

2022-2023 ANNUAL REPORT

Report of the Senior Pastor

Rev Matthew Newman, Senior Pastor

Welcome to this our Year ending 2022/23 Report. “But the plans of the Lord stands firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.” (Psalm 33:11) “Life with Jesus cannot only be experienced on a Sunday morning and at a mid-week gathering. In many ways 2022 was a turbulent year. In much of society, including the church, it marked a return to something approaching normality after the pandemic. And yet as we saw an end to lockdowns and restrictions, the political life of our nation entered a period of turbulence. Perhaps we all hope not to see so many Prime Ministers in one year again. When Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II died at the beginning of September I encountered people, who were deeply touched by her passing and were emotionally caught up in a sense of loss.

Perhaps many of us realised that the longed-for stability that we were craving post-pandemic seemed, once more, far distant. And the instability was only added to by rising prices, supply chain issues and what has become known as the cost-of living crisis. Church offers a place of sanctuary – a still point in an ever-turning world.

One of the joys of 2022 was the return of communal events which have brought us together both as a church community and engaged with the wider community. By sharing our passions for music, food and simply wanting to be together, these are genuinely ways in which we ensure that the church is a place for everyone – as well as being so much more than a place.

While we are fortunate that most of the congregation has been able to return post-pandemic, our numbers are not as high as we would like them to be. Our ability to face those challenges together, as the church, will be a powerful portrayal of the hope that we have and the difference Jesus makes. I am confident that the church will be a light in dark times and bring hope to hopeless places. I am confident, too, that NLICC is well positioned to continue to faithfully serve the community.

In a year that had the potential to be wrought with frustration, disappointment, and fear. Instead, God’s goodness and faithfulness were palpable—largely because we sensed His prayerful and financial covering through you all. Thank you for praying. Thank you for giving.” To God be the glory for the things He has done and all that He will do.

It can be in the hardest times that we become the most aware of our need to know that we are not alone. We know that the times that we are living through are far from easy, and perhaps we find the support offered at NLICC particularly important right now. Our mission is to ensure that those in the local community who are unaware of God’s loving presence are somehow able to make that connection. I’m not pretending it’s an easy task, and neither am I suggesting that the result will necessarily be seeing the entire community worshipping at NLICC on a Sunday – though we do need to be open to miracles. Yet it is important for each one of us to consider afresh the ways in which we connect with those around us and ensure that they know that they are loved; that they matter to God; and that there is always a place where they can find a home.

As we look forward to a new year of ministry and mission through the challenges we face with the economic and mental health crises we have had to reassess our budget and spending we take one step at a time, together, as faithful and fearless followers of Jesus Christ. When He is for us, who shall we fear? When He is on our side, who can stand against us? Please join us in praying for our church family. Pray for the diverse spectrum of needs, fears and challenges present in individual families, for widows and widowers, singles and especially our children..

In a year that had the potential to be wrought with frustration, disappointment, and fear. Instead, God’s goodness and faithfulness were palpable—largely because we sensed His prayerful and financial covering through you all. Thank you for praying. Thank you for giving.” To God be the glory for the things He has done and all that He will do.

Finally, pray for the ministry year ahead of us. Pray with us that, through every single family in our church, God will provide above and beyond what we project we need to do faithful, robust, and creative ministry.

Being a Christian isn’t a life to be lived alone, but within effective relationships and family. The NLICC network is designed to nurture these relationships, connecting church leaders to equip, inspire and encourage each other to serve their churches and communities.

We want to provide an effective way of engaging with God and his kingdom for every generation, acknowledging existing culture and evolving appropriately.

We want to empower and equip leaders to live out and grow God's kingdom by teaching Spirit and Kingdom principles that can be applied locally to meet the needs of their community and church family.

Here, we feel as though we're rebuilding NLICC Church, and have been re-examining everything we used to do, especially on Sundays, in the light of two key questions: is it effective? Is it fruitful?

