TREASURES IN HEAVEN TRUST
TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT
(INCORPORATING DIRECTORS' REPORT)
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2023

The directors, who are the charity's trustees for the purposes of charity law, have pleasure in submitting the Report and Accounts for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Objects of the charity

The charity is a charitable company and is governed by its memorandum and articles of association. The principal object of the charity is to promote the Christian faith, in accordance with its Statement of Beliefs, in the United Kingdom or such other parts of the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit.

Review of Activities and Future Developments

Max and Sue Sinclair, assisted by part time office staff, carry out the main work. Some 200 Prayer Partners assist the Trust through prayer and finance, and a number of voluntary, unpaid persons perform administrative, organisational and direct charitable functions for the Trust.

During 2023 Max and Sue continued to focus on activities within their local village parish and this is the pattern that is likely to continue during 2024, the final year of the Trust.

Last year the trustees wrote to supporters informing them of their intention, in view of Max and Sue's age, to wind up the charity by 2025, and asking them for their continued support until that time. We are confident that the charity will continue to be able to meet its obligations for the coming year.

The charity relies entirely on voluntary donations, and unpaid volunteers when necessary. It has continued to keep in touch with its Prayer Partners through regular newsletters to update supporters with news of activities.

In planning the activities the Trustees have applied the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission.

Financial review

The accounts for the year reveal a deficit of £980 (previous year: surplus of £412). This was due to a modest increase in expenditure in line with inflation, while overall donations (including the pre-planned donations from Max that were noted in last year's report) remained at much the same level as the previous year.

With Max and Sue drawing no salary, we anticipate that overall donations in 2024 will be sufficient to enable the current bank balance to be gradually run down in a managed fashion before the Trust is wound up..

Reserves

The Trustees of the Charity have established a formal Reserves Policy. Free reserves (defined as the balance of the General Fund excluding tangible fixed assets) of £7,768 were held by the Company at 31 December 2023 against future expenditure from the General Fund.

The financial policy of the Company is to ensure that no general expenditure commitments are made for which funds are not already available.

Further, in order to provide for continuity of activities, the Trustees have considered it prudent to maintain free reserves equivalent to 3-6 months of expenditure from the General Fund. Free reserves at 31 December 2023 represented 3.5 months of 2023 expenditure.

In view of the intention to wind up the trust by 2025, the trustees expect to see reserves being substantially reduced over the coming year but consider the current level to be adequate to ensure that the Company is able to meet its obligations in a timely manner.

(INCORPORATING DIRECTORS' REPORT)

Key risks and uncertainties

The charity is exposed to various risks - be they operational, financial or reputational. The trustees review the charity's activities regularly to identify significant risks and, where possible, they take appropriate measures to mitigate those risks.

Governance and Internal Control

The Trustees and Company Secretary monitor the Charity's day-to-day activities. Board Meetings are held regularly, along with informal discussions and meetings.

Company and Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of the surplus or deficit of the Charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees have:

- selected suitable accounting policies and then applied them consistently;
- made judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The Trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring the Charity has an appropriate system of controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities and to provide reasonable assurance that:

- the Charity is operating efficiently and effectively;
- its assets are safeguarded against unauthorised use or disposition;
- proper records are maintained and financial information used within the Charity or for publication is reliable; and
- the Charity complies with relevant laws and regulations.

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. They include:

- the day-to-day availability of the expertise of Chartered Accountants;
- regular consideration by the Trustees of financial results and activities;
- delegation of authority and, where possible, segregation of duties; and identification and management of risks.

('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2023 on pages 5 to 9 following, which have been prepared on the basis of the accounting policies set out on page 7.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1 Statutory Information

The charity is a charitable company limited by guarantee and is incorporated in the United Kingdom. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2 Accounting Policies

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, under the historical cost convention.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the "Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) ("the Charities SORP"), with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland ("FRS 102"), with the Companies Act 2006 and with the Charities Act 2011. The charity meets the definition of a public benefit entity as set out in FRS 102.

The principles adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below.

a) Going concern

The trustees (who are the charitable company's directors for the purposes of company law) have assessed whether the use of the going concern basis is appropriate and have considered possible events or conditions that might cast significant doubt on the ability of the charity to continue as a going concern. The trustees plan that the charity will cease to operate from 1 January 2025 but after considering the charity's forecasts and projections and the possible implications should projected income and / or expenditure vary unexpectedly, the trustees have concluded that there is a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue to operate until that point. The trustees have reviewed the assets of the charity and do not believe any impairment is necessary. The charity therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

b) Income

Income including investment income is recognised in the period in which the charity becomes entitled to receipt, the amount receivable can be measured with reasonable certainty, and receipt is probable. For the most part, income is generally recognised when it is received. Income is only deferred when the charity has to fulfil conditions before becoming entitled to it or where the donor has specified that the income is to be expended in a future period.

