General Report (2022) NEDCF (C4 CHURCH)

This is the general report for the Year 2022 (January 1st - December 31st)

The 2021 report ended with the following statement: -

We will continue to come under the national leadership of AoG with a spirit of humility, grace, and a kingdom mentality. This will aid the church and its members greatly by creating new connections, opportunities, and accessible training for us to raise our capacity and skill in all areas of charity work and church life.

We will continue to place a priority on social media as the tool for connecting and 'getting the word out.' It is inevitable that when the social distancing restrictions allow there will need to be an emphasis on renewing and rebuilding. This has also given us a unique opportunity where we can take a fresh look and start anew in many ways. The things that are of use will be relaunched and new initiatives can also be set up including that which has an emphasis on community projects in our local area. As the world reopens local people and local business will have fresh challenges and issues. As the Church it is a privilege to be able to walk alongside people and provide support where we can.

This year in many ways has been very similar and a continuation of last year, we have been doing what we can in a very different world. However, we have stayed committed to serving our community and being the local church even in difficult times which is something that should not be overlooked or underestimated. We are anticipating and expectant for the change of the tide in 2022 with the world moving through the pandemic. It must be noted that it will continue to require great effort and commitment, but I truly believe that C4 Church will be built up stronger than it ever has been in the years to come. Allowing us to help more people from the community and share the gospel to a greater degree. The pastor is extremely proud of everyone who has shown exceptional grace and acceptance of the change that has come upon us. It is important for us to continue to grow and embrace the changing of the tide and remain flexible and open as that is how we will see true growth and ultimately make the most of the challenges and opportunities we have seen through the pandemic. It is this selfless attitude of looking past our own preferences that shows the true humility of Christ in which we all aspire in our own personal journey of faith.

We will continue to be proactive in making new connections with the community. We will continue to invest in the next generation and the leadership wish to see people empowered in their giftings to help lead and build NEDCF (C4) Church. We continue to believe God is unlocking our potential and with hard work, dedication, and a heart for Clay Cross we believe God is doing something fresh and inspiring.

2022 Review

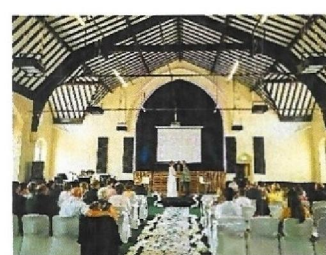

We continued with our vision and hold fast to our missional values that capture the heart of what we are about and what we are wanting to do. These values are to Reach – Empower – Impact individuals and the community. We stand firm on the command and great commission Jesus gave to reach all people and make disciples. We understand that we as individuals and as a church must make a choice to say yes to what God is doing and choose to play our part. We believe that the life of the local church is fundamentally important and an incredible privilege to be a part of. 2022 has been a year of adaptation and rejuvenation, as we slowly reintroduced our ministries and activities following the COVID-19 pandemic.

One of the major highlights of the year was the establishment of in-person home groups. This provided a space for members to connect and deepen their relationships with one another. Worship practices were also established, with new members joining the worship team, bringing fresh energy and talent to the church. We also saw a significant impact on the local community through our baby pop-up shop days, which were utilised by hundreds of people.

The Men's Ministry has been established, providing opportunities for fellowship and connection through a range of engaging events. The parent and toddler group has also been widely used by the local community. members of our congregation have taken initiative to start a writing group within the church building, named "Reminisce". This group provides a platform for members to come together and share their stories, experiences, and memories through the medium of writing. . Additionally, our regular café-style church provided an opportunity for positive relationships to form within the church in a relaxed and friendly environment.

Baby dedications and the renewal of wedding vows were another highlight of the year.

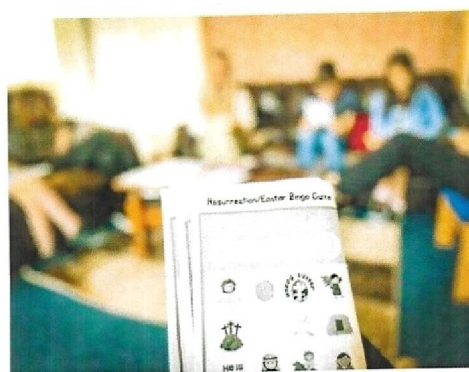

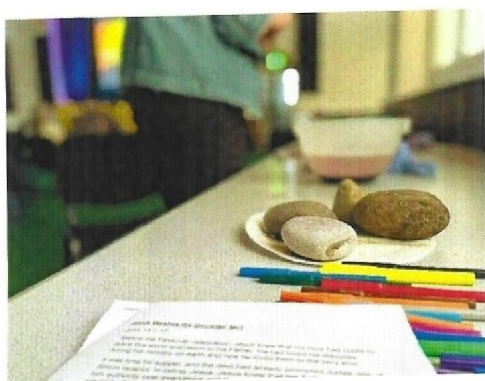

Trustees' Annual Report

The prayer zone during church services was established also saw growth, with new volunteers joining the prayer team. Regular physical communion was re-established, providing a deeper sense of unity among members. We also established a regular kids' church, catering to the younger members of the congregation. We also provided an Alpha Course which saw attendance from new people.

Easter saw the instigation of a Good Friday service. This involved several activities which allowed the congregation to focus on the passion of Jesus but at the same time give them something to take home and meditate on.

Our carol service was a particularly memorable event, attracting visitors from the local community who commented on how great it was. We are happy to report that the church culture has become healthier, with more people wanting to get behind the vision and serve.

We also had the privilege of welcoming guest speaker Ted Hanson from the USA. His visit provided valuable input and inspiration to the life of the church. Our Pastor was also actively involved with AoG and had the opportunity to speak at another AoG church on occasions.

We believe that having such guest speakers and the involvement of our Pastor in the AoG community has enriched the spiritual growth and development of our church. Their contributions have been invaluable for which we are grateful.

We look forward to continuing to welcome guest speakers and engage with the wider AoG community, in our quest to deepen our faith and serve the community.

Trustees' Annual Report

Report to the trustees of North East Derbyshire Christian Fellowship

In addition, we are pleased to announce that we have started booking speakers for 2023. This will provide further opportunities for members of our church to be inspired and challenged in their faith.

The year also saw us celebrate the Queen's Jubilee with a community Barbeque held in the church grounds.

The Pastor had the opportunity to meet with representatives from Open Doors, who engage with the persecuted church. These meetings were a valuable opportunity for the Pastor to deepen his understanding of the challenges faced by Christians in persecuted nations, and to explore ways in which our church can support and pray for them.

We would like to reiterate our commitment to building a church that truly matters to its community. Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, we are confident that we will continue to emerge stronger and continue to provide care and value to those around us.

Our aim is to create a vibrant and growing church with a strong lifestyle of prayer, clear teaching, a clear vision. We are dedicated to seeking and pursuing God, and to the life-changing power that comes from the good news. We are steadfast in our commitment to the great commission, as outlined in the Bible, and are eager to encourage others to do the same and take responsibility for their own relationship with God.

Trustees' Annual Report

Report to the trustees of North East Derbyshire Christian Fellowship

The leadership of our church is committed to investing in others and allowing them to take on new roles and responsibilities. We believe that by doing so, we can create new and innovative ways of serving our community, even during these challenging times.

In addition, our Pastor has received regular guidance and input from the AoG national and regional leadership, which has brought greater unity, direction, and accountability to our community. The Pastor has attended regular zone meetings for AoG ministers throughout the year. The Pastor, select leaders, and members have also attended AoG events, which have equipped us to serve our community more effectively.

We encourage everyone to get involved as much as possible and truly explore what it means to have a heart for the house. This involves a change in lifestyle, where we aim to go above and beyond in our conduct and demonstration of the love of God for others.

Music Report

Music in the form of praise and worship remains a central aspect of our church. We have recently been able to resume physical worship and have observed an increase in the participation of individuals using their musical talents; this has been a great blessing to the church. We are very thankful for our talented singers and musicians, and it has been encouraging to see members taking on more responsibility and showing renewed enthusiasm and effort.

The leadership places a strong emphasis on nurturing and developing new musicians and singers, with a view to creating a culture of multiplication.

Crackpots Report

The crackpots team recently started meeting regularly again. They brought with them fresh enthusiasm and excitement as they resumed their performances in primary schools all over the county, once again bringing laughter and joy to students. The team had always been passionate about their work, and they began planning their shows and coming up with new ideas to entertain their audiences and share the message of the Gospel.

