Our Objectives - Why What We Do Matters

“Arts and music education are not merely ‘extras’, but central to who we are.”
- Barack Obama

Music plays a key role in the lives of most people, particularly adolescents.

Evidence shows that children who experience high quality musical training have advantages across all school subjects and that participation in music

- enhances positive attitudes towards school, leading to
- higher attendance,
- increased motivation and
- improved behaviour.

The Music Centre provides an important, complementary service that encourages children to continue enjoying and benefitting from their playing.

We believe that group music making, amongst people of all backgrounds, offers the opportunity to

- engage in wider cultural experiences,
- explore new ideas,
- broaden experience and
- encourage tolerance.

Our data shows that some young people stay with us for as long as 10 years, demonstrating that The Music Centre is an important part of their lives through childhood and adolescence. Playing in an ensemble contributes to feelings of

- social inclusion,
- self-confidence and
- aspiration.

Our members learn about

- teamwork,
- communication and
- relating to others in a positive way.

But above all else, The Music Centre allows children to have fun.

The National Plan for Music Education

“When young people make music together, they work toward a common goal that has the potential to change lives profoundly for the better.” - The National Plan for Music Education

Through its collaboration with the Devon and Torbay Music Education Hub, The Music Centre is engaged in delivering some aspects of the National Plan.

- In providing a variety of ensembles, we ensure that children have an opportunity to make music with others, and that music education is supported outside schools.
- Our concerts provide an opportunity for children to perform regularly.
- By offering ensembles of varying standard, we give children the opportunity to progress along clearly signposted routes.
- We guide young people to other live music making opportunities. More experienced members have played with county ensembles and with Torbay Symphony Orchestra.
- Our bursaries and subsidies help children from all backgrounds to learn to play, and to progress, by making our ensembles affordable.
- Older members provide inspiring role models for younger ones.
- We ensure all members can learn from specialist instrumental teachers, and that enhanced experiences are available through providing access to specialist ensembles and instruments.
- The use of specialists ensures that our teaching is of a high quality.
- Through us, Hubs can deliver an offer that reaches beyond school boundaries and draws on additional expertise.
- We allow children to experience a range of musical genres and activities and stretch their boundaries.

- We provide teaching and progression routes beyond what individual schools can offer. These experiences can be broader and more challenging.
- These opportunities are not one-offs; they allow for continuous and ongoing progression.
- Residential weekends and attendance at specialist events allow our members to benefit from expert tuition, and to experience high quality playing at large scale events, at prestigious venues and with professional musicians.
- Our feedback demonstrates that our members experience enjoyment and success through all their stages of musical learning.

And that's what matters to us the most.

The objectives of the trust are established in our declaration of trust of 14th April 1998, as varied 22nd May 2012.

The trust's purpose is the advancement of musical education in South Devon by the:

- promotion and support of music training; and
- staging of musical events for young people in the area.

Activities - What We Do

Torbay and South Devon Music Centre operate under that name and as the Peninsula Clarinet Choir. We have approximately 90 members.

The Music Centre provides an opportunity for its members to enjoy playing their instruments and improve their musical skills by performing together. Orchestras and bands are led by experienced musicians and there are opportunities to play in concerts as well as weekly rehearsals. There are groups for players of all standards and all ages, though our focus is on the under 25s.

We also offer members the chance to try new and endangered instruments (such as piccolo, cor anglais, contrabass clarinet) and to become familiar with a greater range of musical styles.

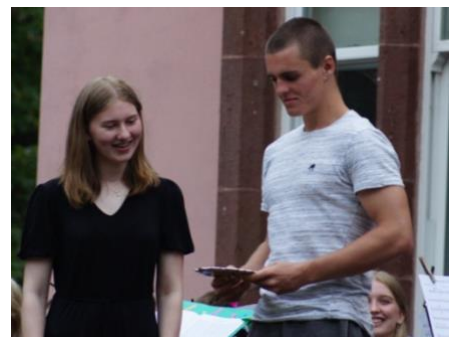

Each term's work culminates in a concert performance staged in front of a live audience. This allows all our students to play in separate ensembles and the full orchestra. Senior students experience participation in a high-quality musical production whilst the more junior members not only participate but are inspired to strive for future success and development. This year we have performed two concerts in The Centenary Hall at TBGS and one outdoor concert on The Terrace, The Old Manor House, TBGS. Our groups have also participated on the Music Hub stage at The Devon County Show and have been involved with Music For Youth events.

