Accounts

2022 was a year of consolidation. as we continued to recover from the impact of Covid. Whilst regular income from standing orders were largely unaffected by the pandemic, class income has taken time to recover from the close down as people gain confidence in coming to classes again.

We were able to hold a successful weekend retreat for the first time in three years. Whilst smaller in scale than our previous 4 night retreat in 2019, the event did much to develop friendships and give a sense of community.

During 2022 we received a legacy of nearly £31,000 following the death of Aryashila in 2021. Aryashila, during her years in Newcastle, was very keen amongst other things to help develop financial stability following the purchase of our current centre in 2017. This boost to our reserves from her gift gives us a solid basis from which to operate. After years of operating purely with voluntary effort, we were able to offer a small amount of support to our chair from 2021 and we believe this is sowing the seeds to flourish further.

We continue to keep a strong control on expenditure. We felt the benefit of the capital improvements to the building we made in 2021 and were able to limit our expenditure in 2022 to normal operating costs.

Overall, our financial results reflect a picture of a centre that is continuing to deliver the Dharma to the people of Newcastle and surrounding areas without having to limit what we offer for any reasons of affordability for those in need.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Triratna Buddhist Community (Newcastle) 1044379

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on two pages.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act;
and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