Romania

The missions team again were able to go to Romania. The overland trip was successful in that they were able to reconnect with the ministries that the charity supports throughout the length and breadth of the country. The itinerary of the three week trip needed to be changed due to unforeseen events on their arrival. Nonetheless the team were able to minister to the many individuals and charities they support.

Parents and Toddlers Report

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic this ministry had to be placed on hold until the government restrictions deemed it safe to resume. Towards the end of 2021 we were able to re-launch the parent and toddler group which was now being led by a different group of volunteers. We were unsure how the group would do as many babies have grown and moved on during the pandemic, but we were very pleased to find that a lively group was quickly built back up and it is a busy and active event each week. The group were also able to use the church building to put on a Christmas party for the community which included parents and children. During the activity refreshments are provided every week and we continue to see new people from the community getting involved and visiting.

Prayer Report

We believe in the power of prayer and the transformative impact it can have in our lives and in the world around us. In recent times, we have reintroduced the provision of prayer in our services through the Prayer Zone, and we have been encouraged by the positive response from our congregation, but we realise we must continue to promote a culture of prayer. Despite the difficulties posed by the ongoing pandemic, we have been able to continue to provide opportunities for prayer and reflection through online means.

Prayer requests continue to come in regularly, and we are grateful for the continued support and engagement of our members. We also regularly post details of upcoming prayer sessions and topics online, to help encourage and facilitate ongoing prayer and reflection.

As we look ahead to 2023, we want to become more intentional in our approach to prayer and fasting. We believe that this is an important aspect of our spiritual growth and that it has the power to transform our lives and the world around us.

In conclusion, we are grateful for the opportunity to serve in this ministry and for the privilege of being able to bring the needs of our congregation and the wider world before the throne of grace. We pray that God will continue to bless and guide us as we seek to become more intentional in our approach to prayer and fasting.

Young Adults Report

Over the course of the past year, we have been able to meet up regularly and continue to build strong relationships and support one another.

Trustees' Annual Report

Report to the trustees of North East Derbyshire Christian Fellowship

Our pastor has been a constant source of pastoral care, providing guidance and support to members of the Young Adults Ministry and to those who don't attend church regularly but still benefit from this provision. This has been invaluable in helping us to navigate the challenges of daily life and grow in our faith.

We note that the dynamics of the group are changing as some of our young adults have transitioned into young families, which has been a blessing to see. While this has brought new challenges, it has also brought new opportunities for growth and development.

Despite these changes, our commitment to providing a supportive and inclusive environment for young adults remains steadfast. We believe that this ministry is a vital part of our church and will continue to work to ensure its continued success and growth.

We are grateful for the opportunity to serve in this ministry and look forward to continuing to build strong relationships and support one another as we navigate the ups and downs of life. We pray that God will bless this ministry and all who are a part of it.

Building Report

As part of our ongoing commitment to improving the church building on Market Street, Clay Cross, the trustees in the previous year engaged the Chartered Surveyors Carter Jonas to complete a building survey. The results of which formed the basis of the building improvement plan to cover the next five years. The report found that "The property has been well-looked after by the owner and there is little in the way of significant defects or disrepair to report at the time of our inspection."

However, the report drew attention to works that will continue to be a focus for building improvements over the coming years as resources and finances allow.

Other areas requiring remedial work in the future are: -

- (i) repairing and re-bedding coping stones, raking out stone mortar joints and replacing with lime, deal with the effects of water damage to brick work both inside and outside the building, following the remedial work to the gutters.
- (ii) replacing damaged and defective window frames and glazing and re-bedding some quoin to window reveal.
- (iii) Redecorate external doors and replace where necessary.

This is a summary of the findings, and a detailed description can be found in the building survey. The trustees are determined to continue with the improvement of the building.

Pastor's Leadership Report

In 2022, the leadership of the church has continued to recognise the significance of their role in leading the congregation and has sought to improve their leadership abilities. They understand the privilege and weight placed on them by the word of God, as stated in James 3:1, "Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly."

