Trustees report
for the year ended 31 March 2022

The trustees present their annual report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2022

The trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP)' Accounting and Reporting by Charities' issued in March 2005.

Development activities and achievements during the year

We would like to thank all members of the church for their assistance and support throughout the year.

The church membership continue to increase year by year and for this we give glory to God and also praise the efforts of the evangelical group for their work of evangelism throughout the year.

The church is open to all race and so let us continue to encourage members of the community at large to be part of this family church.

Band activities

We would like to use this opportunity to thank all the bands of the church for their generous donations, especially during your band anniversaries. Your donations have helped the church to meet most of our financial obligations. We are happy to be able to inform the church as a whole that our rent account are upto date.

Finance

We can confirm that the church finances are more healthier this year than last year as we witness an increase in our tithes and collections.

Executive council and leadership

It is necessary to reiterate that the function of leadership has always been played by the Executive Council with the leader as head of the decision making unit.

The Executive Council has always remained the highest ruling body of the church. The lower body named "Administrative committee" comprising of Band Executives will continue to function.

Both bodies will continue to meet as and when necessary to share ideas and opinions for the progress of the church.

The leader will always chair meetings of both bodies each time they meet.

Volunteers

We would like to thank all the volunteers who have work so hard to make our church the lively and vibrant community it is.

Trustees report
for the year ended 31 March 2022

Structure, governance and management

The method of appointment of the officers of the church into various administrative departments is set out in the charity's constitution.

Trustees' responsibilities

The charity act requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that year. In preparing those accounts, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice were used;
- prepare the financial statements based on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Acts. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the Board of trustees on 01 February 2023 and signed on their behalf by.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees/ members of Cherubim & Seraphim Church
for the year ended 31 March 2022

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2022 which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act; have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

for the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2021 which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act;
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act; have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
