OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and activities

On the 8th February 2018, the management committee passed a Special Resolution to amend Advocacy Matters (Wales) objects. On this date the Articles of association was updated and the updated objects are as follows:

"To promote the relief of all people with a disability or a mental need and to assist those persons to overcome the barriers attendant upon their disability by the provision of a service calculated to:

- a) Assist a person with a disability or a mental health need to obtain his or her full rights as a citizen.
- b) Provide support to people with a disability or a mental need to express their views and wishes on issues that affect their lives.
- c) Support, represent and to facilitate the involvement of the person with a disability or a mental health need, to secure his or her preferred outcome".

Advocacy Matters (Wales) confirms that the trustees have considered public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities and have had regard to the Charity Commissioner's guidance on public benefit. The organisation is open to anyone age 18 and over, who has a learning disability in our areas of operation. AMW Mission statement is that the organisation exists to promote the independent voice and protect the rights and choices of individuals with a disability. The organisation's vision is that individuals with a disability are recognised as equal citizens who participate in society and control their own lives. This statement is underlined by the values that all individuals with a disability have the right to the support required to make informed choices about their lives and be able to exercise such a right by:

- Being treated as unique individuals.
- Having choice and a right to confidentiality and independence.
- Being treated with respect, recognition and dignity.
- Having professionals working in partnership in a manner that does not stigmatise or disadvantage them.
- Benefiting from social inclusion tenets of valuing uniqueness and diversity.
- Being able to take advantage of equal opportunities in all fields of activity.

To promote the rights, interests and inclusion of people with a learning disability and / or Autism spectrum condition, AMW provides Independent Advocacy services primarily in Cardiff and Vale of Glamorgan.

Advocacy Matters (Wales)

Independent Advocates employed by AMW provide time limited, issue based advocacy service to support individuals to address specific problems and issues. Requests for Independent Advocacy are confidential and are accepted as a self-referral, from families / friends, organisations and Social services. Independent Advocates do not make decisions for people, or tell people what is best for them. Their role is to help people understand their rights and any choices they may have. If necessary, an Independent Professional Advocate will speak up for people and represent them.

Our Independent advocacy services are a Free and Confidential service for all adults with a learning disability and / or Autism spectrum condition who live in our geographical areas of operation.

AMW has had an active service user group since 2005. The Voices of Advocacy Matters (Wales), known as the Voices Group have lived experiences of learning disability/autism and independent advocacy. The Voices Group is currently made up of seven members (volunteers) who act as Ambassadors' for our Charity, playing a central role within the organisation and representing us at public functions and events to promote advocacy and our services. The Voices Group share their personal experiences of advocacy and how it has given them a voice, increased their confidence and sense of well-being to lead fulfilled and independent lives.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Achievements and performance

The foundations of Advocacy Matters (Wales) (AMW) began over 30 years ago and our Independent Advocacy services continue to be in great demand.

During the 2024-25 period, we continued to foster a collaborative, respectful, and empowering environment for our clients, enabling them to express their views and actively participate in the planning and delivery of the services they receive. The central focus of our work continued to be Independent Advocacy for adults with learning disabilities and/or Autism Spectrum Conditions. Our advocates provided tailored support, helping these individuals to understand their rights, navigate complex social and health systems, and make informed decisions about their care and daily lives. By maintaining complete independence and avoiding conflicts of interest, our advocates ensured that the client's perspective remained at the heart of every decision, building trust and reinforcing their autonomy.

The advocacy team worked on a wide range of issues affecting adults with learning disabilities and autism, including housing, social care, community integration, access to education or training opportunities, and day-to-day decision-making.

Advocates supported clients to communicate effectively with professionals, understand complex information, and have their voices heard in important meetings and reviews. This consistent focus on empowerment and self-determination ensured that our clients could participate as fully as possible in decisions affecting their lives.

In addition to providing this broad-based service, the team also ran regular "surgery-style" independent advocacy sessions for out-of-county residents at Witla Court and Wentwood Court community homes. They also offered these sessions at Pinetree Court, a locally based independent hospital in Cardiff.

These sessions were designed to provide accessible, personalised advocacy support to adults with learning disabilities and autism, enabling them to raise concerns, and receive professional advocacy in a setting that was safe and approachable.

During this period, the charity received a number of enquiries by phone from individuals, organisations, and local authorities seeking independent advocacy services beyond our areas of operation. Using our extensive database of organisations and agencies across Wales, we were able to direct these callers to the most appropriate specialist services in their local areas, ensuring they received the support they needed.

We continue to develop our well-established 'Voices of AMW' service user group, facilitated by our Taking Part worker. This group is made up of volunteer former service users who contribute to the organisation in a variety of ways. Members work with other groups to share their experiences of social services in the region, providing valuable feedback that helps shape and improve the services we offer.

We are also proud to report that, towards the end of this financial year, Advocacy Matters (Wales) was awarded the Independent Professional Advocacy (IPA) contracts in Cardiff and the Vale for adults aged 18+ with learning disabilities and/or autism. Despite a lengthy and complex procurement process, our team maintained high-quality, uninterrupted services throughout the year.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Securing these contracts ensures the long-term sustainability of our organisation, reinforces our reputation as a trusted provider of specialist advocacy, and enables us to move forward with confidence.

The new contracts, commencing on 1st April 2025, provide security for the next four years, with the potential to extend to six, and offer a strong foundation for pursuing additional funding opportunities. With these contracts in place, Advocacy Matters (Wales) is well-positioned to continue delivering professional, high-quality advocacy services and to build on this success in the years ahead.

STRATEGIC REPORT

Financial Review and Reserves Policy

The accounts show a deficit for 2025 year of £5,671 on income of £263,248 compared to a deficit of £29,415 in 2024 on income of £320,360.

The trustees of AMW recognise their legal duty to apply income funds for the objects of the Charity, within a reasonable time of receipt for the benefit of actual and potential service users and beneficiaries. The trustees have determined the principles and holding reserves as being:

- a) To assist in the strategic planning of services
- b) To provide a resource to meet legal obligations and liabilities
- c) To assist in the maintenance of the Organisation's independence

The trustees recognise that the policy needs to be flexible enough to accommodate changes brought about by new developments and external factors outside of the control AMW. However the trustees believe that it is necessary to hold defined levels of financial reserves to absorb setbacks and to take advantage of change and opportunity.

The trustees aspire to hold a minimum of six months average expenditure, plus additional obligations such as rent notice and redundancies in free reserves to ensure the principal objects of the Charity are met. The unrestricted reserves brought forward have decreased during the year by £5,671 to leave a balance at 31st March 2025 of £188,207. The trustees are aware that the unrestricted reserves held are below the level they aspire to hold and will continue to take steps in the future to increase reserves.

The trustees formally review the Policy on an annual basis.

The Directors/Trustees submit herewith the annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2025.
