

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 01 Feb 2024 Period start date To Period end date 31 Jan 2025

Charity name: Lusty Surf Life Saving Club

Charity registration number:1054699

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The Club's objects (the Objects) are: - <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) To save lives whether by prevention or rescue from the beach(b) To promote the safety of all beach and water activities(c) To develop and promote surf life saving methods which include all aspects of first aid and water rescues(d) To offer coaching and support for surf life saving competitions(e) To work as closely as possible with other organisations or bodies whose work has similar objectives to the Club(f) To comply with the requirements set by the Surf Life Saving Association of Great Britain, and officially adopt the Child protection and Safeguarding policies provided by Surf Life Saving Great Britain(g) To ensure a duty of care to all members of the club.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Our main aims can easily be separated into 2 sectors 1) Life Saving skills - All of our members receive up-to-date first aid training, ranging from basic life support like CPR and treating burns, across the board to protocols for incidents involving Oxygen, defibrillators and spinal boards. These skills are channelled through our members in fun training that is geared around the beach lifeguarding culture to prepare everyone to be ambassadors for beach safety and awareness...regardless of age. 2) Competition - Because of our close links to surf life saving there is a requirement for all members to maintain, or develop, a level of fitness through physical training to be safe in the sea and promote healthy living. Many members who particularly enjoy, or excel, in this area will be actively encouraged to represent the club in competition; be it on a local or national level.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	Guidance on public benefit issued by Charity Commission is reviewed at meetings when planning activities for year.

Achievements and Performance

--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We have increased numbers in our young 5-7yr feeder section, allowing for a better age/sex balance as members progress through the Club structure. We have increased focus on training, both child participants and adult helpers/coaches, leading to a more structured approach to sessions and greater benefit for participants. Majority of our volunteers now have recognised SLSGB coaching/safety qualifications. Another cohort of Lifeguards has been successfully trained, and several of our alumni are now working for the RNLI. We now have a strong presence at regional and national competitions, and are active locally in providing water safety at local/regional events.