Annually, each group presents a prize to each outstanding member and a "Young Musician of the Year Award" is presented to the member who has made the greatest contribution to The Music Centre overall.

This year it was given to Henry who has been a member of our Reed Ensemble, Peninsula Clarinet Choir and lead clarinetist in the Music Centre Orchestra for over six years! Here he is receiving the engraved award from last years winner.

We wish Henry the very best as he leaves us to go to University and continues to play clarinet and bass clarinet.

The Peninsula Clarinet Choir draws its membership from clarinet enthusiasts across the region, meeting approximately monthly at various venues. It also holds a residential weekend with a professional masterclass and recital; and attends the single reed day at Wells Cathedral School.

Here they are on their residential at Pixies Halt, Dartmoor.

The committee is determined to ensure that as many young people as possible can access our service. To this end we

- operate a bursary system remitting subscriptions in cases of financial hardship;
- subsidise the cost of our residential weekends; and
- have adopted an equal opportunities policy.

Everyone is welcome² at The Music Centre without regard to gender, religion, sexuality, or ethnicity.

Low Membership Fees for beginner musicians.

Low membership fees are also important to us. The Music Centre is pleased to implement a scheme to support free membership for those in receipt of free school meals, funded by Devon Music Education Hub. It has also made it possible to offer subsidised membership of Fast Forward groups (for very young musicians) for £30 a term.

² “...giving children of all ages and abilities the chance to take part.”

Review of Developments and Achievements

Rehearsals, Concerts and Events

Summer Term 2023

The Devon County Show 2023

The Peninsula Clarinet Choir performed amidst the very wet weather at the Devon County Show with a great programme and super sound.

Summer Term Concert

The weather held for our outdoor end of summer term concert on the terrace at TBGS in July. With all our ensembles playing in the “picnic in the park style” venue it was a fantastic celebration of all the hard work this year by all at TSDMC.

Mid Summer Music Event 2023

This successful event again enabled children of 7-18 years to come to try orchestral instruments with our tutors giving workshops and master classes on each of the four instrument families. We had 34 children over the 2 day event. We also had some of our current members helping out with the workshops and performing in the master classes

Autumn Term 2023

Highlights of the Autumn term concert at the end of November were Fast Forward groups being joined by Kings Ash Academy violins and some of the Midsummer Music participants being presented with their Arts Discover Award by Lisa our Chair of Trustees. This was on top of all our groups playing a great programme of pieces from a wide range of composers and music genres.

Spring Term 2024

The Spring term concert highlights Thomas playing his diploma piece on Xylophone, Peninsula Clarinet Choir sharing their music with the rest of Music Centre and all our groups showing their hard work and enjoyment of music making.

Music for Youth

Our Youth Strings group was invited to perform at Coombeshead Academy, Newton Abbot on Sunday 24 March as part of the Music for Youth event.

Music for Youth is a national youth music charity working with young people aged 25 and under across the UK. Their vision is to ensure that every young person in the UK can achieve their musical potential by performing the music they love. They believe that music, and the chance to participate in high-quality musical activities, should be open to every young person. This opportunity was a positive and confidence building opportunity for the group as the feedback from the professional Music Mentors reflected the great performance they gave.

Members

Involving as many young people as possible in our work has long been a priority for the committee and we are determined to see our membership increase.

Fast Forward³

To this end we have undertaken a number of projects, including satellite groups, to reach out to primary schools in the Bay. The Music Centre has built on the success of the established “Fast Forward” group aimed at primary school children. This group has attracted very young people, learning to play musical instruments for the first time. We have been delighted to welcome these new members both to weekly rehearsals and to the termly concerts where they have done themselves proud.

³ “We really enjoy being part of the Music Centre family.”

This year this took the form of an Orchestra for All, based on our existing Fast Forward group, now held on Tuesdays after school from 4-5pm at Oldway Primary School in Paignton and our Thursdays after school in Brixham moved from Brixham College to Brixham C of E Primary. The locations gave children, who found transport to the Torquay main Music Centre, the opportunity to join us. These children joined together with the Fast Forward group from Music Centre to perform in the Summer, Autumn and Spring concerts. We continue to build on these numbers.

We are also pleased to report that a number of these younger students have progressed sufficiently to become full members of The Music Centre and join more advanced groups.

