FA YUE BUDDHIST MONASTERY

Report of the Council of Management for the year ended 31 March 2022

The council of management presents its report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2022.

Object of the charity

The charity's main object is that of the advancement of the Buddhist Religion.

Principal activities and its achievements

The charity's principal activity during the year continued to be that of the advancement of the Buddhist Religion and the charity continued to promote Buddhist principles in the U.K. and other parts of the world for the cause of uniting Buddhist organisations of all places.

Locally the monastery continues to receive the support of a large number of pilgrims and visitors throughout the year by being the focal point of worship.

The funding of the charity, as with previous years, came primarily from donations of pilgrims and worshippers. Compared with the previous year, the financial year to 31 March 2022 saw a recovery in the amount of donations received. This was primarily due to the reopening up of the monastery post pandemic. This has resulted in a surplus of £31,674 for the year. The council of management considered the overall financial position of the monastery as satisfactory.

Future strategy

The charity plans continuing the activities as outlined above in the forthcoming years.

Members of the council of management

Members of the management committee, who are directors for the purpose of company law and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

Small company special provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime.

Approved by the council of management on 18 November 2022 and signed on its behalf by:
