Free food/ Langar are popular which are prepared on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays for devotees, visitors and the homeless. On other days prashad (blessed food) is given to all attendees.

Financial review

The charity's only source of income is donations received. Total receipts on ordinary unrestricted funds were £ 40,296(2020- £43,305)

Volunteers are important resources in both our faith and community work. Volunteers are involved in most of our community activities and we have over 20 people regularly giving their time. We encourage all members of the temple to be involved in voluntary activities and to share their skills with others.

The charity is grateful for the considerable number of volunteers that assist with its activities

Risk management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the project , and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate our exposure to major risks.

Reserves policy

The Reserve Fund represents unrestricted funds. The Trustees aim to maintain sufficient reserves so as to give flexibility to cover temporary timing differences for donations received, adequate working capital for core costs and which allow them to respond quickly to the needs of the Charity.
