Trustees' Report (incorporating the directors' report)

for the year ended 30 March 2025

The trustees, who are also directors of the charity for the purpose of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charitable company for the year ended 30 March 2025.

Principal activity and review

The Centre for Research and Implementation of Clinical Practice (CRICP) is a private company limited by guarantee and accordingly does not have a share capital. It was incorporated on 18 July 1994. The company was registered as a charity on 22 January 1999. The charity is known informally as the Centre for Research (CRICP).

Structure, governance and management

The company's governing document is the Memorandum and Articles of Association, as amended by a special resolution dated 22 November 2023.

Objectives and activities

The company's objectives and activities are the evaluation and implementation of research based practice into the treatment of chronic wounds, including leg ulceration, pressure ulceration and lymphoedema, through research, education and audit.

Achievements and performance

The company continues its work in lymphoedema and chronic wounds. The close partnership with the International Lymphoedema Framework (ILF) continues with the work expanding to take in new countries. Our publication policy may change in that there is a possibility that we will no longer be producing a third dedicated edition of Lymphatic Research & Biology, but this has yet to be finalised.

The Limprint database continues to offer us opportunities for new research, and Child Limprint is progressing well.

Financial review

In the period under review the company returned a deficit on ordinary activities:

Surplus on ordinary activities	3,535
Retained reserves brought forward	553
	<hr/>
Retained reserves carried forward	4,088
	<hr/> <hr/>

Future developments

The company's general income stream has become challenging as the regular income from our industry partners is no longer available. The company continues to offer support to health care providers and companies by developing research opportunities in the areas of wound care and lymphoedema. We continue to support AOTI in their work on venous leg ulceration and a new project on diabetic foot ulceration.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's objectives and activities and in planning future activities.

The work undertaken by CRICP relates to the management of important health issues. To advance these areas, CRICP undertakes research with clinical partners to develop patient orientated approaches to describe those patients who suffer from these conditions, and to examine the potential benefits of the appropriate management according to their own health and quality of life, and the potential benefits to the health organisations who manage them.

It is the judgement of the trustees that activities in pursuit of the above objectives fully meet the public benefit test, which they have kept in mind in planning programmes for the charity.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees, who are also the directors of Centre for Research and Implementation of Clinical Practice for the purpose of company law, are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The charity trustees who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

Auditors

Under an elective resolution dated 16 December 1994 it was resolved to dispense with the obligation to appoint auditors annually.

Under the provisions of the Companies Acts as the company is a small company an audit is no longer required. Messrs. Levy & Partners have signified their willingness to act as independent examiners.

This report was approved by the Board on 10 September 2025 and signed on its behalf by:

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Centre for Research and Implementation of Clinical Practice.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Centre for Research and Implementation of Clinical Practice (a company limited by guarantee) for the year ended 30 March 2025, as set out on pages 2 to 11.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act"). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- 4 the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
