Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Surplus in year predominantly due to rental reductions and furlough of staff during part of the year
Due to coronavirus and lockdowns, fees are lower as not all children were attending during lockdown

The trustees who were elected in December are concerned about the lack of reserves in the past and are working hard to adhere to a new reserves policy, being approx three months wage costs as a baseline. Forecasting for 2021/22, the reserves policy will not be met every month and therefore the decision to be more prudent with expenditure and management to seek prior approval, where necessary. Application of grants and fundraising activities will be used to purchase additional resources through discussion between management/rep and the committee. For year end 2021/22, the restricted expenditure should mean reserves policy is met every month, but this will be reviewed monthly and when necessary

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~that has~~ ~~that is~~ ~~disclosed below~~.

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Surplus in year predominantly due to rental reductions and furlough of staff during part of the year
Due to coronavirus and lockdowns, fees are lower as not all children were attending during lockdown

The trustees who were elected in December are concerned about the lack of reserves in the past and are working hard to adhere to a new reserves policy, being approx three months wage costs as a baseline. Forecasting for 2021/22, the reserves policy will not be met every month and therefore the decision to be more prudent with expenditure and management to seek prior approval, where necessary. Application of grants and fundraising activities will be used to purchase additional resources through discussion between management/rep and the committee. For year end 2021/22, the restricted expenditure should mean reserves policy is met every month, but this will be reviewed monthly and when necessary
