to the setting and for their hard work over the last year, particularly Korin Hutton and Becca Oliver - who have had a phenomenal first years in post.

To the committee members who volunteer your spare time, thank you. And to staff members who work continuously and effortlessly to ensure the children are nurtured, inspired and incredibly well cared for, thank you.

One committee members will be stepping down, so we say a very sad farewell to them. We welcome Reverand Jo Parker to our small but impactful committee this year.

Thank you.

Dr Dena Bagi - Chair to Fylingdales Playgroup Committee

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Chairs comments on the year 2023

Due to high levels of inflation and a significant increase in energy costs, 2023 continues to be an extremely challenging time for our setting.

The cost-of-living crisis, Brexit and more recently the war in Ukraine which has driven up energy prices. We have also seen a shift in management this year, which has been costly for the setting.

On a positive note, we have seen an upturn in our settings numbers of children on role, due to both our sound local reputation and in the introduction of 9-month government childcare funding.

Our committee regularly discusses other challenges that we face and solutions we need to put in place to overcome these. We have seen an influx of new and energetic committee members this year, which has boosted our ability to raise money locally, and galvanise our supportive rural community to help us thrive.

We have continued to develop our branding and social media presence, with our new practitioner Korin Hutton taking the lead and completing training. This, alongside our sound local reputation and funding streams, means the next year is looking bright for the setting.

As a committee we have a 12-month financial forecast, which maps out our stable position for the next year. With a new reserves policy, we aim to build a £7,000 pot over the next 10 months, which will hopefully enable us to have a much less precarious future. We look forward to utilising our committee, staff and community to work towards a brighter future after Covid etc.

I would like to say a huge thank you to all committee members and staff for their commitment to the setting and for their hard work over the last year, particularly in a time where the cost-of-living crisis has affected everyone.

To the committee members who volunteer your spare time, thank you. Or to staff members who work continuously and effortlessly to ensure the children are nurtured, inspired and incredibly well cared for, is a credit to you all.

As we all know several committee members will be stepping down and we say a very sad farewell to them. Thank you to our committed chair, Jodie Chandler - who has also stepped aside. We welcome Korin Hutton, Becca Alicia, Alicia Hogarth, Leila Bagi and Louise Southcomb to our small but impactful committee this year.

Thank you.

Dena Bagi - Chair to Fylingdales Playgroup Committee

- (d) The paid employee or supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the appointment or the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him, her or it and withdraws from all discussions which have any bearing on the terms of the agreement or his or her employment, or on the acceptability of the standard of service provided.
- (e) The paid employee or supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) A majority of the charity trustees are not in receipt of any remuneration or payments, or connected to someone in receipt of remuneration or payments, authorised by this clause.

- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the CIO and any personal interest (including, but not limited to, any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the CIO if it is wound up

If the CIO is wound up, the members of the CIO have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

(2) Transfer of membership

Membership of the CIO cannot be transferred to anyone else, except in the case of:

- (a) a family with membership of the CIO who may appoint amongst themselves one parent or guardian to act as a representative; or
- (b) an unincorporated organisation, whose membership may be transferred to a new representative. Such transfer of membership does not take effect until the CIO has received written notification of the transfer from the unincorporated organisation.

 - v. if the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the CIO that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.
- (b) Before the charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the CIO they must:
 - i. inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
 - ii. give the member at least 14 clear days notice in which to make written representations to the charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;

The document signifying a member's agreement must be authenticated by their signature or in such manner as the CIO has specified.

- (f) The CIO must reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred by the members calling a general meeting by reason of the failure of the charity trustees to duly call the meeting, but the CIO shall be entitled to be indemnified by the charity trustees who were responsible for such failure.

(3) Notice of general meetings

- (a) The charity trustees or the relevant members of the CIO must give at least 14 clear days notice of any general meeting to all of the members and the charity trustees of the CIO.
- (b) If it is agreed by not less than 90% of all members of the CIO, any resolution may be proposed and passed at the meeting even though the notice period within sub-clause (3)(a) of this clause has not been met. This sub-clause does not apply where a specific period of notice is strictly required by another clause in this constitution, by the Charities Act 2011 or by the General Regulations.
- (c) The notice of any general meeting must:
 - i. state the time and date of meeting;
 - ii. give the address at which the meeting is to take place;

- (d) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted, or that an electronic form of notice was properly addressed and sent, shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent.
- (e) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the CIO.

