Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The past year and seen our church planting consultants building on the relationships they have enjoyed, some over many years. Due to logistics, they have had a couple of their international team meetings on Zoom but managed to get to Switzerland in the autumn which was a good time of connection and mutual encouragement. The giftings in this team complement one another well and it was good to talk, pray and wrestle through some of the challenges faced by each of them in their spheres of influence. The consultants also travelled to France to spend time with 'old' teammates and were privileged to engage with some of the people they have been working with as they seek to establish communities of Jesus followers in rural areas on the Italian border. A trip to Northern Ireland provided time with a family they discipled in Bath with whom they are in regular contact. Establishing a Kingdom business network has been enormously beneficial. This reaches as far as Burundi and, more recently, Dubai. They hope to multiply this in the southern hemisphere in the next season. Their input in Bath continues in various guises, particularly in mentoring a world leader in trauma recovery. Once again, they have spent time in Plymouth and, when they are stretched logistically regarding travel, there have been many hours spent on WhatsApp / FaceTime / Zoom calls as well as preparing for these in seeking God through prayer and fasting. A considerable amount of time was still spent in South Africa where connections have expanded. It has been a gratifying year of seeing a number of people mature in their faith as well as coaching them through some particularly difficult challenges. The family we support in Burundi are continuing to partner with two local ministries called Yada Burundi and Hope for Tomorrow Global, whose actions include agricultural training, constructing secure low-cost homes, discipleship groups, Bible distribution, teaching and preaching, vocational training, giving nutritional and healthcare support. Alongside these organisations, Nathan has been developing a programme called Rebuild Restore, building a small team

	which works with some of the poorest and most vulnerable communities in Burundi – mainly building homes, community facilities, at the same time developing local vocational skills, and sharing the transforming Gospel of Jesus Christ. Nathan and Sarah are also leading three house groups in their home, where many local leaders gather, and have a place to grow spiritually. The holistic work is all for building God's kingdom across Burundi - breaking the cycles of poverty both physically and spiritually. We have continued to support individuals in Kenya with resources for House Churches. The church planter who had spent 5 years in Kenya and Uganda continues to support the house churches they had planted to provide advice and support by Zoom or other social media. It is hoped they may be able to visit again next year.

Independent Examiner's Report

I report on the accounts for the year ended 28 February 2025 set out in the attached CC16a Receipts and Payments account.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and - to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Statement of Financial Activities

