Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Trust are to advance education in the practice and study of Yoga and Vedanta and religious education for the benefit of the public.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

There were several public programmes at the centre throughout the year as well as at other venues such as various Hindu Mandirs and for other study groups in the UK. As ever Sunday morning provided an opportunity for members of the public to attend group meditation and talks with the facility to join Satsangas, Spiritual Discourses, online now available. The weekly hatha yoga classes continued throughout the week again mostly with an online facility, which has proven a successful format since the Covid Restrictions. Public talks were also provided at various venues by invitation. The annual summer residential retreat was held on the Purnima, full moon, weekend of July incorporating the Gurupurnima Puja & celebration. Counselling was available for and to individuals, couples and families as well Hatha Yoga students and Meditation practitioners and for the general public throughout the year. All trustees are aware of the guidance issued by the Charity Commissioners in relation to the trusts and charities public benefit guidance.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Hatha Yoga teachers offered classes on-line, in person on-site and outside programmes. The mediation hall was open for use every day with evening and morning sessions. The online classes enabled students from much further afield to join talks and yoga classes from the comfort of their homes. Various celebrations and public religious worship were held throughout the year as per our usual annual programme including Mahashivaratri, Bhagavatpada Jayanti, Gurupurnima and a Christmas Puja & celebration which was held the Sunday before Christmas and on Christmas day itself. Weekly Sunday morning programmes were held from 10 – 11.30/12 noon.

Throughout the year the ashram's resident teachers gave spiritual guidance to guests and visitors from around the UK and from abroad covering approximately 850 hours. This was given by phone, online and on site, via the telephone, video calls and in-person. We continue to provide online services after the successful setting up of it during Covid restrictions. The centre offered some 430 days of retreat throughout the year in the form of group retreats and long and short personal retreats. This years' Spiritual Confluence was attended by participants from around the UK. Regular refurbishment and maintenance works of the centre and its grounds were ongoing throughout the year, with some retreat guests offering Seva, Service, during their stays.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees aim to maintain free reserves in unrestricted funds at a level which equates to approximately three months of unrestricted charitable expenditure. The trustees consider that this level will provide sufficient funds to respond to applications for grants and ensure that support and governance costs are covered.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;

Classes and teaching at the centre and throughout the country picked up as Covid restrictions fully ended. The Hatha Yoga teachers offered classes on-line, in person on-site and outside programmes. The online classes enabled students from much further afield to join talks and celebrations and yoga classes from the comfort of their homes. The Meditation Hall was still open every day of the year for individual and group meditations. Weekend and longer retreats were offered. Various celebrations and public religious worship took place and spiritual guidance was given both online and on site, via the telephone and in-person. We continue to provide online services after the successful setting up of it during Covid restrictions. In addition to this private spaces was offered to individuals, couples, families or small groups wishing to undertake private and guided retreats on a short term and long-term basis. The centre offered some 95 days of retreat throughout the year in the form of group retreats and long and short personal retreats. Regular refurbishment and maintenance works were undertaken on a continuous basis throughout the year.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Trust are to advance education in the practice and study of Yoga and Vedanta and religious education for the benefit of the public.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trust offers Yoga classes at its main centre and at other hired venues and provides a meditation hall for individual and collective use. Meditation classes and spiritual guidance are offered throughout the year as well as during residential weekend programmes, celebrations and public talks all of which are open to public.

All trustees are aware of the guidance issued by the Charity Commissioners in relation to the trusts and charities public benefit guidance.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Classes and teaching at the centre and throughout the country picked up as Covid restrictions were modified in 2021. The Hatha Yoga teachers offered evening classes most evenings of the week and this year saw a greater participation on-line. The online classes enabled students from much further afield to join talks and celebrations and yoga classes from the comfort of their homes. The Meditation Hall was still open every day of the year for individual meditation. Weekend and longer retreats were offered. Various celebrations -public religious worship- took place and spiritual guidance was given both online and on site, via the telephone and in-person, in line with the relevant and changing Covid restrictions that were in place in relation to Public Religious Worship and group gatherings as issued in Wales. In addition to this private space was offered to individuals, couples, families or small groups wishing to undertake private and guided retreats on a short term and long-term basis. The centre offered some 102 days of retreat throughout the year in the form of group retreats and long and short personal retreats. Regular refurbishment and maintenance works were undertaken on a continuous basis throughout the year.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees aim to maintain free reserves in unrestricted funds at a level which equates to approximately three months of unrestricted charitable expenditure. The trustees consider that this level will provide sufficient funds to respond to applications for grants and ensure that support and governance costs are covered. The trustees consider that a level of three months is sufficient given the flexibility afforded by the total return approach towards the investment of the permanent endowment which allows trustees to transfer amounts from the unapplied total element of the endowment fund in the case of urgent need.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the Trust are to advance religious education and to advance education in the practice and study of Yoga and Vedanta for the benefit of the public.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trust offers Hatha Yoga classes at its main centre and at other hired venues and provides a meditation hall for individual and collective use. Meditation classes and spiritual guidance are offered throughout the year as well as during various residential weekend programmes, celebrations and public talks all of which are open to public.

All trustees are aware of the guidance issued by the Charity Commissioners in relation to the trusts and charities public benefit guidance.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to the on-going situation with the Covid Pandemic, all our programmes including the Hatha Yoga and meditation classes were given online throughout 2020. The Meditation Hall was not open for congregational use throughout most of 2020 due the Welsh government guidelines on public gathering at places of public worship. And we were unable to offer taught weekend and longer retreats or public religious worship on site either. Spiritual guidance was given remotely via telephone, email and online by Zoom or Google Meet. But we were able to offer private space to individuals, couples and families wishing to undertake private retreats on a short term basis, again following the changing and differing Covid 19 restrictions in relation to travel and visiting of other properties. The centre offered some 45 days of retreat throughout the year in the form of long and short personal retreats. During the continued lockdown further refurbishment was undertaken on the Trust's property.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trust's policy is to accumulate and hold funds via specified donations or loans, as finances allow, for ongoing planned maintenance works. Smaller amounts may be accumulated from sales and donations for the printing of the Trusts own publications.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the UCYL Trust (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
