Independent Examiner

Graeme O'Callaghan ACA

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

Examine the accounts (under section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act);

Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under Section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and

State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as the management committee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements. |
| | · To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act and |
| | · To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with |
| | the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have been met: or |
| 2 | to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached |

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help.

The review also helps us ensure our aim, objectives and activities remained focused on our stated purposes. We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aim and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

We have continued to work on repairing our building during this year and as such, the charity has recorded a deficit during the year of £9,465. This was due to significant repairs being carried out.
