DIRECTORS' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED

31 March 2025

As at 31.03.2025, there were three Directors: Verona Feurtado, Dione McDonald and Arthur Torrington.

The activities of the company were as follows:

Designing and delivering heritage projects, programmes and initiatives that highlight African and Caribbean peoples' contributions to communities, public services, the Arts, commerce, other areas of socio-economic and cultural life in Britain and the Commonwealth. Windrush Foundation has been the organisation in 1995 that created the annual commemorations of Windrush Day and celebrated the West Indian people who arrived on the ship Empire Windrush at Tilbury Docks, Essex, on 22 June 1948. The London-based organisation also promotes good race and community relations, builds social cohesion, strengthens identity, works to eliminate all discrimination, campaigns for equality of opportunity for everyone - placing particular emphasis on addressing issues of 'race'/'ethnicity' and cultural diversity. We preserve and conserve the heritage of the Windrush Generation.

Details of Windrush products and services delivered by 31 March 2025 are shown on www.windrushfoundation.com Also, Windrush Education Resources published by the organisation can be downloaded free of charge.

There has been no contribution to political parties or such purposes.
