The trustees have pleasure in presenting their report for the year ended 31 October 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Constitution and Objectives

To advance the islamic faith as practiced by the Ahlu Al-Sunna Waal Jamaa (the followers of the teaching of the prophet and the main Sunni Sect).

To advance the education of Muslim children under the age of eighteen years resident in Cardiff and surrounding areas.

In furtherance of the above objective but not further or otherwise the Trust shall promote by such means as are charitable the following:

1. The establishment of an Islamic school for muslim children.
2. To help muslim children in the state schools, regarding their religious requirements.
3. The propagation of knowledge of the doctrines, principles, laws and practices of the religion of islam.
4. The advancement of the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language among the muslims in Cardiff.

In furtherance of the above purposes, but not further or otherwise the Trust may:

1. Co-operate with any schools or other statutory authority in advancing the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language at schools, colleges or other educational establishments in Wales.
2. Co-operate with other organisations with similar objectives
3. Obtain, collect and receive money and funds by the way of contributions, donations, legacies, grants and any other lawful means and accept and receive gifts and property.

Procure to be written, print, publish, issue and circulate gratuitously or otherwise any reports of periodicals, books, pamphlets, leaflets or other documents.

Arrange and provide for, or join in arranging and providing for the holding of exhibitions, meetings, lectures and classes. Promote, encourage or undertake research, and disseminate the results thereof.

Promote the formation of charitable organisations for the benefit of muslim men, women and children

General Activities

The charity receives regular donations from the community and investment income from properties owned. Surplus funds are held for future if a need arises to invest in community initiatives.

Trustees responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993) and that an independent examination is needed to examine the Accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act), to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7)(b) in the 1993 Act); and to state whether particular matters have come to their attention.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of South Wales Islamic Educational Trust

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2025, which are set out on pages five to ten.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I have examined your charity's accounts as required under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. That the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

The trustees have pleasure in presenting their report for the year ended 31 October 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Constitution and Objectives

To advance the islamic faith as practiced by the Ahlu Al-Sunna Waal Jamaa (the followers of the teaching of the prophet and the main Sunni Sect).

To advance the education of Muslim children under the age of eighteen years resident in Cardiff and surrounding areas.

In furtherance of the above objective but not further or otherwise the Trust shall promote by such means as are charitable the following:

1. The establishment of an Islamic school for muslim children.
2. To help muslim children in the state schools, regarding their religious requirements.
3. The propagation of knowledge of the doctrines, principles, laws and practices of the religion of islam.
4. The advancement of the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language among the muslims in Cardiff.

In furtherance of the above purposes, but not further or otherwise the Trust may:

1. Co-operate with any schools or other statutory authority in advancing the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language at schools, colleges or other educational establishments in Wales.
2. Co-operate with other organisations with similar objectives
3. Obtain, collect and receive money and funds by the way of contributions, donations, legacies, grants and any other lawful means and accept and receive gifts and property.

Procure to be written, print, publish, issue and circulate gratuitously or otherwise any reports of periodicals, books, pamphlets, leaflets or other documents.

Arrange and provide for, or join in arranging and providing for the holding of exhibitions, meetings, lectures and classes. Promote, encourage or undertake research, and disseminate the results thereof.

Promote the formation of charitable organisations for the benefit of muslim men, women and children

General Activities

The charity receives regular donations from the community and investment income from properties owned. Surplus funds are held for future if a need arises to invest in community initiatives.

Trustees responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993) and that an independent examination is needed to examine the Accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act), to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7)(b) in the 1993 Act); and to state whether particular matters have come to their attention.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of South Wales Islamic Educational Trust

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2024, which are set out on pages five to ten.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I have examined your charity's accounts as required under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. That the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

South Wales Islamic Educational Trust

The trustees have pleasure in presenting their report for the year ended 31 October 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Constitution and Objectives

To advance the islamic faith as practiced by the Ahlu Al-Sunna Waal Jamaa (the followers of the teaching of the prophet and the main Sunni Sect).

To advance the education of Muslim children under the age of eighteen years resident in Cardiff and surrounding areas.

In furtherance of the above objective but not further or otherwise the Trust shall promote by such means as are charitable the following:

1. The establishment of an Islamic school for muslim children.
2. To help muslim children in the state schools, regarding their religious requirements.
3. The propagation of knowledge of the doctrines, principles, laws and practices of the religion of islam.
4. The advancement of the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language among the muslims in Cardiff.

In furtherance of the above purposes, but not further or otherwise the Trust may:

1. Co-operate with any schools or other statutory authority in advancing the teaching study and understanding of the arabic language at schools, colleges or other educational establishments in Wales.
2. Co-operate with other organisations with similar objectives
3. Obtain, collect and receive money and funds by the way of contributions, donations, legacies, grants and any other lawful means and accept and receive gifts and property.

Procure to be written, print, publish, issue and circulate gratuitously or otherwise any reports of periodicals, books, pamphlets, leaflets or other documents.

Arrange and provide for, or join in arranging and providing for the holding of exhibitions, meetings, lectures and classes. Promote, encourage or undertake research, and disseminate the results thereof.

Promote the formation of charitable organisations for the benefit of muslim men, women and children

General Activities

The charity receives regular donations from the community and investment income from properties owned. Surplus funds are held for future if a need arises to invest in community initiatives.

Trustees responsibilities

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993) and that an independent examination is needed to examine the Accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act), to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7)(b) in the 1993 Act); and to state whether particular matters have come to their attention.

South Wales Islamic Educational Trust
Unaudited Financial Statements for Year Ended 31 October 2023
Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of South Wales Islamic Educational Trust

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2023, which are set out on pages five to nine.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I have examined your charity's accounts as required under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. That the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
