Trustees Report

FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31 March 2023

As at 31.3.2023 there were three Trustees: Ms Verona Feurtado, Dione McDonald and Arthur Torrington. The activities of the Charity were as follows:

Designing and delivering heritage projects, programmes and initiatives that highlight African and Caribbean peoples' contributions to Britain's public services, the Arts, commerce, and other areas of socio-economic and cultural life in Britain and the Commonwealth. It was the first organisation in 1995 set up to commemorate annually the arrival of West Indian men and women on the Empire Windrush at Tilbury Docks, Essex, on 22 June 1948. The London-based organisation also promotes good race and community relations, builds social cohesion, works to eliminate all discrimination, campaigns for equality of opportunity for everyone - placing particular emphasis on addressing issues of 'race'/'ethnicity' and cultural diversity.

There has been no contribution to political parties or such purposes.
