Disclosure

The matter that has come to my attention is that, in the course of my examination of the accounting records of the charity, although the bank statements are available which show the income and expenditure of the charity, the supporting documentation is no longer available to review. The trustees are aware of the importance of maintaining these records and will ensure they are retained going forward to comply with the requirement set out under section 130 and 131 of the Charities Act 2011.