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

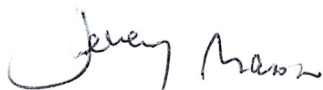

Notes to the Financial Statements

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or

2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

He met with a number of leaders in Cape Town who had travelled from the UK, Amsterdam and USA. In the UK he worked in Andover, Bath, Plymouth, Sherborne and Woking. Training continued with Zoom calls to USA, Canada, Zimbabwe, Northern Ireland, Burundi, South Africa and various hubs around the UK, including Plymouth and Bath as in previous years. The family we support in Burundi engage with local ministries, partnering with three main organisations (Yada Burundi, Igniting Communities for Jesus (ICJ), and Hope for Tomorrow Global), all for the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and building God's kingdom across Burundi. The primary focus of the work is discipleship and developing lasting improvements in the lives of the beneficiaries of the organisations. Continuing activities include developing and building sustainable low-cost housing and other necessary infrastructure for some of the poorest in Burundi, as well as assisting the organisations with communications, financial training, community support and crisis response - all to break the cycles of poverty both physically and spiritually. We have continued to support individuals in Kenya with University fees and resources for House Churches. In addition this year we provided financial support to a church planter to revisit House Churches in Kenya and Uganda they had planted to provide advice and support. This included a two-day conference with teams from Uganda and Kenya. One team was from Northern Uganda, where a movement has started among the Karamajong people. (The Karamajong are a nomadic tribe of herdsmen who are notorious for raiding villages and stealing cattle!) Uganda is seeing incredible multiplication of simple organic churches in many districts. He also visited several house churches and prayer groups to encourage them.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Post-Covid, travel has been a lot easier for our consultant with seven-eight months spent in Southern Africa, and one in Canada and the USA. These have all been fruitful. The remaining months based in the UK included Zoom training calls to USA, Canada, Zimbabwe, Northern Ireland, Burundi, South Africa and various hubs around the UK, including Plymouth and Bath. There has been an increase in the amount of coaching and connection with business start-ups, mentoring leaders and entrepreneurs with the nuts and bolts of putting true Kingdom principles into practice within faith communities. In South Africa, this has included an opportunity to mentor Jesus-loving candidates involved in the political landscape (elections are in May 2024). The couple we support in Burundi engage with local ministries, partnering with three main organisations (New Generation, Igniting Communities for Jesus & Hope for Tomorrow Global), all for the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and building God's kingdom across Burundi. The primary focus of the work is discipleship and developing lasting improvements in the lives of the beneficiaries of the organisations. Continuing activities include developing and building sustainable low cost housing for some of the poorest in Burundi, assisting the organisations with communications, financial training, providing materials for children's education, community support and crisis response - all to break the cycles of poverty both physically and spiritually. We have continued to support individuals in Kenya with University fees and resources for House Churches.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The Statement of Financial Activities shows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a net outflow of unrestricted funds of £2,647 (2022 - Inflow - £2,291) resulting in a deficit on the unrestricted funds at 28 February 2023 of £84 (2022 – Surplus of £2,564). The deficit was due to a late balancing payment and was rectified in the first month of the new FY. • a net outflow of restricted funds of £84 (2022 - Inflow - £2,121) resulting in a surplus on the restricted funds at 28 February 2023 of £3,421 (2022 – Surplus of £3,505).
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Impact Network has a formal reserves policy. It is based on the following context: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The income for the Trust is consistent. That is, the income is all from individual or local church donations and the majority is by direct debit or standing order. In the past additional donations have always been made for additional or exceptional specific objectives if an appeal is made to churches. • Costs can be controlled, as they are associated with the mission activities of the Trust and can be substantially reduced or curtailed by reducing those activities. • Additional work or commitments are not undertaken unless the financial support for them has been identified and pledged or implemented. The policy states that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Given the above context the reserves should be kept to a minimum and at no time exceed approximately one month's current expenditure. If the reserves do start to exceed that amount then additional opportunities for mission or of helping those in need at home or abroad should be found. The only

Independent Examiner's Report

I report on the accounts for the year ended 28 February 2023 set out in the attached CC16a Receipts and Payments account.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and - to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Statement of Financial Activities

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Notes to the Financial Statements

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or

2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The continuing travel restrictions during the global pandemic curtailed travel abroad until February 2022, when our consultant was able to visit South Africa again. Until this time a great deal of training and interaction happened by Zoom both at home and abroad. When UK travel was permitted again in 2021, it was fruitful. He continued to give input into faith communities in England and Northern Ireland and deliver training and mentoring to individuals. One team from overseas was able to make a visit to the UK. Zoom was used for other teams, and he kept in touch with contacts in 8 other countries. Our consultant also spoke to a conference in Johannesburg via Zoom.
		The couple we support in Burundi moved there in April 2021 and time, finances and support has been given to local church leaders and three partner organisations (New Generation, Igniting Communities for Jesus & Bravo Ministries), all for the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and building God's kingdom across Burundi. The primary focus of the work is discipleship and developing lasting improvements in the lives of the clients of the organisations. The target groups of the partner organisations are the rural poor, street connected children, young people, and church leaders. Ongoing activities have included setting up agricultural cooperatives, skills training, healthcare provision, paying school fees, building houses, bible distribution, pastor training, discipleship courses and outreach events - all to break the cycles of poverty both physically and spiritually.
		Some small grants were made from the Kenya fund for an operation on the son of one of the pastors we are in contact with and to help with living costs for a disabled student at university. A larger grant was made for the first year university fees of two orphans who were being brought up by another of the pastors.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 28 February 2022 set out in the attached CC16a Receipts and Payments account.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and - to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

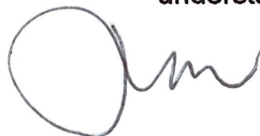

Basis of the independent examiners report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.
