Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that year. In preparing these financial statements the trustees are required:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The Alma Hospital Trust remains committed to delivering high-quality healthcare to some of Pakistan's most underserved communities. Established in memory of Mohammed Younis' Mother, Alma Bi, the hospital was founded on the principle that no one should be denied essential medical care due to financial or geographic barriers. Today, that mission continues to drive our work.

Over the past year, the Trust has expanded its impact through a series of targeted initiatives, including our highly successful eye camps, which have restored sight to hundreds of patients who would otherwise have remained untreated. Our outreach health programs have continued to bridge the gap for remote communities, ensuring critical medical services and essential medicines reach those in need.

Despite ongoing economic and regulatory challenges, we have maintained financial stability and operational efficiency. New governance measures have strengthened our financial oversight, while the dedication of our staff and supporters has ensured that resources are allocated where they are needed most.

This report provides a comprehensive overview of our financial performance, the milestones we have achieved, and the resilience that defines the Alma Hospital Trust. We remain steadfast in our mission, and with careful financial stewardship, we will continue to provide life-changing healthcare in the years ahead.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR END 31 OCTOBER 2023

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2023 set out on pages four to seven.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. I also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required for an audit and consequently, no opinion is given whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.
