MUSLIM EDUCATION CENTRE AND WELFARE TRUST

Trustees' Report For The Year Ended 31 March 2025

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Objectives and Activities

Aims and Objectives

To serve the local Muslim community by promoting a greater understanding of Islam through charitable, educational, and social means.

To contribute towards building and preserving bridges between communities and people at all levels through the pursuit of common values and interests.

Our focus is split over 3 different ages/gender groups:

- Youth – Ages 5 – 18
- Adults
- Women 18+

Objectives s Activities EDUCATION

Qur'anic Studies- Reciting the Holy Quran with tajweed (correct grammar and pronunciation) is taught for both girls and boys seven days a week. Classes are aimed at the youth between the ages of 5 and 18. However, there has been a demand to teach these classes to adults in the evenings and women from the Asian community who may not have access to just classes.

Significant Activities

We have a variety of formal and informal classes set up to cope with the extra demands from the local community. The classes for the children are particularly in demand with the MECAWT having a huge waiting list for the 6th year running.

Hifz classes – Memorisation of the Holy Qur'an is seen as a rewarding and important part of the Islamic faith. We have regular number of youngsters and adults taking part in the classes which are running most evenings and weekends.

Islamic studies- In addition to the daily classes, we also provide the children with practical advice on morality, how to be good citizens and how to be of benefit to the local community. We feel this goes hand in hand with being a good Muslim.

Language classes - Basic Urdu/Arabic language classes are held over the weekend. These are predominantly for adults and older children who wish to learn.

English and Math tuition classes- There was a need highlighted a number of years ago for younger students who were struggling with their daily school work. They would struggle to get help from home where often English wasn't the main language. The BME gap is increasing and The MECAWT is continually looking at ways to reduce this. We have enlisted the help of local professionals who are attendees of the MECAWT to help provide both English and Maths classes.

Lectures- Every month a renowned scholar is invited to deliver an influential speech to the youth, discussing current topics and issues. In addition, we have regular lectures which are held during the week, these are aimed mainly at the older youth and adults within the community. Separate bi-monthly lectures are held for ladies covering a variety of subjects.

Counselling services - The MECAWT provides guidance and counselling to the local community via a variety of methods such as personal interviews, meetings, email correspondence and telephone. The overwhelming demand for this service has led to longer opening hours to ensure time is made to these important guidance and counselling needs. We are often called into mediate marital and other disputes which take place within the family environment, all in a confidential manner.

Social Contribution - MECAWT has been active Addressing key health issues common amongst the local Asian community such as thalassaemia, diabetes and high blood pressure. We hold seminars throughout the year to discuss issues commonly affecting the local community. We also offer Matrimonial Services i.e. performing Marriages (Nikah), counselling, and Study Circles – addressing Social Issues for both men and women. In addition to this we have teams who help out local charities such as helping with aid being collected for overseas disasters.

Youth – The centre recognises the need to help guide younger Muslims understand the issues that affect them. Group sessions are conducted in English and encourage open and frank discussions. Issues such as racism, drugs, alcohol and respect for others are discussed and are aimed at social reform on an individual as well as communal level. By focusing this attention to youngsters we are hoping to build an integrated community where young Muslims grow up understanding and contributing the culture and society around them.

Young adults who are either studying at university or working provide a vital role in guiding and providing non-judgemental confidential sounding boards. Youngsters who find it difficult to approach parents with questions are able to discuss issues such as s e x and drugs in a relaxed atmosphere. These young adults are also offering free tutoring to teenagers to help them with their studies.

We have in the last year set up a Youth Group which looks at bringing the youth back in and off the streets. Currently we have a number football sessions, sewing classes and youth nights to provide the youth with a place to socialise and discuss their issues. We hope to expand our efforts over the coming year.

Notes to the Financial Statements
For The Year Ended 31 March 2025

1. General Information

MUSLIM EDUCATION CENTRE AND WELFARE TRUST is an unincorporated charity registered with the Charity Commission, registered charity number 1076268. The principal address is 3 & 4 The Parade, Totteridge Drive, High Wycombe, Bucks, HP13 6UH.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)", Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Charities Act 2011.

The charity is a Public Benefit Entity as defined by FRS 102.

2.2. Incoming Resources

Income is included in the financial statements in the year to which it relates and income and expenditure is included on accrual basis.

2.3. Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of the fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Freehold	No Depreciation
Leasehold	No Depreciation
Fixtures & Fittings	20% Straight Line

2.4. Stocks and Work in Progress

Stocks comprise religious books and educational materials held for distribution to students in the course of the charity's charitable activities. These items are held to support the charity's objectives and are valued in accordance with the charity's accounting policies.

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value after making due allowance for obsolete and slow-moving stocks.

Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method. Cost includes all direct costs and an appropriate proportion of fixed and variable overheads.

At the end of each reporting period stocks are assessed for impairment. If an item of stock is impaired, the identified stock is reduced to its selling price less costs to complete and sell and an impairment charge is recognised in the statement of financial activities. Where a reversal of the impairment is required the impairment charge is reversed, up to the original impairment loss, and is recognised as a credit in the statement of financial activities.

2.5. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are basic financial assets and include cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments that mature in no more than three months from the date of acquisition and are readily convertible to a known amount of cash with insignificant risk of change in value, and bank overdrafts.

Separate bi-monthly lectures are held for ladies covering a variety of subjects.

Counselling services - The MECAWT provides guidance and counselling to the local community via a variety of methods such as personal interviews, meetings, email correspondence and telephone. The overwhelming demand for this service has led to longer opening hours to ensure time is made to these important guidance and counselling needs. We are often called into mediate marital and other disputes which take place within the family environment, all in a confidential manner.

Social Contribution - MECAWT has been active Addressing key health issues common amongst the local Asian community such as thalassemia, diabetes and high blood pressure. We hold seminars throughout the year to discuss issues commonly affecting the local community. We also offer Matrimonial Services i.e. performing Marriages (Nikah), counselling, and Study Circles – addressing Social Issues for both men and women. In addition to this we have teams who help out local charities such as helping with aid being collected for overseas disasters.

Youth – The centre recognises the need to help guide younger Muslims understand the issues that affect them. Group sessions are conducted in English and encourage open and frank discussions. Issues such as racism, drugs, alcohol and respect for others are discussed and are aimed at social reform on an individual as well as communal level. By focusing this attention to youngsters we are hoping to build an integrated community where young Muslims grow up understanding and contributing the culture and society around them.

Young adults who are either studying at university or working provide a vital role in guiding and providing non-judgemental confidential sounding boards. Youngsters who find it difficult to approach parents with questions are able to discuss issues such as s e x and drugs in a relaxed atmosphere. These young adults are also offering free tutoring to teenagers to help them with their studies.

We have in the last year set up a Youth Group which looks at bringing the youth back in and off the streets. Currently we have a number football sessions, sewing classes and youth nights to provide the youth with a place to socialise and discuss their issues. We hope to expand our efforts over the coming year.

Charitable Contributions - As part of the Welfare work the charity has been doing we have fundraised to support a number of local and international organisations responding to international disasters in Pakistan, Syria, Palestine, and Africa to mention a few. We have also become more involved with local charities and projects which aim to send out aid to those most in need.

Bookshop – is run 7 days a week and is open to all. We stock a large range of classical as well as modern day books and clothing.

MECAWT also collaborates with the local community in interfaith projects and has

On accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts for the above charity for the year ended 31/03/2024

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the Charity Commission's Directions. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with s. 130 of the 2011 Act;
and

- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act, have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Annual Report for year ending 31st January 2023

The MUSLIM EDUCATION CENTRE & WELFARE TRUST (MECWAT) has been a charitable organisation since 1999.

Trustees

The MECWAT has a board of trustees who manage and maintain the running of the charity on a daily basis. It was agreed that the Trustee Board should have full authority in which they may appoint or remove staff. The board give their time freely and do not receive a wage or any other financial benefits.

Regular meetings are held with the board where all matters of the centre are discussed. Elections for the board of trustees is held every three years and it is our aim to appoint younger, professional individuals who can use their experience to move the MECAWT forward.

The following make up the current board of Trustees:

- Naveed Hussain – Chairman
- Shabir Jogiat
- Irfan Khan
- Mazar Shah
- Javid Anwar
- Abdul Rashid

Imams

- Waqas Rashid
- Fayez Rehman

Aims

To serve the local Muslim community by promoting a greater understanding of Islam through charitable, educational, and social means.

To contribute towards building and preserving bridges between communities and people at all levels through the pursuit of common values and interests.

Our focus is split over 3 different ages/gender groups:

- Youth – Ages 5 – 18
- Adults
- Women 18+

Objectives & Activities

EDUCATION

Qur'anic Studies- Reciting the Holy Quran with tajweed (correct grammar and pronunciation) is taught for both girls and boys seven days a week. Classes are aimed at the youth between the ages of 5 and 18. However, there has been a demand to teach these classes to adults in the evenings and women from the Asian community who may not have access to just classes.

We have a variety of formal and informal classes set up to cope with the extra demands from the local community. The classes for the children are particularly in demand with the MECAWT having a huge waiting list for the 6th year running.

Hifz classes – Memorisation of the Holy Qur'an is seen as a rewarding and important part of the Islamic faith. We have regular number of youngsters and adults taking part in the classes which are running most evenings and weekends.

