As long as under 5000 you don't pay

NI Employer allowance is £5000/yr

Our Employer NI is around 2500/yr so within the allowance

Employee NI allowance is £9100

If you're an employee you start paying National Insurance when you earn more than £242 a week (2023/24). The National Insurance rate you pay depends on how much you earn, and is made up of: 12% of your weekly earnings between £242 and £967 (2023/24) 2% of your weekly earnings above £967.

For employers, the rate of NICs is set at 13.8% on earnings above the secondary threshold. The primary threshold is set at £242 per week for 2023/24. The secondary threshold is set at £175 per week for 2023/24.

For 2023/24, employees do not pay NIC on pay up to the primary threshold of £242 per week (£1,048 per month). However, between the lower earnings limit (LEL) of £123 per week (£533 per month) and the primary threshold, employees will be treated as if they have paid NIC, which can help protect entitlement to the State Pension and other benefits.

2 (Section A and B)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 August 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
