

THE BATH ISLAMIC SOCIETY LIMITED

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 APRIL 2021

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 April 2021.
The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in the notes to the accounts and comply with the charity's constitution.

Structure, governance and management

The charity is a company limited by guarantee. The charity's objects are to advance the welfare and religious thought of Muslims and to promote the social, educational and religious activities of Muslims. The trustees, who are also the directors for the purpose of company law, and who served during the year were:

Risks and mitigation

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

Objectives and activities

The policy adopted in furtherance of these objects is to maintain a cultural and religious centre within Bath and surrounding areas and there has been no change in this during the year.

Our dual aims remain to provide a facility whereby Muslims can worship in a healthy atmosphere and to provide a community facility for all the inhabitants of Bath to interact and learn about the faith harmoniously. Our long-term ambition to build the self-confidence BIS's Muslims in their faith and through our community facilities and activities help makes our area a peaceful, vibrant and harmonious community.

Areas of improvement

Areas that the charity wish to improve upon are looking for ways to expand the size of the premises through either building or finding a new site. As the years go on the number of local Muslims and those attending the BISOC are increasing. Yet at present, the building is sufficient to hold the number of public attending busy prayer ceremonies. Also the charity are predominantly managing on a series of existing regular monthly donations and the weekly fundraising each Friday and income from investment properties.
Also, the trustees are looking for more ways and activities in order to facilitate the integration within the larger Bath community of other faiths.

Within Bath Islamic Society, the masjid/mosque is a place for congregation, a centre of excellence for knowledge, economic pursuit and community services. Giving religious instruction and social discussions. The Mosque plays a crucial role in various aspects of Muslim life and beyond into the larger community. It has great potential to ensure that the welfare of nearby society is well-taken care of. In order to achieve the said objective, the Bath Islamic Society should continue to have a strong financial performance and community backing.

Our main aims at The Bath Islamic Society is to help to bring the Muslim and local community together to engage with each other and build long lasting and strong relationships with one another. We have been organising community events such as Eid parties and family gatherings where we encourage families to bring their children to all come and enjoy a pleasant atmosphere and good food with each other. We have also been organising regular indoor football at a local sports centre throughout the year, which has been proven successful and enjoyable for the many participants.

To achieve these aims in the most efficient way, we have clearly defined our different roles as trustees so that we are able to run the society and any additional projects with ease. Throughout the year, we have come a long way in regards to improving the management of the society and we are aiming to constantly improve.

There are a number of core services which have continued throughout the year. This includes personal and private Islamic advice from the Imam. Five daily time prayers with facilities for both men & women. Marriage advice and Islamic marriage ceremonies. Also death advice and the prayer/support service in case of deaths. Support for Islamic burials. Also for other services which require the advice and support of the imam including the police force local council, university & hospital. He is at hand as and when required.

Bath Islamic centre prepare food during the wholly month of Ramadan for those attending to break their fasting at the mosque. Also, two Eid parties were celebrated with a family day activities.

The BISOC also help and advice new comers to the area and the ever changing student population that may need support in becoming settled in Bath. Numerous multi faith events are attended by the BISOC. Our objectives for the coming year shall be to continue to have more successful family events, continue to improve on the building of the society and continue to give the Muslim community a strong sense of belonging and identity. The trustees are putting a lot of emphasis on ensuring good governance and compliance for the following year. Also the charity is registered for HMRC gift aid.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed. I Buhir Rafiq am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified and Licensed member of The Association of Accounting Technicians licence no 4014.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's
statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Respective responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed. I Buhir Rafiq am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified and Licensed member of The Association of Accounting Technicians licence no 4014.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's
statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
