- contribution made by volunteers.

Fulfilment of the Charity's objects is assisted by the voluntary contributions of members of the Village Sports Clubs. These contributions include some pitch and pavilion maintenance and assistance with raising funds.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- The Playing Field committee continues to work hard in partnership with the sports clubs. All clubs are able to offer coaching and continue to excel in their leagues as a result
- An ongoing maintenance programme has been managed by the Playing Field Committee to ensure that the facilities continue to be fit for purpose.
- The trustees have agreed to begin the plans for rebuilding the pavilion having formed a working group who will report back to the trustees.
- The Honeybees nursery school continues to enjoy the facilities and continues to be a popular pre-school choice with residents in the village
- A children's activity club was held in August which was well supported and appreciated by local parents.
- Maintenance investment in the playpark and repairs and upkeep to the skatepark have taken place. Further repairs to the pavilion taken place to keep maintained.
