Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Association of Radical Midwives

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Association of Radical Midwives

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of The Association of Radical Midwives (the Trust) for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

The Association of Radical Midwives

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Association of Radical Midwives

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of The Association of Radical Midwives (the Trust) for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of The Association of Radical Midwives

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

To offer support and information enabling midwives and women to provide and receive the highest standards of care.

ARM offers information and help to those having difficulty in getting or giving sympathetic, individualised NHS maternity care.

We also provide support to midwives in giving that care over 50 local contacts around UK, many with local groups holding regular meetings.

Significant activities

Annual Report of the Association of Radical Midwives

2021-2022.

As the restrictions imposed by the Covid-19 pandemic eased we have once again been able to meet in person. During some of 2021, while restrictions were in place, we met via Zoom which provided a good substitute and reduced the necessity to travel. In common with many organisations we will undoubtedly continue to use conferencing technology as a useful alternative to in person meetings and conferences.

The Midwives' Haven continues to provide a much-valued resource and support for midwives undergoing Fitness to Practice investigations and disciplinary processes at work.

After the fall of Kabul to the Afghan Taliban regime in August 2021, a support group for Afghan midwives was rapidly set up by one of our longstanding members. She was aware that midwives, women, and babies had already been subject to terrorist attacks by fundamentalist groups, who believe that women should not work outside the home, and as midwifery has a role in sexual health. It seemed unlikely that the Taliban would have changed their views sufficiently for anyone to expect that midwives would be free to continue to work unmolested, and so it has proved. After fundraising, researching, and providing many hours of practical and emotional support in terms of phone, messaging and other technologies, the group has helped 10 midwives and their families, a total of around 40 people. All except one group are now out of Afghanistan, mainly being supported in neighbouring countries. We are grateful for the work of the group and to have been able to help in this way, though regrettably we do not have the resources to make this a permanent part of the work of the association.

In Spring of 2021 some members of the steering group proposed a working group to look at equity, diversity and inclusion in ARM focussing particularly on the use of sex-based terms in language, but also regarding representation of minority groups in the steering group and the wider organisation. There were difficulties in finding consensus and views were very polarised. The Trustees and officers agreed to undergo training, as suggested by the working group and provided by Sheffield Maternity Cooperative which led to the proposing of 3 statements on language. One of the statements was voted for by two thirds of the steering group in December 2021 and published in the next edition of our magazine Midwifery Matters. Several members objected to this decision and requested an EGM to seek the views of the wider membership and we hope a conclusion may be reached at the AGM in September 2022 to enable the association to continue to plan activities, and provide our key objectives in the future.

We have continued to provide workshops, national meetings and student forums using Zoom and have supported the VIDM (Virtual International Day of the Midwife) which streams 24 hours of presentations on the international day of the Midwife in May each year. We were able to hold our members retreat on 17th September of 2021 in Penmaenmawr, North Wales, which provides a relaxing space to share ideas and renew our energies. We held a live conference in November of 2021 entitled "Is Normal Birth Radical" chaired by Professor Lesley Page and full of inspiring speakers and presentations. The subject was chosen as a result of conversations around physiological birth which were much prevalent media due to the publishing of the Ockenden Report into maternity care at Shrewsbury and Telford Trust. Supporting physiological pregnancy and birth are central to the role of the midwife and that support is much valued by users of maternity services and yet the debate generated suggestions from some commentators that midwives should not promote normal physiological birth. Not to do so would require a fundamental revision of national and international definition of the role of a midwife.

As a result of this conversation, we started to consider the balance between supporting physiology and the appropriate and timely use of medical interventions when these are a safer option for mothers and babies. We have been talking to the CEO of the Royal College of Midwives twice a year to discuss working together to improve maternity care and support midwives, though we have disagreed with their approach and some of their media communications. It is likely that we will continue to develop this work in the next year and seek the views of midwives and maternity service users to inform our conclusions and our activities.

We have been fortunate in finding a home for our considerable archive of material from the founding of ARM in 1976 until the present. The Glasgow Women's Library have agreed to classify and care for this important record of the social history of women, maternity care, and midwives.

Association of Radical Midwives

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

We continue to work with other groups and charities seeking to improve maternity services, in particular the Association for the Improvement of Maternity Services.

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2021. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Objectives and aims

To offer support and information enabling midwives and women to provide and receive the highest standards of care.

ARM offers information and help to those having difficulty in getting or giving sympathetic, individualised NHS maternity care.

We also provide support to midwives in giving that care over 50 local contacts around UK, many with local groups holding regular meetings.

Significant activities

The Association of Radical Midwives have continued to provide information and support to midwives and members of the public who are seeking to provide and receive the highest standards of maternity care, our finances remain stable and we have increased interest in our work and new members. We hope to be able to continue to extend our activities towards improvement in maternity care. Our steering group and officers have been involved in ongoing discussions around increasing the inclusivity and diversity of both the steering group and membership. The steering group will undertake training on this subject later this year.

We sponsor and contribute to the 24-hour global cycle of presentations and lectures as part of the "Virtual International day of the Midwife" which are freely available to anyone who logs in worldwide. We retain contacts with midwifery organisations and high-profile midwives worldwide and are members of the European Midwives Association, this gives a broader vision and enables the sharing of ideas, initiatives and examples of good practice.

We produce a quarterly magazine with a variety of contributions and appointed a new editor in December 2020 who is developing the magazine creatively. We hope to develop plans to collate and catalogue an archive on midwifery and maternity care and discussions with potential collaborators are ongoing.

We are in touch at least biannually with the Royal College of Midwives and receive information and assistance from midwifery research groups. We are in discussion with them about improvements in practice and the implementation of Better Births which by increasing the numbers of women receiving continuity of care will greatly enhance the well being of women and their babies. We have been involved with discussions and developments of practice to help make the experience of maternity care during the covid pandemic more compassionate. We liaise with AIMS and other maternity and midwifery related charities.

Our members continue to work in supporting midwives undergoing fitness to practice hearings under the Nurses and Midwives Council, there have been meetings to discuss the delay in cases being heard, lack of appropriate representation on the panels and the length of time taken to resolve them. Work on change of legislation for midwifery regulation has largely been in abeyance this year due to the degree of parliamentary disruption due to the conflicts in parliament around the Brexit process, and the Covid-19 pandemic.

We plan to hold a conference in November 2021 on recent media trends to frame normal birth as potentially dangerous for women and babies in Nottingham. The title is "Is Normal Birth Radical" We plan to provide a range of good speakers and hold a round table discussion on controversial topics in clinical practice. We aim to cover costs only in order to keep the price of attendance as affordable as possible. We attend relevant conferences and other forums to promote our work.

All our meetings in this year have been conducted by Zoom due to the Covid-19 pandemic. We hope to return to having more meetings in person from our September AGM, however we have appreciated the benefits of using conferencing platforms for meetings and a number of generous volunteers have provided a range of workshops and discussion forums by this route and we will continue to use this method of reaching more of our potential audience this way in future. We have significantly increased our membership since offering more online information, workshops and forums, and engaging further with social media.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Stocks

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
