Structure, governance and management

The Evelyn Oldfield Unit Memorandum and Articles of Association was Incorporated on 21st April 1994 as amended by Special Resolution(s) dated 26th January 1995 and registered at Charity Commission on 6th March 1995 and subsequently amended by special resolution registered at Companies House on 30th September 2013.

The Charitable Company was established under a Memorandum and Articles of Association which established the objects and powers of the charitable company and is governed under its Articles of Association.

Method of appointment or election of Board of Directors

The governance of the charity is the responsibility of the Evelyn Oldfield Unit Board of Directors who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Articles of Association.

Following an initial audit of skills and experience, individuals with specific skills and voluntary and community organisations known to the charitable company are offered the opportunity to put themselves or nominees from their organisations forward as potential Board of Directors. Candidates complete an application form and are interviewed by a panel of Board of Directors and recommended by the Board of Directors to the Annual General meeting for election.

If a vacancy arises during the year, or additional Board of Directors are required, people are appointed by the Board of Directors and hold office until the following AGM when they stand for election.

One – third of elected Board of Directors must retire from office at the Annual General meeting, but are eligible for reappointment at that meeting.

Board of Directors Induction, Training and Development

New Board of Directors follow an agreed induction process and are offered training, development and support to understand and carry out their responsibilities. After appointment the Chair and the Chief Executive Officer induct new Board of Directors by giving them an outline of the organisation, its governance and strategic plan, a briefing on what constitutes a conflict of interest as well as answering questions posed by the new Board of Directors.

Each Board of Director is also given a handbook which includes the latest accounts, key policies, procedures, and is offered mentoring by more experienced Board of Directors.

Board of Directors are encouraged to attend relevant training and development programmes on top of the biannually half day planning, training, and development days.

Organisational structure and decision making

The Board of Directors govern the organisation through quarterly Board of Directors meetings, and are advised by the finance and personnel sub-committees. The Board of Directors comprises a minimum of 5 Board of Directors and a maximum of 15. If a decision cannot be made at the quarterly Board of Directors meeting, it is delegated to a specific group of Board of Directors, usually a sub-committee, and the results communicated to all Board of Directors by email and ratified at the following Board of Directors' meeting. All Board of Directors attend one or both of the quarterly finance and personnel sub-committee meetings.

The officers meet between the meetings of the full Board of Directors meetings to discuss any immediate issues and to offer support to the Chief Executive Officer, if any decision are made these are reported to the Board of Directors informally, as well as to the next meeting. The day to day management of the organisation is delegated to the staff via the Chief Executive Officer.

Risk management

In the last two years, the Board of Directors have increased their focus on risk analysis as a mean of protecting the charity and enhancing its performance.

The Board of Directors undertake reviews of the major risks to which the charity is exposed and ensures that systems are in place to mitigate these risks. Among the potential risks assessed were the loss of funding, Board of Directors conflict of interest, bad publicity, new legislation, negligence, misuse of resources, overstretched management and low staff morale. Measures were identified that mitigate these potential risks and actions agreed, all of which enabled the charity's Board of Directors to deal effectively with the step reduction in funding experience this year. Ongoing mitigation includes providing sufficient training and sound management for staff, clearly defined procedures, a survey of staff views, exit interviews, further diversification of funding, use of professional advice and insurance.

The Chief Executive Officer uses the risk assessment as a management tool for reviewing specific projects and activities with a view to mitigating risk and enhances performance. The Board of Director's risk management has been aligned with business planning and performance management. On a routine basis lower risk assessment, such as health and safety assessments are carried out by EOU staff. The EOU has a full complement of policies ranging from health and safety to personnel management. These are periodically reviewed and updated by staff and then presented to the Board of Directors for ratification.

Reserve policy

The Board of Directors have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the charity. The risk register is reviewed annually. The Board of Directors are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

It is the policy of the charity that unrestricted funds, which have not been designated for a specific purpose, should be maintained at a level equivalent from three to six month's expenses. The Board of Directors consider that reserves at this level will ensure that, in the event of a significant drop in funding, they will be able to continue the charity's current activities whilst consideration is given to ways in which additional funds may be raised. This level of reserves has been maintained throughout the year.

Details of funding sources, how expenditure in the year met objectives is outlined in the notes to the accounts on restricted funding.

Statement on public benefit

The Board of Directors are aware that section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 requires charities to demonstrate that their work is of direct benefit to the public. When planning the EOU's activities each year, the Board of Directors take due regard of the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

In the interest of transparency, the Board of Directors make the following observations on the two key principles of the public benefit.

Principle 1: There must be an identifiable benefit or benefits

1a It must be clear what the benefits are

The EOU provides service to support organisations deliver on their charitable purposes. The services provided and benefits achieved in 2022/2023 are clearly set out in the accounts of objectives and achievements given in the body of this report.

1b The benefits must be related to the aims

The Board of Directors review the activities of the charity against its aims on an ongoing basis and are satisfied that all activities continue to be related to the aims.

1c Benefits must be balanced against any detriment or harm

No specific issues of detriment or harm have been reported.

Principle 2: Benefits must be to the public or a section of the public

2a The beneficiaries must be appropriate to the aims

The EOU offers support to full range of BAMERs in London, including distributing our e-bulletin, to over 950 recipients. These organisations benefit a wide cross section of society in line with EOU's objects.

2b Where the benefits are to a section of the public, the opportunity to benefit must not be unreasonably restricted by geographical or other restrictions; or by the ability to pay any fees charged.

The EOU's services are offered free of charge for the benefit of the Black, Asian, Ethnic Minorities, Migrants and Refugee communities living in London in particular and the society in general.

2c People in poverty must not be excluded from the opportunity to benefit. As outlined above there is no restriction on benefits.

2d Any private benefits must be incidental

A number of private benefits do necessarily arise from the activities of the charity. In particular the charity finds it essential to employ and remunerate staff. These private benefits are, however, incidental as they are a necessary by-product of carrying out the charity's aims.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31st March 2023, which are set out on pages 11 to 18.

Respective responsibilities of Board of Directors and examiner

The Board of Directors (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Board of Directors consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