As always, our members continue to impress. Congratulations to all those who passed grade exams this year:

Arthur (drum kit), Rosie (piano), Imogen (flute), Cora Mae (piano and trombone), Will (violin), Benji (trombone), Bertie (theory), Thomas (trombone), Hannah (cello), Henry (French Horn),

Special congratulations go to members who have passed their grade 8 exams Kayleigh (flute), Matthew (cello) and Tom (violin), and Daniel (Alto Saxophone) and Hannah (flute) for passing their ARSM Diplomas.

Communication with all our members continues to be key. We have continued to develop our online membership forms and emails and social media have proved invaluable to the continuation of our provision. Future online communication and website development will be part of our plans looking forward.

Adult participation in centre activities continues, with appropriate regard to our safeguarding policy. The presence of adults strengthens the family atmosphere of the Centre, using work skills to benefit the charity. The committee is grateful for time and effort given.

Alumni News

Our congratulations and best wishes also go to former members

- Jack Oades (violin), who was the winner of the Buckfast Abbey Millennium Composition Competition;

- Ellie Kendall (flute and sax), who, as part of her master's degree, has played with the Gothenburg and Helsingborg Symphony Orchestras;

- Hannah Capstick (flute), now studying music at the University of Oxford.

"As a previous member of the Music Centre, attending for 8 years, I am full of gratitude for all the Music Centre has done to further and encourage my musical education." – Hannah Capstick

Our best wishes go to all those who are applying to university this year and wish them every success in their studies and music making.

⁴ “The dedication of the staff is wonderful...”

We would like to thank the staff for their unfailing professionalism and good-natured support throughout the year, and hope they are looking forward to the next one as much as we are.

Volunteers

Our volunteers play a vital role in the life of The Music Centre and the trustees are very grateful for all the support they receive:

- The members of the committee are an invaluable sounding board;
- Our external advisors provide expert opinion;
- The first aiders help keep our members safe;
- Our team of concert volunteers sell tickets and provide refreshments, helping create the inclusive and welcoming atmosphere that our members enjoy.

All our volunteers are a source of enthusiasm and inspiration. The trustees couldn't manage without them, and we thank them all for their important contribution. More volunteers are always welcome.

The Clatworthy Legacy

In 2014, The Music Centre was very pleased to be awarded £10,000 from the estate of the late Mr Henry Clatworthy. This sum is dedicated to promoting the playing of the oboe, and related instruments, and to this end The Music Centre⁵ provides a specialist teacher to give subsidised tuition. We are actively looking for children to take up double reed instruments.

⁵ “...what an asset we have in South Devon!” - Stover School

Conventions, Conferences and Training

TSDMC was represented at the Devon and Torbay Music Conference held at Buckfast Abbey Conference Centre and flyers were given to participating music teachers from across the area.

Training has been undertaken on communications, safeguarding and website management.

Music Centre continues to invest in DBS checks this year, not only making sure staff are checked but all of our trustees who are present at Music Centre as well. As we believe safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

Music Education Hubs

Following the restructuring of the local Music Hubs, we have been glad to continue our collaboration with the Devon Music Education Hub, working as one of their delivery partners. This relationship is strengthened by our staff members, Tom Deam and Lou Darvid being part of the board of the Hub.

The trustees would like to record their thanks to the Music Education Hub for all their support. We look forward to further collaboration in the years to come.

Financial Review - How We Spent Your Money

Expenditure

Our total expenditure for the year was £45398, slightly less than in the previous year.

As ever, staffing and premises costs form the bulk of our expenditure. We pride ourselves on the quality of our teaching, management and musicianship and make no excuse for the sums we spend. Our staff are our greatest asset.

The committee would like to thank Moira for her tireless work and all our staff for their patience during the course of the year.

Of course, our staff need a venue in which to work and, as always, premises hire has been a significant expense, this year amounting to £4158. This is a reduction due to a change of the Brixham venue and events held this year.

Of the £1388 spent on administration, governance and insurance, almost half of this cost is insurance. We appreciate the importance of protecting our members, the public and the charity's assets and take expert advice to ensure we have appropriate cover.

Income

Our total income for the year was £38475, with grants and donations (£20766) and members' subscriptions (£15183) our principal sources of funds. The committee has highlighted the lack of diversity in our income streams and addressing this risk to the charity continues to be a major focus in our risk management strategy.

The use of the gift aid scheme provides a welcome boost to our finances, and we encourage our members to sign up to the scheme whenever possible.

Our Reserves - Where We Go Next

The trust holds both restricted and unrestricted reserves as detailed in the financial statements.

