For the year ending 31 March 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023.

The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Objectives and activities

Objectives and aims

The principal activities of the company throughout the financial period were in the field of the advancement of education of the public in the local area by the provision of a museum of local artefacts and other items of historic or public interest.

Achievement and Performance

Chairman's report 2022/23

In April 2022 Keith Trivett resigned as a trustee and also as Company Secretary. Keith was an early trustee of the Society who had returned to the role after a few years off. He made a major contribution to the development of the Society in its early years and guided it through the discussions with the Charity Commission concerning the adoption of the two company governance model. For the time being the trustees decided that the role could be covered by the Chair and other trustees acting together to ensure that company secretarial functions were performed without the need for a formal replacement. This arrangement to be kept under review.

At the AGM on 12 October 22 Tom Randall and Janette Stock were elected as trustees of the Society. Just a few months later we learnt of the death of Janette following a short illness which was a great loss to the Society given her enthusiastic involvement with the museum over many years, notably with the education team and her contributions to fund raising.

In August 23 there was further sad news when we learnt of the death of Dennis Herbert who served as Chairman of the Society for eight years until he retired from that role in 2022. Dennis served as a trustee for more than 30 years.

The Friends decided on the 3 May 22 to dissolve themselves as a separate organizational structure operating within the Society. The principal activity of the Friends had been fund raising, an activity curtailed by Covid, and this will now be absorbed into the regular business activity of the trustees.

In April 2022 the Society received a generous legacy from the estate of the late Ray Ashman who was a keen supporter of the museum. Following the receipt of another generous legacy a few months earlier the Society now has more funds at its disposal to provide longer term security for the collection and also to support more activity and improved displays for public enjoyment. To ensure effective management of the resource the Society established an investment sub-committee and drew up an investment policy to guide it.

The Society's collection remains on loan to the Radstock Museum Company which manages it for the Society. During the year several acquisitions were made for the Society's collection. These included: some items from Mike Witcombe's legacy of photographic equipment;

The Society contributed to the cost of the IT refreshment programme at the museum which is an essential infrastructure cost to maintain the museum's computing operations. The Society also gave financial support to the conservation programme. This included funding a subscription to an emergency management response service with Harwell Restoration that can step in with specialist support and equipment in the event of fire, flood or significant other emergencies. A number of other museums in the area also subscribe to this service. Conservation support also covered the cost of a Conservation Assessment report on a Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School banner from Coleford which is the subject of further fund-raising with a view to carrying out the work over the winter months.

The Five Arches, the Society's journal, is published through the voluntary efforts of our editor Julie Dexter and her support team which undertake design, printing, distribution and collection of subscriptions. Volumes 102 and 103 have been published since our last report and 104 will appear shortly.

The Society supported and participated in activities to commemorate 50 years since the closure of the last mines on the coalfield in 1973. This included mounting displays at two larger village shows and also involved two new displays by the museum.

Financial Review

Principal funding sources

Incoming funds are by way of subscriptions, voluntary income and fundraising ventures.

Reserves policy

The trustees have established a policy whereby the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in tangible fixed assets held by the charity should be 6 months of budgeted expenditure. At this level, they feel that they would be able to continue the current activities of the charity in the event of a significant drop in funding. It would obviously be necessary to consider how funding would be replaced or activities changed.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

Under the requirements of the Memorandum and Articles of Association the trustees are elected to serve at the Annual General Meeting.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The trustees (who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Directors of Radstock, Midsomer Norton and District Museum Society

This report on the financial statements of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are set out on pages 3 to 15, is in respect of an examination carried out in accordance with s.145 of the Charities Act 2011.

Respective responsibilities of the PCC and examiner

As the charity's Directors you are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements; you consider that the audit requirement of Regulations and s.145 of the Charities Act 2011 do not apply. It is my responsibility to issue this report on those financial statements in accordance with the terms of the Regulations.

Basis of this report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under s.145(5) (b) of the Charities Act 2011. It also includes considering any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act 2011 and S386 of the Companies Act 2006
 - to prepare financial statements, which accord with the accounting records and comply with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 and Regulations, and S396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities
- have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attentions should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Radstock Museum

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2022, which are set out on pages 4 to 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- a) examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- b) to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the requirements:
 - a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

For the year ending 31 March 2022

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2022.

The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Objectives and activities

Objectives and aims

The principal activities of the company throughout the financial period were in the field of the advancement of education of the public in the local area by the provision of a museum of local artefacts and other items of historic or public interest.

Achievement and Performance

Chairman's Report 2021/22

This report follows on from a period in which the operations of the Society were severely curtailed by the Covid pandemic. Financial year 2021/22 saw the gradual emergence of the Society from Covid hibernation and this was paralleled by the re-opening of the museum in time for Easter. Full trustee meetings resumed in March and at that meeting Dennis Herbert retired as Chair and was succeeded by Stephen Clews. Dennis had served in that role for eight years and his contribution to the Society is warmly appreciated.

During the year several acquisitions were made for the Society's collection. These included the escape axe from the WWII Paulton Glider crash, the Clutton account books, documents relating to the operation of Braysdown Colliery and a Friendly Society polehead from Tunley. The Society also funded the museum company to carry out conservation and mounting for display of the Radstock Town drum. The collection remains on loan to the Radstock Museum Company which manages it for the Society.

The Society made a legacy from the late Alex Hann available to the Museum Company for the creation of a new temporary exhibition space in the museum named in his honour. Three other legacies were received from the estates of Valerie West, Shane Beadle and Ray Ashman, all of whom were great supporters of the museum.

The Five Arches, the Society's journal, maintained production throughout the Covid emergency, thanks to the dedication of editor Julie Dexter and her publication team. It provided a great read in lockdown and for some there was more time to write! It remains the only journal to focus on this area and is enjoyed not just by locals but also by those now living in far flung parts of the globe.

Fund raising by the Friends was not possible due to the Covid emergency.

The work of the Society only happens because of the contribution of time and effort by the trustees and volunteers supported by our members. Despite the Covid emergency and cessation of activities we were able to maintain our membership. Do encourage your friends and neighbours to join the Society and help preserve our local past not just for the future but also for people to enjoy today.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The trustees (who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Statement as to disclosure to our Independent Examiners

In so far as the trustees are aware at the time of approving our trustees' annual report:

- there is no relevant information, being information needed by the examiner in connection with preparing their report, of which the charitable company's examiner is unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the examiner is aware of that information.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on:

18 November 2022

and signed on its behalf by:

Notes to the Accounts

1 Principle accounting policies

Principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below:

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting By Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2019) – (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

Restricted Funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered.

Costs of generating funds comprises those costs associated with attracting voluntary income and the costs of trading for fundraising purposes.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the examiner's fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SoFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned on an appropriate basis.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.