(4) Chairing of general meetings

The person nominated as chair by the charity trustees under sub-clause 19(2) (Chairing of meetings) shall, if present and willing to act, chair the meeting. Subject to that, the members of the CIO who are present at a general meeting shall appoint a chair for the meeting.

(5) Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the CIO unless a quorum is present.
- (b) Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be the greater of 5% or three members. Any individual with membership, or any organisation or family represented by a person in accordance with sub-clause (9) of this clause, who is present at the meeting is counted in the quorum.
- (c) If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees, but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.
- (d) If the meeting has been called by or at the request of the members in accordance with sub-clause (2)(e) of this clause and a quorum is not presented within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is closed.
- (e) If the meeting has been called in any other way and a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the starting time specified in the notice of the meeting, the chair must adjourn the meeting. The date, time and place at which the meeting will resume must be notified to the CIO's members at least seven clear days before the date on which it will resume.
- (f) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of any adjourned meeting, the members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.

(6) Voting at general meetings

- (a) Any decisions other than those within clause 10(1) (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including postal or email votes). Every member of the CIO has one vote.
- (b) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is duly demanded by the chair or by at least 10% of the members present at the meeting.

- (c) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (d) A poll on any other matter may be taken:
 - i. at the meeting at which it was demanded;
 - ii. at some other time and place specified by the chair; or
 - iii. through the use of postal or electronic communications; provided that the result of the poll is announced within 30 days of the demand for the poll. The manner of the poll shall be decided by the chair of the meeting.
- (e) In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall have a second, or casting, vote.
- (f) Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is cast and the decision of the chair of the meeting shall be final.

(7) Adjournment of meetings

The chair may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting except business which could properly have been transacted at the original meeting.

(8) Postal and email voting

- (a) The CIO may, if the charity trustees so decide, allow the members to vote by post or electronic mail ("email") to elect charity trustees or to make a decision on any matter that is being decided at a general meeting of the members.
- (b) The charity trustees must appoint at least two independent scrutineers to supervise the conduct of the postal/email ballot and the counting of votes.
- (c) If postal and/or email voting is to be allowed on a matter, the CIO must send a notice to the members of the CIO at least 21 days before the deadline for receipt of votes cast in this way.
- (d) Notice may be sent either by email, if the member has agreed to receive notices in this way under clause 22 (Use of electronic communication), or by post to all other members and must include:
 - i. an explanation of the purpose of the vote;
 - ii. the voting procedure to be followed by the member; and
 - iii. a voting form capable of being returned by email or post to the CIO, which contains details of the resolution being put to a vote or of the candidates for election, as applicable.
- (e) The voting procedure must:
 - i. require all forms returned by post to have the member's name and signature at the top of the form and to be addressed to 'The Scrutineers for [name of CIO]', at such postal address as is specified;
 - ii. require all votes cast by email to have the member's name to be at the top of the email and to be returned to an email address used only for this purpose and accessed only by a scrutineer;
 - iii. specify the closing date and time for receipts of votes; and

- iv. state that any votes received after the closing date or not complying with the voting procedure will be invalid and not be counted.
- (f) For postal and email votes, the scrutineers must cut off and retain the top of the form or email (with the member's name and/or signature). A scrutineer must record on this whether the vote has been counted and, if the vote has been declared invalid, the reason for such declaration. This provides the evidence of whether the member's vote was valid or invalid.
- (g) Votes cast by post or email must be counted by all the scrutineers before the meeting at which the vote is to be taken. The scrutineers must provide written confirmation of the total number of valid and invalid votes, making a list of members casting valid votes and a separate list of members casting votes which were invalid. These lists must be provided to a charity trustee or other person overseeing admission to, and voting at, the general meeting.
- (h) A member who has cast a valid postal or email vote must not vote or be counted in the quorum for any part of the meeting on which he, she or it has already cast a valid vote. A member who has cast an invalid vote by post or email is allowed to vote at the meeting and counts towards the quorum.
- (i) Only after votes taken by hand or by poll at, or after, the meeting have been counted shall the scrutineers declare the result of the valid postal and email votes received, and these votes shall be included in the declaration of the result of the vote.
- (j) Following the final declaration of the result of the vote, the scrutineers must provide to a charity trustee or other authorised person separate bundles containing:
 - i. the evidence of members submitting valid postal and email votes;
 - ii. the evidence of members submitting invalid votes;
 - iii. the valid votes; and
 - iv. the invalid votes.
- (k) Any dispute about the conduct of a postal or email ballot must be referred initially to a panel set up by the charity trustees to consist of two trustees and two persons independent of the CIO. If the dispute cannot be satisfactorily resolved via the panel, it must be referred to the Electoral Reform Society.