Income from donations includes:

- i) Recoverable gift aid. This is recognised when the related donation is received. Gift aid that has not been recovered by the balance sheet date is included as a debtor.

The charity relies on volunteers to carry out many of its activities, however, in accordance with the SORP, the value of these services has not been included in these financial statements as they cannot be reliably measured.

c) Expenditure

Expenditure, including irrecoverable VAT, is recognised when it is incurred or, if earlier, when a legal or constructive obligation for a payment arises provided that it is probable that settlement will be required and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

The charity makes grants to other institutions and individuals to further its charitable objectives. Grants payable are recognised as constructive obligations arise, which is generally when the charity expresses a commitment to the recipient that can be measured reliably and then only to the extent that any conditions associated with the grant are outside of the control of the charity.

The cost of raising funds is not significant and has not been separately disclosed.

Governance costs, which are included in expenditure on charitable activities but are identified separately in the notes to the accounts, includes costs associated with the independent examination of the financial statements, compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements and any other expenditure incurred on the strategic management of the charity.

d) Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity. Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. Restricted funds are donations which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors; they include donations received from appeals for specific activities or projects. Endowment funds are donations that are retained as capital in accordance with the donor's wishes. The nature of the restriction determines whether the endowments represent permanent endowments or expendable endowments.

e) Pension scheme arrangements

The charity operates defined contribution pension schemes for its employees. Obligations for contributions to these schemes are recognised as an expense when the liability arises. The assets of these schemes are held separately from those of the charity in independently administered funds.

f) Taxation

The company is a registered charity; it has taken advantage of the various reliefs from taxation available to charities and no tax is payable on the charity's income.

g) Exemption from preparing a cashflow statement

The charity has taken advantage of an exemption conferred by the Charities SORP and has not prepared a cash flow statement.

TREASURES IN HEAVEN TRUST
TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT
(INCORPORATING DIRECTORS' REPORT)

The directors, who are the charity's trustees for the purposes of charity law, have pleasure in submitting the Report and Accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Objects of the charity

The charity is a charitable company and is governed by its memorandum and articles of association. The principal object of the charity is to promote the Christian faith, in accordance with its Statement of Beliefs, in the United Kingdom or such other parts of the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit.

Review of Activities and Future Developments

Max and Sue Sinclair, assisted by part time office staff, carry out the main work. Some 200 Prayer Partners assist the Trust through prayer and finance, and a number of voluntary, unpaid persons perform administrative, organisational and direct charitable functions for the Trust.

During 2022, as COVID restrictions were relaxed, Max continued his work of mentoring and counselling in person, by telephone, email and Zoom. Sue continued her caring for Max and together they were active both face-to-face and in Zoom groups aiming to encourage those with faith and reach out to those seeking faith. They also continued to engage in activities within their local village parish. It is the view of the trustees that the charity's activities and achievements during 2023 will continue to be affected as the economy slowly recovers, and as Max and Sue tailor their activities to health- and age-related limitations. Many of the charity's supporters face similar restrictions, and this is likely to lead to lower donations as time goes by.

During the year the trustees wrote to supporters informing them of their intention, in view of Max and Sue's age, to wind up the charity by 2025, and asking them for their continued support until that time. We are confident that the charity will continue to be able to meet its obligations for the coming year but expect the level of both income and expenditure to decrease in following years.

The charity relies entirely on voluntary donations, and unpaid volunteers when necessary. It has continued to keep in touch with its Prayer Partners through regular newsletters to update supporters with news of activities. Since the usual tea parties for meeting supporters face to face were again impossible last year, Max and Sue have personally telephoned as many supporters as they can to maintain contact.

In planning the activities the Trustees have applied the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission.

Financial review

The accounts for the year reveal a surplus of £412 (previous year: deficit of £4,558). Following the letter from the trustees to supporters some extra one-off donations were received, in addition to pledges of ongoing support. Thus, although the level of expenditure was similar to the previous year, donations showed an increase of some 23%. We do not expect donations to continue at this higher level.

