Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Objectives

The church is committed to reaching out into the whole community within realistic geographical reach of the building. We seek to share the Good News of the Gospel i.e. that salvation is found through faith in the finished work of the Lord Jesus Christ upon the Cross of Calvary.

Activities

There are several activities, which reflect our commitment to the community: -

- Worship on Sundays at 10.30am & 6.00pm to which all are welcome.
- Bible study and prayer on Wednesday evenings
- Provision of pastoral care
- Outreach into the community through door to door visiting, meeting people at the local shops distributing literature and our church magazine.
- Every Wednesday morning there is a Baby and Toddler meeting.
- There is monthly informal fellowship held on the first Thursday of each month. This is open to anyone who would like to come.
- There are also meetings open to those who are seeking a better understanding of Christianity.

The main achievements in 2024 were:

- A successful Holiday Bible Club was held in August
- Support of a pastor to another church in Tyneside

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

NREC will use any reserves for the purposes of fulfilling the aims and objectives of the Church. Reserves may also be used to help Christian Organisations at home and overseas (described in the expenditure as tithe)

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The principal source of funds is the membership and friends of the church.

Expenditure has supported the key objectives in paying a salary to a full-time minister as well as covering all costs relating to the activities of the church and in 2024 providing additional support to a minister assisting another church in Tyneside.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
