Choices Advocacy

What does Choices Advocacy do?

Choices Advocacy started in 1994 and became a charity in May 1997. We work together with people in South & East Hampshire and Southampton, providing independent advocacy for people who may need it because of their age or disability. This "object" is set out and explained in the Memorandum and Articles of Association which is our governing document.

Choices Advocacy is an independent organisation, with a trustee board that includes people who have used our advocacy services. Choices Advocacy believes that everyone should have a voice in the decisions that affect their lives and to access their rights. Our independence ensures we can support every individual who uses our service to voice their views without influence from other service providers or people involved in their lives.

We are committed to providing locally based independent advocacy to local communities. Our trustee board are local people, with local experience. Our staff and volunteers are local people, with local experience, linked into local networks.

At Choices Advocacy we see independent advocacy as always promoting self-advocacy. Independent advocacy is for everyone and when we work together with people who can find it difficult or who are not able to tell us what they want, we use non instructed advocacy approaches to listen and learn from people's experiences, what they can communicate to us and from others who know the person well.

Choices Advocacy advocates include peer advocates, volunteer advocates and paid professional advocates. We work to make sure all of our advocates are knowledgeable and skilled to provide high quality advocacy services. We support the practice development of our workforce and are committed to making sure their practice is well supported by providing supervision.

During this year we have invested in our training for advocates from Kate Mercer training.

We want to keep improving and developing how we work. We ask people using our services to tell us what we have done well and how we can improve. Listening to the children, young people and people who use our services helps us to know what works and what we can change and improve. We also listen to our partners, in statutory and third sector organisations.

Choices has worked closely with other local providers Speakeasy Advocacy, Solent Mind, East Havant Mind and GoLD as Hampshire Advocacy CIC bidding for the recent Hampshire and Southampton statutory advocacy contract but were unsuccessful.

Moving on from losing this contract Choices is strengthening links with Speakeasy Advocacy East Havant Mind and looking to bid for future statutory advocacy contracts.

Choices Advocacy

What is the job of a Trustee? What do they do?

The Trustees are there to help Choices Advocacy run properly. All our Trustees are volunteers. It is important that some of the Trustees know what it is like to have an advocate and also have a say in how we run the charity. We have 2 Trustees who are users of our service. Trustees can help find the money to pay for the work of the staff and volunteers. People become Trustees when they are elected by the members at the Annual General Meeting and can serve for three years.

The Trustees are given jobs by the Charity Commission. They make sure that proper financial records are kept and make careful decisions about spending and staffing. The Trustees guide the work of the charity and think about what direction it should take in the future. They make sure that we know about any risks that could cause the charity problems. Each year, the Choices Advocacy Trustees do a financial health check, following the procedure recommended by the Charity Commission. Smaller groups of Trustees meet to advise on Finance & Human Resources.

Company law says that the Trustees must prepare financial statements for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure of the charitable company. In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees must:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice)
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statement
- Prepare the financial statement on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that all financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Trustee induction/training

New Trustees are appointed following discussions on the skills required of Board members, which include expertise in commercial business, advocacy skills, and legal and regulatory aspects. The induction process for any newly-appointed Trustee comprises of induction into advocacy and safeguarding and the provision of a number of documents, including the Memorandum and Articles of Association, Annual Reports and Financial Statements, and various agendas and minutes. Opportunities are given for any new Trustee to meet with other Trustees outside the formal board meetings, and with the Chief Executive Officer.

The Trustees agree the areas of activity for the charity, including the approval of the annual budget, and both revenue and capital expenditure.

Choices Advocacy

Risk Management

The Trustees have a risk management strategy where they;

- Undertake an annual review of all the risks and uncertainties that may affect Choices.
- Establish and review policies, procedures, and systems to mitigate against identified risks that may occur.
- Review and evaluate risk management plans for management of risks that do occur.

This work identifies the need to assess the effect of funding and staffing required to provide funded services to comply with employment responsibilities within best practice timescales. Attention is also paid to non-financial risks with business continuity planning and practice based risk assessments for all activities.

Public benefit

The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit, and consider that the activities undertaken by the charity met the principles under that guidance.

Designated funds have been set up and are for the purposes as described in note 8.

All about our work

Volunteers

We are very lucky to have committed volunteers and we would like to say a very big “thank you” for all that they do.

Who we worked together with in 2021-2022

We worked with speakeasy and Havant & East Hants Mind on a 6-month Lottery funded project to support people who fall between the gaps. 231 people were supported across Hampshire.

Choices have continued to be an effective local point of contact for service users and professionals in signposting to the correct advocacy pathway we have signposted over 100 calls this year. We have continued to highlight these to the current provider who took over statutory advocacy in April 2020 so Choices could be free to support more people.

The Trustees' report

The Trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2022. All of the information on pages 1 to 6 forms part of this report, which also serves as the Directors' report for the purposes of company law.

Choices Advocacy is a company limited by guarantee and is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. The liability of the members is limited by their guarantee. This means that if the company is wound up in a year that they are a member, or the following, members undertake to contribute an amount, but not more than £1.

After approval of the financial statements, they will be filed at Companies House.

What we did, what we achieved and how we performed as the charity

To continue to support people locally who have a disability.

Choices had continued to support people locally we have been able to provide a local point of contact for both service users and professionals to ensure people have been directed to the correct Advocacy pathway.

Apply and secure funding to fill the gaps in advocacy provision.

Choices have continued to seek funding on our own or as part of a Hampshire wide Bid with our partners at Hampshire Advocacy, Speakeasy and Havant & East Hants Mind. We continue to work closely in partnership to seek funding to fill the gaps in advocacy provision.

Continue to use our expertise in self Advocacy and co-production to ensure service users have their voice heard.

We continue to do this by running the SAY group, who continue to give their views on items to Hampshire. This year we have also support Women with a learning disability to given their views on Cervical screening so that health professional can hear people experiences and make improvements to the service.

Financial review

The charity, whilst reliant on service agreements, contracts and grant income, is in a sound financial position and able to continue its work in accordance with its charitable aims.

Since the year-end the charity has continued to secure income from the local authorities to fund projects and have funding in place to the end of the financial year. The Trustees have prepared cash flow forecasts that demonstrate that there are adequate cash resources at 31 March 2022, but at present, the Trustees are unclear of future funding so will funded work in order to be around post pandemic to be able to seek funding. As part of their requirements to review the period for the next twelve months, the Trustees are confident that such funding can be secured and accordingly the accounts have been prepared on the 'going concern' basis.

Choices Advocacy

Reserves policy

At 31st March 2022, the charity had free reserves amounting to £696,590. Of this amount, £0 has been designated by the Trustees for specific purposes. The remaining balance is to cover some of the 2022/2023 expenditure, which is in accordance with guidance issued by the Charity Commission.

Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note.

Going concern

Since the year end the charity has continued to secure income from the local authorities to fund projects and have funding in place to the end of the financial year. The Trustees have prepared cash flow forecasts that demonstrate that there are adequate cash resources to 31 March 2022 but at present, the trustees are still awaiting confirmation of funding for the period beyond that date. As part of their requirements to review the period for the next twelve months, the Trustees are confident that such funding can be secured and accordingly the accounts have been prepared on the going concern basis.

Irrecoverable VAT is charged against the category of resources expended for which it was incurred.

Governance costs comprise all costs involving the public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice.

Tangible fixed assets

Assets with a value of £750 or less are not now capitalised.
