The Trustees have referred to the Charity Commission general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the aims and objectives in planning future activities.

The charity's objectives are to advance the education of the public in the matter of the arts by:

Significant activities

The income of the charity is primarily generated by the activities of The Black Dyke Band (1855) Promotions Limited through its income from concerts, recordings and sale of merchandise.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The Black Dyke Band performed in concerts, released new CD recordings, and took part in competitions whilst continuing its work with the young people through the Yorkshire Youth Brass Band.

The main source of this was a Recovery Grant from Arts Council England which the band used to fund online lessons and a new website front end to help promote the band's activities.

Thanks to previously secured funding, the band headquarters continues to establish itself as a Heritage Centre celebrating the history of the band and its members.

Music Director Professor Childs and his players continued their work with the Yorkshire Youth Brass Band.

THE BLACK DYKE BAND (1855) LIMITED

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

17. ULTIMATE CONTROLLING PARTY

There is no ultimate controlling party.

18. LENGTH OF REPORTING PERIOD

The reporting period for the accounts is for the 12 months. The previous reporting period was 15 months. The reason for the longer reporting period is to bring the charitable company's year end in line with the end of the tax year and subsequently many of the organisations with which the charity works.

The charity has notified the relevant authorities of its intention to run an extended period.

As a result of the longer previous accounting period, the comparative amounts presented in the accounts, together with the related notes, are not entirely comparable.