(9) Representation of families, organisations and corporate members

A family, organisation or a corporate body that is a member of the CIO may nominate one person to act as its representative at any general meeting of the CIO or to vote by post or email. In the case of a family member, the representative must be a parent or guardian of a child who attends a group run by the CIO.

The representative is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the family, organisation or corporate body as they could exercise as an individual with membership of the CIO.

12. Charity trustees

(1) Functions and duties of charity trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. The charity trustees may regulate their functions and duties as they see fit. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

A person so appointed, shall serve for two successive years and shall retire in accordance with sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause.

- (3) Before the charity trustees or the members of the CIO take any decision to remove someone as a charity trustee of the CIO they must:

Chairs comments on the year 2022

Due to high levels of inflation and a significant increase in energy costs, 2022 continues to be a extremely challenging time for our setting. The cost-of-living crisis has been well reported as a national problem caused by the Covid Pandemic, Brexit and more recently the war in Ukraine which has driven up energy prices. Businesses are facing uncapped energy costs and unfortunately it has resulted in many choosing to, or being forced to close. As a committee we are closely monitoring the everchanging situation on this and are budgeting accordingly to ensure that we remain financially viable. Our committee regularly discusses other challenges that we face and solutions we need to put in place to overcome these. We are based in the beautiful coastal village of Robin Hoods Bay, which is a popular seaside destination, and as with other poplar seaside areas, this often means that houses are bought as second homes meaning local - residents are outpriced or house prices are pushed up, making them unaffordable. Unfortunately, this has meant that we have seen a reduction in local families within our village and its surrounding areas, which subsequently means fewer children are accessing the setting. To overcome this, we have changed our business model and now offer places to babies and have adjusted our staff ratios accordingly. We have also had a big push on our branding and exposure on social media to attract families from within the area as well as outside of the area from other commutable towns and villages. As a committee we have focussed on fundraising and grant applications to make sure our children have the facilities they need but also to support our setting to remain financially viable for our families and for our staff to enjoy. I would like to say a huge thank you to all committee members and staff for their commitment to the setting and for their hard work over the last year, particularly in a time where the cost-of-living crisis has affected everyone. To the committee members who volunteer your spare time, thank you. Or to staff members who work continuously and effortlessly to ensure the children are nurtured, inspired and incredibly well cared for, is a credit to you all. As we all know several committee members will be stepping down and we say a very sad farewell to Jess and Sophie. It is my intention to also leave the committee due to personal circumstances, but we have had lots of interest from other parents wishing to join the committee so I'm sure the setting will continue to be governed well and the children and our local community will continue to be at the heart of everything we do. Thank you. Jodie Chandler - Chair to Fylingdales Playgroup Committee

Thank you.

AGM Report 2021

This past academic year we have continued to be a positive and an inclusive setting, even though we have still faced the challenges and problems caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. We have continued to offer exciting opportunities and experiences for the children that attend Fylingdales Preschool. Our setting offers a good quality early years education, which shows in the children, feedback from parents and family members. We are very proud of this after all the effort that has been put in to make sure the setting stays open and continues to be a safe place for our children to access early years education. We believe that the earliest years are the most crucial point of child development and attending early years education lays the foundation for lifelong learning and supports children's social and emotional development. All though we are faced with challenge to hold fundraising events for the setting to provide new resources and develop in other ways we are continually making improvements to the setting by staff, committee members and parents family members all working together. This all helps towards us to make a positive progress in the service that we provide to the local community and been able to keep the setting financially secure and remain a viable business and give childcare option in our local community.