The promise is that the LORD will do amazing things among you; isn't that what we all long for? That the Lord will once again shake the earth, work wonders and save the lost. We can look at the world in which we live and despair. But the world at its worst needs a church at its best ... and the only way to realise that is through the power of the Holy Spirit..

As a church we want to see generations of children grow up to live inspiring lives, rooted in Jesus. However, it can be a real challenge to engage young people in the digital age,

We are keen to connect the NLICC family with tangible opportunities to serve the Kingdom throughout the year. We want to be as fair as possible and gently present opportunities from a variety of organisations – international to local, big and small – without overwhelming the NLICC family.

I hope you will be confident to share it with friends, partners and neighbours too. Thank you for spending time to read the content.

With every blessing

Rev Matthew Newman,

Objectives and activities

The main objectives of No Limits International Christian Centre are to advance the Christian faith and to provide assistance for persons in conditions of need, hardship or distress.

As an outworking of these objectives, No Limits International Christian Centre seeks to be a community in London that serves the capital and beyond. As a church we want to engage with people's questions, and create an environment where anyone can explore matters of faith. We want to help everyone discover how they can use their unique skills and passions to contribute to the strengthening of society, build community and serve those who are in need. We want to be a church that is empowered by the Holy Spirit to live effective lives and do what Jesus asks us to do. The church's strategy for accomplishing these things, and fulfilling its charitable objectives, focuses on the activities undertaken through its various ministry areas, taking into account the following guiding principles:

- No Limits International Christian Centre functions on a 'empowered' and 'enlighten' model. We gather on a Sunday to be empowered and equipped to live out the Christian faith. We then 'enlighten' throughout the city during the week to serve our local communities and the people we live amongst.

- No Limits International Christian Centre exists to provide community. The best place to grow and learn is with others, which is why we are a community that stretches across the city.

II. Governance, Trustees and Staff

No Limits International Christian Centre is a Charitable Trust

Charity registration No: 1052722

The Trustees who served during the year were:

- Reverend Matthew Emeka Okofu-Newman
- Pastor Aderonke Joy Okofu-Newman
- Reverend Olabode Awogbade
- Reverend Sam Appiah-Danquah

The power of appointment or removal of trustee's rests with the trustees. New trustees are selected from the church community. They are well known to the existing Board of Trustees and have demonstrated a high level of dedication and commitment towards the aims of the church. After their appointment, new trustees receive an induction pack, and spend time with the existing trustees to ensure they fully understand their responsibilities and the legal and financial framework in which the church operates. They are provided with additional training as required. The trustees, who meet at least four times a year, retain responsibility for the overall strategic decisions of the charitable company, as well as the setting and monitoring of budgets.

The Senior Leadership Team and those staff and volunteers overseeing different areas of the church, make day-to-day decisions on expenditure and activities. No Limits International Christian Centre is led by a Senior Leadership Team, which provides the spiritual leadership of the church. This includes responsibility in the church for maintaining the historic, orthodox understanding of the Christian faith and providing the pastoral care of the church. The team takes the lead responsibility for the day-to-day management of the various activities of the church under the oversight of the trustees. The team comprises:

Matthew Newman-As well as leading the Senior Leadership Team, Matthew's role is to oversee Sunday teaching and worship, communications, welcome and Ministry to men, as well as developing the overall vision and strategy of the church.

Joy Newman -oversees the church's finance, operations, and human resources, and also leads the church's work in respect of families, marriage and global mission as well as contributing in preaching and communications.

Josephine Wilton Waddell- is responsible for overseeing the church's Connect Groups, Pastoral Support and Social Action.

Internal Controls and Risk Management

The trustees have overall responsibility for No Limits International Christian Centre system of internal controls. Such a system can provide only reasonable and not absolute assurance against errors or frauds. No Limits International Christian Centre operates a planning and budgeting system with an annual budget approved by the trustees. Significant changes are subject to specific approval. A finance reporting system compares results with the budget on a monthly basis for income and quarterly for expenditure.

The trustees are satisfied that systems are in place to monitor, manage and mitigate No Limits International Christian Centre exposure to major risks. They consider that maintaining No Limits International Christian Centre reserves at the policy levels and reviewing internal controls and risks will provide No Limits International Christian Centre with adequate risk assurance and sufficient resources in the event of adverse conditions.