Unrestricted funds are held to:

- meet costs arising at short notice, such as instrument repairs;
- cover ongoing costs incurred in running Music Centre and the Clarinet Choir, including staff fees and premises hire; and
- meet the costs of projects as directed by the trustees.

Restricted reserves have been given to meet specific areas of expenditure as described in the financial statements.

The charity holds total reserves of £92702 of which £7101 are restricted. The movement on and size of the reserves are described in the financial statements. Reserves are utilised as and when volunteers become available to undertake projects, with no fixed timescale.

Operating Costs

The trustees decided to hold our operating costs reserve at £27k to meet potential, unfunded operating costs. This represents 2 terms' costs and is intended to provide a financial breathing space if external funding is withdrawn.

Peninsula Clarinet Choir

Peninsula Clarinet Choir is expected to be financially self-supporting and generates, and spends, its own funds under the umbrella of The Music Centre.

Double Reed Playing

The Clatworthy legacy of £7101k will continue to provide opportunities for double reed playing.

Publicity and Communications

The committee is very aware that the members are the lifeblood of our organisation and that attracting new young musicians is vital. Accordingly, we set aside £5k to fund improvements to our literature and other publicity vehicles. Building on previous investments we will be looking at refreshing the website and promotional videos to be used on social media, at conferences and in schools over the next three years. Refreshing this reserve will be considered at forthcoming trustees' meetings, taking account of the current needs.

Residential Weekends

Residential weekends provide a welcome and valuable opportunity for members to spend time with like-minded friends and to focus on their playing for extended periods. They are also a forum in which young musicians can learn from, and interact with, professional players in an informal environment. The committee is keen to support these events and make them accessible to as many students as possible.

In order to make our reserves work as hard as possible for us, the committee has invested £20k in an ethical fund managed by a specialist provider. The choice of amount and the nature of the fund reflects the trustees' investment policy: £20k is sufficient to increase the diversity of our assets, without incurring excessive risk. The investment continues to increase and at present is £31850.

The Committee and Trustees - Who We Are

The Music Centre committee has a number of different elements, all working together for the furtherance of the charity's aims. The ethos has always been one of inclusive, happy and equal collaboration, something for which the trustees are very grateful.

The members of the committee during the year were:

Chair and trustee	Lisa Portch
Treasurer and trustee	Martin Hill DipPFS
Member and trustee	Elizabeth James BA(Hons) PGCE
Member and trustee	Marie Tanton M.Litt
Member and trustee	Dr Anne Fairey BM FRCP FFPM
Member and parent representative	David Spear
Member and Student representative	Daniel Spear
Member and Manager	Moira Devonport BEd (Hons)
Member and primary education representative	Louise Darvid BA(Hons) PGCE
Member and staff representative	Marina Kummer BA(Hons) Cert.Ed.
Member and secondary education representative	Graeme Hardman BA(Hons) PGCE

The committee devises the strategic direction of the trust, and the manager works under the direction of the committee. However, all responsibility for the management and conduct of the charity rests with the trustees alone.⁶

Committee members advise the trustees in their decision making, bringing a wider range of views and professional opinion to the table. No formal roles are assigned to committee members in recognition of their other responsibilities, away from The Music Centre, but their support is invaluable.

Trustees are appointed at a special meeting, serving for a period of three years. In making new appointments, the existing trustees take into account the residence, employment, occupation and specialist knowledge or personal qualifications of each candidate.

⁶ “...well led and managed and offers excellent progression opportunities...”

All the trustees and committee members give their time for free and no remuneration or expenses are paid to them. As a committee, we are always pleased to receive expressions of interest and are happy to discuss membership further.

Both the treasurer and manager report to the committee at each meeting, where members review the financial position and day-to-day running of The Music Centre. An annual budget is agreed at the start of each new financial year and used to monitor both income and expenditure as that year unfolds. The committee members make extensive use of Charity Commission guidance, and other resources, to inform their discussions and ensure they are acting in accordance with best practice and the public benefit.

Our Ethos

The committee has considered and adopted the seven principles of standards in public life or 'Nolan Principles'. These are:

- selflessness: Committee members have a duty to act in the best interest of the organisation as a whole. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, their friends or the organisations they come from or represent;
- integrity: Committee members should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might influence them in the performance of their duties;
- objectivity: In carrying out their duties, including making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, committee members should make choices on merit;
- accountability: Committee members are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public, funders and service users. They must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their role;
- openness: Committee members should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands;
- honesty: Committee members have a duty to declare any interests relating to their role and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in favour of their trustee role; and
- leadership: Committee members should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.

