East London Community Law Service (a company limited by guarantee but without a share capital)

Name, registered office and constitution of the charity

The full name of the charity is	East London Community Law Service (ELCLAS)
Date of Incorporation	08/09/1997
Company registration Number	3370871
Registered Office	Dahir Community House, 702 High Road Leyton, London E10, 6JP
Charity Registration Number	1064266

Objectives and Activities

- We provide free advice; information and representation to asylum seekers, migrants and others on matters of housing, debt, and welfare benefits hate crime domestic violence, education, training and employment.
- We work to help provide relief of poverty of asylum seekers, refugees, migrants and other members of the community with restricted income who are resident in the borough by providing free and confidential advice, assistance, counselling, translation and Interpretation service in matters of money, debt, welfare benefits , housing health, training and employment.

Review of Activities

East London Community Law Service is facing some difficult challenges financially in the coming year. This year, with the loss of the Jubilee Centre and a lack of funding, we have seen a significant decrease in our generated income.

However, we have been able to show a positive balance in our bank accounts after so many years of financial struggle and this is thanks to the Job retention scheme and letting some of our facilities to provide the much-needed funds for continuing the work we do for the Refugees and Migrants in the borough.

The highlight of this tax year is that the long term outstanding debt with pension trust has finally been settled which will give the organisation a clean slate.

The demand for our services has continued to grow even though we do not have a full contingent of staff but our sterling staff with the help of volunteers has coped reasonably well this year. But the organisation is still struggling to find support for our work.

Our Multicultural Advice Service (MASC) is still operating essentially on a voluntary basis and now includes signposting cases to Citizens Advice bureaux and Victim support in cases where specialist skills are required. Our future plan for funding some level of activity continue to include, asking our partners in the consortium to share our office facilities to increase their contribution to our costs while we continue to seek funding.

Financial Review

The financial results this year shows a decline in state of affairs, the charity recorded a deficit of £3,113 compared to a surplus of £24,735 in (2020/2021) this was mainly due to settling the long term debt with Pension Trust.

So there is a real financial test ahead

The Management Committee is now beginning to look more optimistic about the future of the organisation with the lifting of Covid restriction.

Achievement and Performance of the Charity

Due to the government restriction during some period of this tax year, The charity was able to advice over 550 clients covering a wide range of ethnic origins, age, sex, religion and disability either face to face or over the phone and signposting.

We assisted asylum seekers and migrant either from the EU or other countries from the day they arrive into the UK in applying for support (National Asylum Support Services) and Welfare benefit according to their circumstances and we were able to achieve a lot of success in securing both accommodation and subsistence support for them.

We assisted clients who were granted refugee status and economic migrants in their difficult transitional period by applying for the right benefits that they are eligible for while waiting to get jobs where they are found fit to work, the total financial amount gained in all the claims we submitted on their behalf was above £80,459 according to our AIMS software generated report. Thanks to the outstanding efforts of our frontline volunteers advisers, we were successful in securing temporary accommodation for 9 client threatened either with homelessness or evictions and easing debt problems for others through securing easy payment plan.

Life in the borough continue to be a struggle not only for migrants and refugees but also for residents finding it hard to meet day to day commitments and we think the local authority could do more to alleviate unnecessary suffering

The Board also wish to extend thanks to our volunteers whose work has enabled the organisation to continue its services with a very acceptable level of efficiency.

Trustee's responsibilities in relation to the financial Statements:

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the financial year and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure for the financial year. In doing so the trustees are required to:

- 1, Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- 2, Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- 3, Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business. The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985.

The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the trustees on 20th sept 22 and signed on their behalf

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustee of East London Community Law Services

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of East London Community Law Services for the year ended 31 March 2022 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and the related notes.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustee you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011('the Act'). The trustee considers that an audit is not required for this year under the Charities Act 2011, s.144 (2) (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

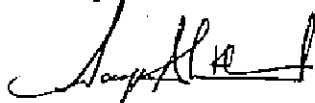

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I can confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
