Given the lack of grant income and the variability of farmers' financial positions between years and the affordability therefore of adequate training, the Trustees consider it prudent to maintain a level of reserves comparable to the annual incoming resources.

1. Accounting Policies

The Trustees have decided to simplify the accounting procedures and the accounts are now prepared on a receipts and payments basis.

The Treasurer and the Secretary were the only Trustees to be paid for services rendered to the Charity. In the case of the Secretary, the remuneration includes for services rendered as Training Officer and for conducting courses in agronomy.
