Objects of the charity:	The advancement of the Christian Faith

In particular, Time Out Mission International is committed to

1. Assist better quality of life especially for poor peoples of the world. This is through training and support of agricultural and business forums. These forums encourage a greater sense of community and helping one another, as well as the means to provide education and training in low cost, effective practical farming techniques, which are accessible to even the poorest peoples.
2. To promote unity and cooperation in the Body of Christ in transforming communities
3. To raise awareness of the Church's bridal identity and the coming of the Lord Jesus as the Bridegroom King;

Summary of activities during the year include ongoing support for key ministries and individuals in various places around the world but in particular Africa. Teaching through conferences and seminars, and the support and development of agricultural forums in rural communities in East Africa. The overall emphasis of all activities has been in accordance with meeting the charity's objects by advancing the Christian Faith, promoting unity across denominations, raising awareness of the Church's bridal identity, and promoting better quality of life amongst the poor.

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 4 of the 2006 Act having due regard on guidance on Public Benefit issued by The Charity Commission.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

I report on the financial statements of the Trust for the year ended 31 August 2022, which are set out on pages 3 to 5.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("The Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or,
- the accounts do not accord with those records; or,
- the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements concerning form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of my examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
