STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

- Appointment

The Board of Trustees consists of up to nine elected members and three nominated trustees. One third of the elected trustees who have been in office the longest retire each year, but are eligible for re-election.

Three nominated trustees may be appointed, one by each of the following organisations:

The Friends of the Plaza
The National Trust
Stockport Metropolitan Borough Council

- Related parties

The objects, for which the Trust was established, by its nature, required the appointment of persons with experience of theatre and cinema. A number of the trustees are members of organisations who have an interest in hiring the building or who have related interests. None of these associated transactions have been influenced by any interests other than the Trust's. They are not material and all such interests have been fully disclosed, where appropriate.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The trustees have identified the major risks facing the Trust as failing to meet its financial targets, especially income generation from ticket sales, front of house sales, operational grants and donations. The Trust monitors income from all sources, instigates targeted marketing to increase awareness and ticket sales, and has been applying for grants from a diverse and extensive range of both existing and potential sources.

The Trust undertakes an annual review of health and safety risks, and has in place policies to ensure compliance with best practice. This review has included the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. The trustees are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the exposure to major risks.

OBJECTS, AIMS, OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The objects of the Trust are as stated in the Memorandum of Association. The mission statement of the Trust is as follows:

'To protect, preserve and promote the Plaza Super Cinema as a fine example of 1930s architecture through modern viable use as a centre for performing arts and cinema, serving local, national and regional communities'.

The Trustees reviewed the Trust's strategy during the year. The key aims are

1. Maintaining the Plaza's position as the premier variety venue in the North West
2. Making the most of the Plaza
3. Completing the heritage refurbishment of the Plaza
4. Plaza commitment to youth theatre
5. Enabling all Stockport children to have the opportunity to be involved in the Plaza
6. Taking the Plaza on tour
7. Ensuing the Plaza trust is fit for purpose to support the charity and our mission

The trustees continued their policy of carrying on restoration works and are utilising a survey of maintenance requirements for the next five years undertaken by external consultants created in 2019.

The theatrical programme, has been a full mixture of variety performances and shows as well as a substantial use by local community groups and family entertainment shows. The film programme is being continually developed and includes National Theatre Encore and Live presentations and Opera screenings.

FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONAL REVIEW

The Plaza has undergone further restorative work to prescriptive standards during the past twelve months, reflecting the building's original architectural intent. The building maintenance costs for 2023 were £272,074 compared to £217,042 in 2022. The Plaza undertook capital expenditure of £57,677 during the year.

Overall, the Plaza made a surplus of £59,499 (2022 surplus £61,067). A surplus on the General Fund of £105,433 was achieved (surplus £109,355 in 2022) and there was a deficit on the Capital Fund of £45,904 (compared to a deficit of £48,288 in 2022).

The Plaza has received no public body funding during the year.

The Plaza budgeted for 291 (250 in 2022) events during the year and achieved 258 (227 in 2022).

Tight control has been maintained on expenditure during the year; although some staff costs have increased due to National Living wage requirements

The Plaza continues to hold cross-community events including the Festival of Remembrance, local schools, local operatic groups and dance schools. These events demonstrate our commitment to community use and we will endeavour to expand our activities in these areas.

Stockport Plaza Trust continues to rely on an ever-increasing number of volunteers and the Trust acknowledges their commitment and dedication:

- The Trustees – for governance of the Trust.
- The Stage Crew – for the setting up and operation of performances.
- The Projection Team – for the presentation of films and maintenance of cinema equipment.
- The Organ Team – for the maintenance of the Compton Organ.
- Front of House Staff – for ensuring the smooth running of performances.
- Café Volunteers – for their service in the Café Lounge.
- Friends of the Plaza – for the donations provided.
- All other volunteers who contribute to the successful maintenance and operation of the building in any way.

FUTURE ACTIVITIES

Along with the continuing maintenance of the building, it is intended the theatre continues its current high level of usage, both through shows and performances and other uses of this unique space including location filming.

It is our intention to continue with the successful Heritage tours of the Plaza, to give patrons and members of the community an insight into the heritage of the Plaza building and of its historic importance.

Our overall aim is to continue to increase usage of the Theatre.

PUBLIC BENEFITS, AIMS AND INTENDED IMPACT

In meeting with the objectives of the Charity, the Trust's public benefit aim is to preserve and maintain the Plaza Super Cinema in excellent condition and to promote performing arts to local, regional and national communities, achieved by providing ticketing support to underprivileged groups, offering preferential rates to community performing arts groups, hosting school and lifelong learning events, offer Heritage tours of the theatre and provide volunteers experience of working in a theatrical environment.

In setting out policy and planning activities, the Trustees have given careful consideration to the Guidance from the Charity Commission about public benefit.

INVESTMENT POLICIES

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the charity has the power to make any investment which the Trustees see fit.

The charity has a policy of keeping any surplus funds in short term deposits, which can be accessed readily.

