BECKTON ISLAMIC ASSOCIATION
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2023
STATEMENTS OF RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Law applicable to charities in England & Wales require the Committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the Committee is required to:

- A) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- B) Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- C) State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- D) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Executive Committee is responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER

According to the provisions of the Charities Act 1993, the Committee has agreed that an audit is not required for this financial year. However due to provisions of the same act an independent examiner is required.

Accountants' Report

To the Trustees of BECKTON ISLAMIC ASSOCIATION

We report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2023 set out on pages 8 to 14 which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the financial statements.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Accountants

As described on page 5 the trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements, and they consider that the trust is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our work in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the charity, and making such limited enquiries of the trustees and officers as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) The accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the charity under the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice – Accounting and Reporting by Charities;
- (b) Having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounts:
 - (1) The accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified the Statement of Recommended Practice – Accounting and Reporting by Charities, and
 - (2) The charity satisfied the conditions for the exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in the Charities Act.