They also recognise that the nature of some of No Limits International Christian Centre work requires active acceptance and management of some risks when undertaking activities to achieve the objectives of the charitable Trust. All areas of church life have been subject to a risk review using our risk management software system, and the trustees have reviewed the most significant risks. Monitoring of these risks will take place regularly throughout the next year. All major insurable risks are subject to normal churches' and employers' insurance. Contractual risks are reviewed before being entered into, to assess that they could not significantly impact the church's ability to fulfil its objectives.

Employees and Volunteers

The work of No Limits International Christian Centre relies on the commitment and hard work of its staff, as well as many volunteers. Communication links are maintained through team briefings, email, newsletters, the website and other channels. No Limits International Christian Centre is committed to equality in recruiting, training and career development.

III. Review of the Year's Activities

Sunday Services

Our Sunday services provide a context in which people can grow spiritually. We aim to present a rounded teaching programme that covers the key areas of the church vision. We often present practical series helping people simplify various areas of their lives, including their diaries, finances, and relationships. This is in addition to our regular Dedication and Baptism services, Family Enrichment, Thanksgiving Sundays and Carol Services.

Our primary pursuit is a deeper knowledge of God and a closer relationship with Him. Through our relationship with God, we recognise that no one was created to be insignificant and that everyone must be encouraged to discover their purpose, maximise their innate potential and seek ways in which to positively affect the lives of those around them - particularly the less fortunate. Our passion for the growth and development of the individual is reflected in the vision of the Church and we are committed to making a positive impact in our local and international communities

We are now airing our services through the zoom online channels.

Worship

The worship team has grown with a team of volunteers providing worship leaders and musicians for Sunday services and midweek events. Over the past year this has included training and evening prayer meetings.

Training

Team training has also been a priority, to equip the volunteers and develop creativity. We hold regular Cap money courses for both the youths and adults over the year. They were well attended, and several individuals are now regularly attending our Sunday services. The employability and entrepreneurial passion driven training for youths to upskill themselves has always been a huge success. Many have now gone to further their education and have actively sought employment with increase to their confidence levels.

Women of Wisdom

Our WOW women workshops that have been instrumental to the enhancing and enabling women to realise their dreams. It has had a great impact on the church family who had the opportunity to invite friends and family as well as reaching out to the broader community. Women were encouraged to develop their entrepreneurial and careers skills and be more confident in their innate skills and gifts. We also hold courses for women looking at emotional health. These courses were attended by a considerable number of people and largely facilitated by volunteers from the team

Men of Integrity

The men have been meetings regularly inviting guest ministers to share at their breakfast meetings. They also encourage younger men to come for the meetings so they can have a greater understanding of how to face challenges in life and also how they can bring up godly families

The Information Point

The church website and other social media platform is where we continue to share information. We also share announcements on Sunday's and Wednesday's and continue to actively engage people weekly to help them access church activities and find out about the different groups and teams across the church.

Get Connected and Explore

It is an opportunity to stop by after a service, meet Pastors Matthew and Joy, mingle with other NLICC people and get basic info about taking next steps at NLICC.

Connect Groups

They are project groups open to everyone and groups undertake activities in their communities as they fulfil their mission.

Prayer Team

The Prayer Team has remained steady. We are now praying through the medium of zoom five times a week with over 20 people tuning in to pray for the family and the nation as we go through this challenging time.

Social Action

We are reaching out to the young people on a regular basis through the medium of Zoom and having them establish their faith and confidence in God in these tough times.

Communications and Media

Our website, is now fully responsive for different devices, and better reflects our current priorities and activities as a church. The website remains our main centre of communication. In addition, we print the bi-monthly Broadcast Headlines bulletin as well as sending out monthly emails and distributing content through our media hub, Broadcast.

We have continued to connect with people through our social media channels, with content being disseminated through Facebook daily, and Twitter at least twice daily.