RESERVES POLICY

The Trust's policy on reserves is to consider only what is necessary to support an unforeseen and sustained drop in the theatre's revenue, hold sufficient reserves to cover six months' worth of overheads expenditure and support the restoration capital plan. The capital plan relates to the future restoration and maintenance of the theatre and has been detailed in an external consultant's report setting out a five year plan for maintenance activities.

The effect of the pandemic has been to reduce our reserves. The Board continued to monitor the financial position and reserves post the year end. Our financial plans going forward, are to replenish the reserves to that of the policy level

The Trust does not intend to hold reserves for any purpose other than to fulfil its aims as noted in the Memorandum and Articles of Association. This policy is to be reviewed annually by the Trustees.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The trustees are responsible for their annual report and the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) for each financial year. These financial statements give a true and fair view of the incoming resources and application of those resources to the charity and group during the year, and of the state of affairs at the end of the financial year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- ensure that suitable accounting policies are established and applied consistently;
- make judgements and estimates which are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether the applicable accounting standards and statement of recommended accounting practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing financial statements. The trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring that the charity has appropriate systems and controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and for their proper application as required by charity law, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities and to provide reasonable assurance that:

- the charity is operating efficiently and effectively;
- all assets are safeguarded against unauthorised use or disposition and are properly applied;
- proper records are maintained and financial information used within the charity, or for publication, is reliable;
- the charity complies with relevant laws and regulations.

Internal controls over all forms of commitment and expenditure continue to be refined to improve efficiency. Processes are in place to ensure that performance is monitored and that appropriate management information is prepared and reviewed regularly by both the executive management and the Board of Trustees.

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss. They include:

- an annual budget approved by the trustees;

- regular consideration by the trustees of financial results, variances from budgets, non-financial performance indicators and benchmarking reviews;
- delegation of day to day management authority and segregation of duties; and identification and management of risks.

Importantly, the Board believes, based upon current financial reporting and reserves position, that the Trust remains a going concern.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Stockport Plaza Trust (the 'charity') for the year ended 31 August 2023 which comprise the statement of financial activities, the balance sheet, the statement of cash flows and notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 August 2023 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the financial statements is inconsistent in any material respect with the trustees' report; or
- sufficient accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the statement of trustees' responsibilities, the trustees, who are also the directors of the charity for the purpose of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditor under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with the Act and relevant regulations made or having effect thereunder.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities is available on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Extent to which the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above and on the Financial Reporting Council's website, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud.

We obtain and update our understanding of the entity, its activities, its control environment, and likely future developments, including in relation to the legal and regulatory framework applicable and how the entity is complying with that framework. Based on this understanding, we identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. This includes consideration of the risk of acts by the entity that were contrary to applicable laws and regulations, including fraud.

In response to the risk of irregularities and non-compliance with laws and regulations, including fraud, we designed procedures which included:

- Enquiry of management and those charged with governance around actual and potential litigation and claims as well as actual, suspected and alleged fraud;
- Reviewing minutes of meetings of those charged with governance;
- Assessing the extent of compliance with the laws and regulations considered to have a direct material effect on the financial statements or the operations of the entity through enquiry and inspection;
- Reviewing financial statement disclosures and testing to supporting documentation to assess compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- Performing audit work over the risk of management bias and override of controls, including testing of journal entries and other adjustments for appropriateness, evaluating the business rationale of significant transactions outside the normal course of business and reviewing accounting estimates for indicators of potential bias.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

The charity defers income received on ticket sales for shows and events until the date the show or event has taken place. The charity is not entitled to the income until it has been confirmed that the show or event has taken place. Shows and events can be cancelled and any ticket sale income would have to be refunded to the customer.

1.9 Financial Instruments

The charity has elected to apply the provisions of Section 11 'Basic Financial Instruments' and Section 12 'Other Instruments Issues' of FRS 102 to all of its financial instruments.

Financial instruments are recognised in the charity's balance sheet when the charity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities are offset, with the net amounts presented in the financial statements, when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Basic financial assets

Basic financial assets, which include debtors and cash and bank balances, are initially measured at transaction price including transaction costs and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, where the transaction is measured at the present value of the future receipts discounted at a market rate of interest. Financial assets classified as receivable within one year are not amortised.

Debt instruments are subsequently carried at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method.

Trade creditors are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of operations from suppliers. Amounts payable are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade creditors are recognised initially at transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the charity's contractual obligations expire or are discharged or cancelled.

1.10 Employee benefits

The cost of any unused holiday entitlement is recognised in the period in which the employee's services are received.

Termination benefits are recognised immediately as an expense when the charity is demonstrably committed to terminate the employment of an employee or to provide termination benefits.

1.11 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.

There are no critical accounting estimates or judgements.

2 Taxation

The company is registered as a Charitable Trust and is therefore exempt from corporation tax, due to an annual exemption under sections 466 to 493 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010.