Risk Management

The trustees are responsible for identifying and managing risks faced by The Music Centre and are assisted in this by the committee and external advisors. At present, the areas of highest risk are considered to be:

risk	mitigated by
Safeguarding – As young people, our beneficiaries are vulnerable, and this is an ongoing risk we face. The committee fully appreciates the importance of maintaining best practice in this area.	Involvement of a qualified practitioner to advise the committee. In 2018, we undertook an in-depth review of our policy and procedures, which produced more detailed protocols. These have been communicated to both staff, beneficiaries and their parents. This is updated annually, and all staff and trustees are expected to keep up to date with policies and procedures as safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Safeguarding is also a standing item on our meeting agendas, to ensure that any issues arising are identified and addressed as soon as possible.
Over dependency on public funding – Public funding is subject to unpredictable changes in policy and direction, which are beyond our control.	The committee believes in taking a holistic and proactive approach to promoting the future viability of the charity. We have implemented a reserves policy which allows for the possibility that funding will be withdrawn. We are also actively pursuing alternative sources of income, including applying to grant making trusts. In tandem with this, the committee is building up expertise in the areas of impact measurement and evidence gathering. These tools should aid us in demonstrating our worth to current and potential supporters.
Trustee recruitment - We are conscious that, as a small body, our pool of resources is limited, and that succession planning is problematic.	Following successful appeals, we recruited three new trustees to join us in 2022. They bring welcome expertise in primary education, local music networks and grant funding opportunities. We will be appealing for more trustees this year.

All areas of significant risk are addressed on an annual basis.

During the course of the year, the committee also considered the following issues:

- communication with funders and supporters
- stakeholder feedback, including improved dialogue with our staff
- promoting the playing of 'endangered instruments'
- evidencing the charity's work and the helpfulness of measuring outcomes
- data protection, the use of digital technology and online safety
- conflicts of interest
- progression and continuation following on from a child's first access to music education
- the security of charity assets
- their policy on reserves.

External Scrutiny

The Music Centre was subject to evaluation by staff from the Devon Music Education Hub who concluded that,

'With a well-established weekly music centre, providing a variety of ensemble and progression activities, a strong offer is in place for children and young people drawn from schools across Torbay, South Devon and as far as Plymouth and Cornwall. An experienced team of specialist instrumental teachers provide high quality experiences, with many students progressing to an advanced level of ability and some choosing to pursue music further through county groups and/or further studies.'

Statement of the Responsibilities of the Trustees

The trustees are required to comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 2011 and the declaration of trust to

- keep accounting records;
- prepare annual statements of account;
- present these statements for audit or independent examination;
- prepare an annual report; and
- provide the Charity Commissioners with such information as is required by law.

Independent Examiner's Report

Independent Examiner's Report

I report to the accounts of the trust for the year ended 5th April 2024, which are set out on pages 3 to 7:

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

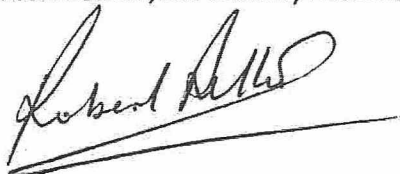

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met;
- or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the accounts

1. Accounting Policies

These accounts have been prepared on a receipts and payments basis, under the historic cost convention and in accordance with the relevant sections of the Charities Act 2011.

The accounting policies have been applied consistently throughout the current and previous periods.

Depreciation

Provision for depreciation of fixed assets is made at the following rates based on the estimated useful life of these assets and their residual value:

Instruments	5% of cost per annum
Vehicles and other equipment	25% of cost per annum

Tuck shop stocks

Stocks for resale and valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Unrestricted and restricted funds

Unrestricted funds consist of the general purposes fund and designated funds. Designated funds are funds established by the committee from time to time for specific projects or purposes and are not in any way restricted. Any surplus or deficit will be transferred to/from the general purposes fund when the designated fund is closed.

Restricted funds are funds subject to specific restrictions imposed by the donors or by the purposes of the appeal.

We charged subscriptions for 3 full terms in 2023-24.

4. Concert Proceeds

Concert proceeds were higher for this year due in part to higher Fast Forward participation from WCET local school musician group participation after tuition and are included in these accounts.