Operations

Our teams continue to function effectively. We continued to invest in our volunteers through training and development opportunities. Our risk management system is on-going, and we undertake an annual review of policies and risks to ensure compliance.

IV. Financial Review

Incoming Resources Total incoming resources for the year were £52,797.00 received for the year to 31 March 2023 most of this income was received from the church community as general giving. Other income includes funds which were received during the period from: ticket sales to fund events, receipts for contributions towards training and outreach weekends, preaching gifts and gifts for social action projects.

V. Future Objectives

Looking ahead, No Limits International Christian Centre have agreed that our priorities for the coming year are:

To reach more young people and work in partnership with our community to offer a Youth and Young adult Outreach Program to young people ages 10-24. The program strives to inspire youth and young adults by establishing a true commitment to character, positive attitude, and a sense of purpose through 5 primary ideals: Education, Personal Well-being, Recreation, Creativity, and Meaningful Relationships.

The goals of the Youth Outreach Program are to encourage young people to develop friendships, to build self-worth, and to develop a sense of fair play, team spirit, and cooperation in a safe, supervised environment.

- To continue to invest in our Children's Ministry, Family Ministry, Youth Ministry and Connect Outreach Ministry. We are determined to reach out to our local community and find the best ways we could be of service to them.
- To broaden our scope of reach to the young people and bring a message of hope to them that will enable them focus on their purpose, passion and talent.

Sunday Services

We will also continue to provide biblical, theological and practical training to equip people in every area of life. Worship Each Sunday, we seek to worship God in a way that reflects our values and is accessible for everyone. Over the next year, we will seek to build our team of worship leaders and musicians and increase in size. We also seek to invest deeply in team members and learn how to worship God effectively not only with our instruments but in every area of life.

The Information Point

The Welcome team will focus on helping everyone who visits on a Sunday to connect into church life. Welcome lunches will continue in their current format through the autumn term and we will focus on building bigger teams to serve the new services in the New Year.

Get Connected and Explore

We are committed to continuing our work in the community and will support Connect Groups as they seek to make a positive difference in their respective areas. The additional services will also contribute to the starting of new Connect Groups over the next year. On-going pastoral care will continue through Connect Groups. Our main focus for the coming year is to help our Student Connect Groups integrate into our services.

The Pastoral Support team will continue to provide support for each of the services and run courses.

The Marriage Bonding Seminars will be presented twice a year, alongside ongoing support for married couples.

Family Enrichment

Through various teachings that we have explored in our Family Enrichment Services has led families to bond closer together. It led us to grow in unexpected ways. Healthy relationships needed more than effort, we also needed real skills... how to talk and how to listen, how to resolve conflict and how to keep the peace, how to understand the other and how to understand ourselves. God built within us a healthy passion for maintaining our marriage relationships and blessed us in so many ways over the years. Through it all, we have encouraged members to pursue God's grand purpose for their marriage. The beauty of learning to know and love your spouse is it teaches us about pursuing God. Commit to me, walk with me, share everything with me, get to know me as much as I want to know you. In the same way your spouse asks these things of you, so does God.

Christians Against Poverty

Christians Against Poverty (CAP) exists to equip churches to tackle poverty and show God's love to others, through free debt help and local community groups. Local churches across the UK are providing emotional and practical support to those struggling with poverty in their community, through their CAP services. Every working day, nine people become debt free and two respond to the gospel*. Our services are always delivered through the Church, giving people an opportunity to encounter the love of God and find belonging in a supportive church community.

Communications and Media

We will work to keep a balance between communicating church-wide content and service specific news. The website will remain the central hub for information about all services, with some of the other communications channels being tweaked according to the needs of the different services. We will also redevelop the Broadcast section of the website, in line with our new design, which will allow us to re-order the information and make the most important media more clearly accessible to the user.

Operations

Our investment in our volunteer personnel will continue via training and staff development, with opportunity for growth of staff. We will ensure that our staff are in the best positions for them and aim to make the best use of the resources we have available. The Senior Leadership Team believes that the resources and capacity should be generated to enable the Church to pursue its vision and objectives.