Max and Sue draw no salary. However, the cost of office staff constitutes the major part of expenditure, and if not addressed would be likely to increase in line with inflation. The trustees have agreed with Max and Sue that with effect from May Max will make monthly donations to offset some of the cost of office staff during 2023. They have budgeted for a modest deficit in 2023 but expect to at least cover costs during the following year. They continue to regard the financial position at the balance sheet date as satisfactory in view of current commitments and future plans (see Reserves below), including the intention to wind up the charity by 2025.

TREASURES IN HEAVEN TRUST
TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT
(INCORPORATING DIRECTORS' REPORT)

Reserves

The Trustees of the Charity have established a formal Reserves Policy. Free reserves (defined as the balance of the General Fund excluding tangible fixed assets) of £8,748 were held by the Company at 31 December 2022 against future expenditure from the General Fund.

The financial policy of the Company is to ensure that no general expenditure commitments are made for which funds are not already available.

Further, in order to provide for continuity of activities, the Trustees have considered it prudent to maintain free reserves equivalent to 3-6 months of expenditure from the General Fund. Free reserves at 31 December 2022 represented 4 months of 2022 expenditure.

In view of the intention to wind up the trust by 2025, the trustees expect to see reserves being substantially reduced over the coming year but consider the current level to be adequate to ensure that the Company is able to meet its obligations in a timely manner.

In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1 Statutory Information

The charity is a charitable company limited by guarantee and is incorporated in the United Kingdom. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2 Accounting Policies

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, under the historical cost convention.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the "Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) ("the Charities SORP"), with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland ("FRS 102"), with the Companies Act 2006 and with the Charities Act 2011. The charity meets the definition of a public benefit entity as set out in FRS 102.

The principles adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below.

a) Going concern

The trustees (who are the charitable company's directors for the purposes of company law) have assessed whether the use of the going concern basis is appropriate and have considered possible events or conditions that might cast significant doubt on the ability of the charity to continue as a going concern. The trustees have made this assessment for a period of at least one year from the date of approval of the financial statements. In particular the trustees have considered the charity's forecasts and projections and the possible implications should projected income and / or expenditure vary unexpectedly. The trustees have concluded that there is a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue to operate for the foreseeable future. The charity therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

b) Income

Income including investment income is recognised in the period in which the charity becomes entitled to receipt, the amount receivable can be measured with reasonable certainty, and receipt is probable. For the most part, income is generally recognised when it is received. Income is only deferred when the charity has to fulfil conditions before becoming entitled to it or where the donor has specified that the income is to be expended in a future period.

Income from donations and legacies includes:

- i) Recoverable gift aid. This is recognised when the related donation is received. Gift aid that has not been recovered by the balance sheet date is included as a debtor.

The charity relies on volunteers to carry out many of its activities, however, in accordance with the SORP, the value of these services has not been included in these financial statements as they cannot be reliably measured.

- ii) Legacies. Income from legacies is recognised when a distribution is received from the estate or, if earlier, when the charity has been notified that a distribution will be made and the amount receivable can be measured reliably.

c) Expenditure

Expenditure, including irrecoverable VAT, is recognised when it is incurred or, if earlier, when a legal or constructive obligation for a payment arises provided that it is probable that settlement will be required and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

The charity makes grants to other institutions and individuals to further its charitable objectives. Grants payable are recognised as constructive obligations arise, which is generally when the charity expresses a commitment to the recipient that can be measured reliably and then only to the extent that any conditions associated with the grant are outside of the control of the charity.

The cost of raising funds is not significant and has not been separately disclosed.

Governance costs, which are included in expenditure on charitable activities but are identified separately in the notes to the accounts, includes costs associated with the independent examination of the financial statements, compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements and any other expenditure incurred on the strategic management of the charity.

d) Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity. Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. Restricted funds are donations which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors; they include donations received from appeals for specific activities or projects. Endowment funds are donations that are retained as capital in accordance with the donor's wishes. The nature of the restriction determines whether the endowments represent permanent endowments or expendable endowments.

- e) Pension scheme arrangements
The charity operates defined contribution pension schemes for its employees. Obligations for contributions to these schemes are recognised as an expense when the liability arises. The assets of these schemes are held separately from those of the charity in independently administered funds.
- f) Taxation
The company is a registered charity; it has taken advantage of the various reliefs from taxation available to charities and no tax is payable on the charity's income.
- g) Exemption from preparing a cashflow statement
The charity has taken advantage of an exemption conferred by the Charities SORP and has not prepared a cash flow statement.
