Major changes made during the year

At the beginning of June, Miss Grace Sanders left the post of Assistant Shop Manager and it remained vacant for the rest of the year.

Structure, governance and management

The Trust's governing document is a Trust Deed dated 12th June, 1997 as amended on 9th December, 2019 to allow the Charity to change its name from New Creation Christian Book and Coffee Shop to Lighthouse Christian Books and Café. This constitutes the charity as a Trust. Any new Trustee is selected by existing Trustees.

The charity's organisational structure and relationship with any related parties.

The overall management of the charity is carried out by the Trustees while the day-to-day running is carried out by the shop's Manager, and when we have one, the Deputy/Café Manager.

The Trustees are responsible for:

- 1 managing the assets of the Trust, which include the furnishings and equipment in the shop, café, kitchen, office and storage areas;
- 2 the lease and liaising with the landlords about the condition of the building (the landlords are responsible for external repairs to the property);
- 3 maintain the internal parts of the property, including repairs and decorations, etc.;
- 4 financial resources.

The Manager and Deputy/Café Manager are together responsible for:

- 1 the day to day running of the Trust's business;
- 2 stock control;
- 3 supervising the team of volunteers.

The shop's Manager deals mainly with the book shop while the Deputy/Café Manager deals mainly with the café although they will deputise for each other when necessary.

The Trustees usually meet regularly (approximately every two months) as a Management Committee and the Manager and Deputy/Café Manager will attend the meeting as necessary (at least for part of the meeting). Following prayer together, they review the immediate past performance, the current situation and decide on any future development.

If any matters turn up between meetings these are normally dealt with by email and ratified at the next meeting. As the premises are rented the Trustees keep in contact with the landlords as to the condition of the building.

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objectives of the charity as set out in its governing document:

To advance the Christian faith, in particular by the distribution of Bibles and other Christian literature and of other Christian goods; and such other charitable purposes as the Trustees shall determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objectives:

The Charity was established to provide Christian resources for members of Tiverton and district churches and fellowships, Sunday Schools and Youth Fellowships; as an outreach to the people of the area and to spread the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ to the general public.

It fulfils these aims by running a book shop and café in Tiverton, which is normally open five and a half days a week.

The book shop stocks Christian books, CDs, DVDs, greetings cards and other gifts, including fair-traded goods. Wherever possible, our stock is obtained from Christian suppliers and most of it carries some form of Christian message. There is also a second-hand book section selling Christian books, CDs and DVDs that have been donated.

The café supplies hot and cold drinks, all day snacks and light lunches. Most of the food is prepared and cooked on the premises. As well as an in-doors seating area, there is the Harbour, a courtyard behind the shop, which can be used by the café's customers when the weather is suitable.

The Charity also attends external events, such as the Mid-Devon Show, and will visit local churches and other events, when invited, to provide a stand selling books and other goods.

There is a Room Downstairs which is available for individuals or groups to use, free of charge. It is used for various meetings during the year. It is also the location of the second-hand book section and provides an overflow area for the café.

The charity also provides a place of opportunity for Christian service in the bookshop and café, a sanctuary and place of refreshment for body, mind and spirit, a place of prayer, an outlet for Fairtrade goods and, wherever possible, monetary support for other Christian Charities and ventures.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year:

Finally, after two years of various government lock-downs and other restrictions, including "social distancing", due to Covid-19, we were looking forward to a full year's trading in 2022. We were hopping to get back to normal and complete our first full year in our new premises. However, for various reasons it did not go quite to plan.

It is therefore difficult to compare the year's trading with previous years for the following reasons:

Trustees' Annual Report

For the period 1st January, 2022 to 31st December, 2022

1. it was only the third full year of trading in the new premises, and the previous two years had been disrupted due to Covid-19;
2. during the Covid-19 outbreak, some of our customers had resorted to buying from the internet and not all returned to buying from us again after the end of all restrictions;
3. despite the lifting of all restriction and the reduction in the number of people being infected with Covid-19, some customers, especially at the beginning of the year, were still reluctant to mingle with other people;
4. the invasion of Ukraine by Russia in February cause a sharp rise in energy costs which fuelled an exceptional jump in inflation, to over 10%. This had a knock-on effect to our costs and also affected the spending power of our customers.

Trading was slower than hoped for, and we ended the year with a deficit of £11,813 (the accounts are set out on pages 7 and 8). During the year we had to put the cafe prices up quite considerable to match inflation. We were able to meet the deficit out of the charity's reserves. The Trustees thank God that in previous years He has supplied a surplus of income that has allowed us to continue trading during this difficult year. We believe that as long as He wants the shop to continue trading in Tiverton He will provide for our financial needs, but we also realise that we have a responsibility to make sure that the business is run as efficiently as possible.

We, the Trustees, give thanks to the employees who not only carry out their duties but go over and beyond what they are employed to do. And we also give thanks to the many volunteers who help in so many ways, serving in the shop, waiting in the café and working in the kitchen.

Next, we give thanks to the many local people who support us by using the book shop and café, giving donations and praying for the work.

Lastly, we would like to give glory to the Lord, who has watched over first New Creation and now Lighthouse for the last 35 years, providing all their needs.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves:

As part of their area of responsibility, the Trustees have established a Reserve Policy requiring reserves of approximately six months expenses, and this has been calculated as £25,000.00.

At present the charity has excess of this in its reserves.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF LIGHTHOUSE CHRISTIAN BOOKS AND CAFÉ

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022 which are set out on pages 7 and 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