The pastor continues to emphasise the importance of leadership development and growth, as leaders cannot lead people where they themselves do not go. The leadership team must set an example to follow, and their commitment and determination must reflect the fundamental requirements for an effective church leadership team. They must embrace both spiritual and practical responsibilities, upholding both the spiritual aspects and responsible stewardship of the resources provided by God.

As we emerged from the pandemic, our church, like many others, faced the aftermath and shockwaves of change that have impacted church life and attendance. However, I have been overwhelmingly encouraged by the growth of our church and the new members in recent years who are becoming the foundation and core of it. This new foundation will serve as a cornerstone for our continued growth and advancement.

A new culture and fresh energy have been emerging, one of unity and a desire to get involved and support the vision. The energy and support of our members are crucial to the success of our mission and make it possible for us to keep building and advancing as a church.

I am grateful for the resilience and determination of our members and am excited to see what the future holds for C4 Church as we continue to grow and advance in our mission.

During 2022, the leadership of our church once again wishes to commend and applaud those who lead and contribute to the various departments of church life. This is only possible because individuals are putting aside their own interests and investing their time, finances, and energy in God's Kingdom, which is embodied in our local church.

Our pastor continues to foster a growing culture within our church where members have a heart for the house and are empowered to serve and lead in different areas of church life. The leadership believes that this attitude and heart is having a profound impact in the spiritual realm and will be a vital component for our future growth.

Our members are active in a variety of areas, ministering to and impacting the lives of others. While this only provides a snapshot of the official activities taking place, there are also many hidden ministries that occur, known only to those involved. To those who provide individual support through visits, phone calls, or meetings, we extend our gratitude and thanks.

What are our hopes for 2023?

We will continue to be committed to building a church that matters to its community and become more outwardly focussed, while being intentional in building new relationships with the greater community. This will aid the church and its members greatly by creating new connections, opportunities, and accessible training for us to raise our capacity and skill in all areas of charity work and church life.

As we look ahead to 2023, the leadership of our church has high hopes for the year ahead. Our focus will be on building upon the emerging foundations that have been established over the past few years, including the development of teams and ministries.

In 2023, we will make a concerted effort to invest in all aspects of church life, including our people, our building, and our spirituality. We aim to raise up individuals to take ownership of certain areas of ministry, empowering them to lead and serve.

One of our main goals for 2023 is to explore, promote, and teach a culture of discipleship. This involves not just attending church, but truly understanding and embracing what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. We believe that this is a critical aspect of our faith and will help us grow in our relationship with God.

Finally, we will continue to reach out and increase our local and online presence, with the goal of having a greater impact and influence on our community. Our hope is to see more people benefit from the gospel and establish a personal relationship with God.

The Pastor is immensely proud of everyone who has displayed exceptional grace and embraced the changes that have come upon us. It is crucial that we continue to develop and accept the shifting tides, remaining adaptable and open to change to see true growth and make the most of the challenges and opportunities presented during the pandemic. This selfless attitude of putting aside our own desires demonstrates the true humility of Christ that we all strive to embody in our personal faith journeys.

We will continue to take proactive steps towards forming new connections within the community. Investing in all generations is a priority, and the leadership is eager to see individuals empowered and utilising their gifts to help lead and strengthen NEDCF (C4) Church. We firmly believe that God is unlocking our potential and, with hard work, dedication, and a passion for this town, we are confident that God is doing something new and exciting.

Investment Policy

Aside from building and retaining a prudent amount in reserves each year, most of the Charity's funds are to be spent in the short term to meet the charities objectives. Where surplus funds are held over, these will be held on deposit within the Charity's main banking facilities. If substantial funds are built up ahead of being deployed to outwork the Charity's objectives, the trustees will give consideration to low risk bank overnight depositary facilities.

Reserves Policy

The church seeks to be prudent with its finances and is aware of the possibility of fluctuations in its income. It also wishes to have funds in reserve to take advantage of opportunities that arise to expand the work or respond to emergency needs as they arise.

For this reason, the Trustees deem it wise to set aside funds equivalent to at least three months average running costs at this time. In order to ensure that funds are kept at this level the Trustees have agreed to set aside any surplus income and pay it into the business account on a regular basis until this level is reached. The level of our reserves is monitored quarterly at the Trustees meeting.
