Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity is affiliated to a national organisation (Assemblies of God), who have access to professional advisors enabling trustees to keep up to date with legislation and risk assessment.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of the Christian religion.
The preaching and teaching of the Word of God and other work consistent with the above, including the furtherance of the work of the Assemblies of God.

The running of a local community-based church including work with children, youth, and vulnerable adults in the community.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity continues to achieve the objectives outlined above, and in particular continues to be active in the local community, those who've been particularly marginalised and are least able to cope without assistance.

Section EFinancial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Despite our project to refurbish our community building 'The Storehouse', we have comfortable cash funds on hand at the end of 2022, leaving the church in a good financial position where we can continue to impact the local community.

Details of any funds materially in deficitFurther financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The principal source of funds is donations from our Members.

The Storehouse community project is broadly self-funding with income from rentals and till receipts similar to outgoing costs.

The charity's assets comprise property, cash at bank, and fixtures and fittings.

Section FOther optional information*Section G*Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