We have already noted the rising number of places where churches are working together to serve their communities through Street Pastors, Food Banks, Counselling and many other socially useful initiatives. Undoubtedly these programmes are meeting real needs, especially where statutory provision is inadequate or even lacking altogether. But they are more than just that. They take the Gospel imperatively seriously, following the example of Jesus in addressing first the 'felt needs' of each individual or community but not stopping there. The witness they give is incalculable and stories are emerging of people touched by these programmes who begin to understand the Gospel message for the first time. There is much to be explored here and we hope that the missional dimension of poverty-related programmes will be more actionable in 2021.

VI. Policies and Procedures

The following policies and procedures remained in place during the year:

1. Safeguarding policy and procedures associated with children's and youth activities.
2. Equipment set up and set down health and safety procedures associated with all the church's events, including Sunday services, training events and other events.
3. First aid, fire and evacuation procedures during Sunday services and training events
4. Income protection and recording.
5. Data back-up for Information Technology systems.

Reserves Policy

The trustees have set a policy of retaining reserves sufficient for the foreseeable needs of the Church. Where there is specific capital expenditure, foreseen amounts are set aside into designated funds so the general reserves are available to meet the costs of normal running and expansion of the Church and to ensure the Church can meet the commitments that have been entered into. The level of general reserves is anticipated to be approximately three months of the level of general expenditure.

As we look forward to a new year of ministry and mission, we have started off with some of the greatest challenges we have ever faced post COVID-19 and the parallel economic and mental health crises have prompted us to reassess our budget and spending. Through it all, we will take one step at a time, together, as faithful and fearless followers of Jesus Christ. When He is for us, who shall we fear? When He is on our side, who can stand against us? Please join us in praying for our church family. Pray for the diverse spectrum of needs, uncertainties, and challenges present in individual families, for widows and widowers, singles, young people and especially our children.

INCOMING RESOURCESRecognition of incoming resources

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the resources;
- the trustees are virtually certain they will receive the resources; and
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Incoming resources with related expenditure

Where incoming resources have related expenditure (as with fundraising or contract income) the incoming resources and related expenditure are reported gross in the SoFA.

Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.

Tax reclaims on donations and gifts

Incoming resources from tax reclaims are included in the SoFA at the same time as the gift to which they relate.

Contractual income and performance related grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the related goods or services have been delivered.

Gifts in kind

Gifts in kind are accounted for at a reasonable estimate of their value to the charity or the amount actually realised.

Gifts in kind for sale or distribution are included in the accounts as gifts only when sold or distributed by the charity.

Gifts in kind for use by the charity are included in the SoFA as incoming resources when receivable.

Donated services and facilities

These are only included in incoming resources (with an equivalent amount in resources expended) where the benefit to the charity is reasonably quantifiable, measurable and material. The value placed on these resources is the estimated value to the charity of the service or facility received.

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

Investment income

This is included in the accounts when receivable.

Investment gains and losses

This includes any gain or loss on the sale of investments and any gain or loss resulting from revaluing investments to market value at the end of the year.

EXPENDITURE AND LIABILITIESLiability recognition

Liabilities are recognised as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources.

Governance costs

Include costs of the preparation and examination of statutory accounts, the costs of trustee meetings and cost of any legal advice to trustees on governance or constitutional matters.

Grants with performance conditions

Where the charity gives a grant with conditions for its payment being a specific level of service or output to be provided, such grants are only recognised in the SoFA once the recipient of the grant has provided the specified service or output.

Grants payable without performance conditions
Support Costs

These are only recognised in the accounts when a commitment has been made and there are no conditions to be met relating to the grant which remain in the control of the charity.

Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.

ASSETSTangible fixed assets for use by charity

These are capitalised if they can be used for more than one year, and cost at least £500. They are valued at cost or a reasonable value on receipt.

Investments

Investments quoted on a recognised stock exchange are valued at market value at the year end. Other investment assets are included at trustees' best estimate of market value.

Stocks and work in progress

These are valued at the lower of cost or market value.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