Islamic studies- In addition to the daily classes, we also provide the children with practical advice on morality, how to be good citizens and how to be of benefit to the local community. We feel this goes hand in hand with being a good Muslim.

Language classes - Basic Urdu/Arabic language classes are held over the weekend. These are predominantly for adults and older children who wish to learn.

English and Math tuition classes- There was a need highlighted a number of years ago for younger students who were struggling with their daily school work. They would struggle to get help from home where often English wasn't the main language. The BME gap is increasing and The MECAWT is continually looking at ways to reduce this. We have enlisted the help of local professionals who are attendees of the MECAWT to help provide both English and Maths classes.

Lectures- Every month a renowned scholar is invited to deliver an influential speech to the youth, discussing current topics and issues. In addition, we have regular lectures which are held during the week, these are aimed mainly at the older youth and adults within the community.

Separate bi-monthly lectures are held for ladies covering a variety of subjects.

Counselling services - The MECAWT provides guidance and counselling to the local community via a variety of methods such as personal interviews, meetings, email correspondence and telephone. The overwhelming demand for this service has led to longer opening hours to ensure time is made to these important guidance and counselling needs.

However, there has been a demand to teach these classes to adults in the evenings and women from the Asian community who may not have access to just classes.

We have a variety of formal and informal classes set up to cope with the extra demands from the local community. The classes for the children are particularly in demand with the MECAWT having a huge waiting list for the 6th year running.

Hifz classes – Memorisation of the Holy Qur’an is seen as a rewarding and important part of the Islamic faith. We have regular number of youngsters and adults taking part in the classes which are running most evenings and weekends.

Islamic studies- In addition to the daily classes, we also provide the children with practical advice on morality, how to be good citizens and how to be of benefit to the local community. We feel this goes hand in hand with being a good Muslim.

Language classes - Basic Urdu/Arabic language classes are held over the weekend. These are predominantly for adults and older children who wish to learn.

English and Math tuition classes- There was a need highlighted a number of years ago for younger students who were struggling with their daily school work. They would struggle to get help from home where often English wasn’t the main language. The BME gap is increasing and The MECAWT is continually looking at ways to reduce this. We have enlisted the help of local professionals who are attendees of the MECAWT to help provide both English and Maths classes.

Lectures- Every month a renowned scholar is invited to deliver an influential speech to the youth, discussing current topics and issues. In addition, we have regular lectures which are held during the week, these are aimed mainly at the older youth and adults within the community.

Separate bi-monthly lectures are held for ladies covering a variety of subjects.

Counselling services - The MECAWT provides guidance and counselling to the local community via a variety of methods such as personal interviews, meetings, email correspondence and telephone. The overwhelming demand for this service has led to longer opening hours to ensure time is made to these important guidance and counselling needs.

We are often called into mediate marital and other disputes which take place within the family environment, all in a confidential manner.

Social Contribution - MECAWT has been active Addressing key health issues common amongst the local Asian community such as thalassemia, diabetes and high blood pressure. We hold seminars throughout the year to discuss issues commonly affecting the local community. We also offer Matrimonial Services i.e. performing Marriages (Nikah), counselling, and Study Circles – addressing Social Issues for both men and women. In addition to this we have teams who help out local charities such as helping with aid being collected for overseas disasters.

Youth – The centre recognises the need to help guide younger Muslims understand the issues that affect them. Group sessions are conducted in English and encourage open and frank discussions.

Issues such as racism, drugs, alcohol and respect for others are discussed and are aimed at social reform on an individual as well as communal level. By focusing this attention to youngsters we are hoping to build an integrated community where young Muslims grow up understanding and contributing the culture and society around them.

Young adults who are either studying at university or working provide a vital role in guiding and providing non-judgemental confidential sounding boards. Youngsters who find it difficult to approach parents with questions are able to discuss issues such as s e x and drugs in a relaxed atmosphere. These young adults are also offering free tutoring to teenagers to help them with their studies.

We have in the last year set up a Youth Group which looks at bringing the youth back in and off the streets. Currently we have a number football sessions, sewing classes and youth nights to provide the youth with a place to socialise and discuss their issues. We hope to expand our efforts over the coming year.

Charitable Contributions - As part of the Welfare work the charity has been doing we have fundraised to support a number of local and international organisations responding to international disasters in Pakistan, Syria, Palestine, and Africa to mention a few. We have also become more involved with local charities and projects which aim to send out aid to those most in need.

Bookshop – is run 7 days a week and is open to all. We stock a large range of classical as well as modern day books and clothing.

MECAWT also collaborates with the local community in interfaith projects and has representation on the Wycombe Muslim Communication Forum, a platform setup to actively engage with local council and Police authority.
