KOL YA'AKOV EDGWARE TRUST

CHARITY REGISTRATION NUMBER: 1072715

TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT

for the financial year ended 31 July 2023

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year to 31 July 2023

Address

The principal address of the charity is 47 Mowbray Road, Edgware, Middlesex, HA8 8JL

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity is governed by a trust deed and is registered with the Charity Commission under number 1072715.

The trustees, who meet at regular intervals, administer the charity and manage the day to day operations.

Trustees

The trustees during the year were:

Mr. Aryeh Royde

Mr. Julian Yehuda Teller

Mr. Samuel Rosenthal

Objectives and Activities

The principal activity and objective of the charity is to advance the Jewish faith and observance. This is achieved by providing a synagogue, religious study and education facilities available to the Edgware Jewish community and the wider community, as well as support for families and anyone facing difficulties.

Achievements and Performance

During this financial period under review, the charity continued to maintain the synagogue facilities and prayer services available to the community.

During the period, the charity raised funds by way of donations and the charity will continue to raise further funds to meet the ongoing running costs of the synagogue and its programs. Arrangements are in place to support the needy and unemployed in various ways. For example, cooked meals are provided for the sick and for families where the mother has given birth. The charity continues to rely entirely on the voluntary work undertaken by members of the Jewish community. All fundraising and administration is done without payment of any kind.

Financial Review

During the period, the total income credited to the SOFA was £120,799 (£91,435 – 2022) which included gift aid tax repayments of £6,068. An amount of £90,652 (£64,683 – 2022) was expended towards the day to day running costs of the synagogue and £29,749 (£31,835 – 2022) was paid in donations and support for the needy. The amount held in reserve of £9,978 is expected to be sufficient to meet forthcoming expenditure.

Trustee responsibilities statement

The trustees are responsible for preparing the trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law accounting standards.

The law applicable to charities requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period.

In preparing these accounts, the trustees are required to;

- ~ select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- ~ make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent, '
- ~ follow applicable accounting standards and the Charities SORP, disclosing and explaining any departures in the accounts and

- ~ prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose the reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and reports) Regulations, and the provisions of the Trust Deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees annual report was approved on 11 March 2024 and signed on behalf of the trustees by:

Aryeh Royde - Trustee

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Kol Ya'akov Edgware Trust

I report on the accounts of the trust for the year ended 31 July 2023, which are set out on pages 3-5.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act;

and

to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act.

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