All though it is has continued to not be the usual way of running the setting everyone embraced our strict policies, procedures, and conditions of opening. Testing and isolating became an everyday part of our daily lives for most of this year. Communication between families and members of staff has been frequent. Although different to usual methods, due to adult not being able to enter the building. We hope we have found effective ways to meet this need, but like most new aspects this is ever developing. Communication, resilience, and critical thinking have never been more important to the setting. This alongside a strong sense of teamwork has been invaluable in keeping our small setting a part of the community. We are proud to have supported our families, local community, members of staff and each other during this time.

When we returned in September 2021 after reviewing the recent guidance from both NYCC and the government, it had been advised that our current procedures should remain in place and looks to continue to be this way for some time. However, the children have adapted to the changes so quickly. Yes, some parts of our day here are different, but we have all embraced these changes with the upmost resilience, and for that we are so proud of everyone.

The Covid-19 pandemic has again taken over much of this year, but alongside this the 'usual' running of the setting has had to continue simultaneously. This has been challenging, as Covid-19 has felt very dominant. However, we have ensured that this has not taken over the other usual aspects of managing the setting. For that reason, we are confident that we are viable long term. We are still here and plan to continue high quality childcare to our local community for as long as possible!

We have over this year received grants and held a fundraising event Marathon Movers which proved to be a success. With the funds raised we were able to buy new storage furniture for the Preschool Room and some new resources. We are slowly refreshing and developing the setting as we get the funds to do so. We have been accepted for a grant from Grow and Learn which is a small grants scheme that has been set up to support community development around school readiness in the Whitby and Ryedale areas by NYCC. We have kindly received £250 from member of THE SHED in Robin Hoods Bay which we are using towards our Christmas events and activities. I have put an application in for an Outdoor Learning Grant which if accepted we can choose up to £500 worth of resources from their catalogue. I have also written to Howdens asking if they would like to support us in any way after being notified that they had a pot of money to offer local charities.

Financial we have found ourselves in the position where we need to monitor our finances due to having two members off on Maternity Leave and paying two lots off Maternity Pay. We can claim this back in March unless we find ourselves in a position where we are financially struggling.

We currently have 19 children on role, and this will increase to 21 in January. 11 families receive the 3- & 4-year funding. We have 5 children whose families chose to only take universal funding, 6 children who are eligible or whose families chose to take the full extended entitlement and 1 child whose place is 2 year funded.

The numbers of children attending the setting have started off low in September 2021 which is usual for this time of year with school leavers, numbers usually start to increase in Spring Term. We have 3 new starters due to enrol in Spring term and children increasing their hours who already attend the setting with 3 days nearly at full capacity in the preschool room.

Last year we did not increase fees, so this is something we need to put in place for 2022 by calculating to covering overhead costs and being able to slowly build back up our savings account, keeping in mind the living wage increase in April 2022, so we are financially stable. We must continue with an annual fee increase.

As a setting we have strived to be critical in its self-evaluation process and continually make improvements where and when we can, as we make great effort to achieve the best outcomes for all the children. Our current aim is to focus on fundraising and grants to improve or indoor and outdoor learning areas, renewing resources, toys, storage, and maintenance of the building.

It shows that each member of our staff team has a very good relationship with both children and their families, colleagues, and other settings/professionals, which we value. Each staff member is dedicated to developing their skills, whether it is through training or research. It can prove challenging to send staff on additional training that is not essential out of the setting due to time restraints, ratios and sometimes finances. We overcome this with online training and attending regular webinar meetings which are on an evening. We have recently had staff attend a network meeting relating to help children development in Speech and Language and the EYFS 2021

The committee again this year have continued to provide a great support and commitment to the setting, their dedication has helped the setting continue to grow and develop. We are still in the process of waiting for some committee members DBS details. We have some parents recently wanting to join the committee so the same process and checks will be carried out.

Overall, we have had a good year at Preschool, maybe not as successful financially, but with the support and dedication of staff, committee members and families we can gradually improve this situation. Our families are happy with the service we provide and value their suggestions and support on how we can improve. Most importantly to us, is that all the children who attend the setting are happy and developing well.
